

GOING TO EUROPE—President Brigham Young left the city this morning on a visit to Europe.

HARBOR MEETINGS.—In the morning Elder Geo. Neuberger, President of the Sandwich Islands mission, addressed the congregation on the condition of the mission, and his experience there during the last three or four years.

He was followed by Elder J. H. Napela, a native Hawaiian, who made an address in his native tongue, his remarks being interpreted by Elder Geo. C. Cannon. The morning session was closed by Elder Geo. C. Cannon, who made remarks in Hawaiian and English.

In the afternoon Elder Geo. A. Smith delivered an historical address on the rise of the church under President Joseph Smith; the expulsion of the Saints from the state, their journey to the Rocky Mountains, under the guidance of President Brigham Young and their progress and development since their arrival. His discourse will be published.

THEATRICAL.—On Saturday evening there was a large assembly, and a splendid performance at the Theatre to witness the close of Mr. Chaplin's engagement.

Donnelly, Kennedy, the renowned Scotch vocalist, will make his first appearance in his famous entertainment, consisting of Scotch, English, Irish and American songs, and a large number of songs, with anecdotes, humorous stories, etc. Mr. Kennedy has gained a first-class reputation as a great British, and in this country, and the lovers of fun and vocal music who attend the Theatre to-night may depend upon an excellent entertainment.

The performance will conclude with the very excellent farce "Family Jars."

Miss Geraldine Warden, the celebrated prima donna, late of the Lyceum opera troupe, is engaged and will appear during the course of the present week.

VISITORS FROM THE EAST.—The following gentlemen from Wisconsin, chiefly from Madison City, arrived in this city on Saturday afternoon, en route to the Pacific: Hon. B. F. Hopkins, M. C.; Hon. Philatus Sawyer, of Oshkosh, M. C.; Hon. Thos. S. Allen, Secretary of State; Hon. William E. Smith, State Treasurer; Hon. Charles R. Gill, Attorney General; Hon. J. M. Rusk, Bank Commissioner; Hon. Henry Cordier, State Prison Commissioner; Hon. E. W. Hayes, Postmaster; Hon. Geo. B. Smith, Col. Thomas Reynolds, N. B. Van Slyke, President First National Bank; D. K. Tanney, Esq.; Hon. James Ross, E. Burdick, Esq.; Major P. B. Parsons, Dr. J. B. Rowen, S. Klaber, Esq., Philo Dunning, Esq., and J. E. Mowley, Esq., all of Madison.

Major S. B. Finney, of the Oshkosh Northern, and Hon. Samuel Hay, of Oshkosh; Wm. H. Wyman, Esq., of Milwaukee; Dr. R. B. Treat, of Janesville; Hon. N. S. Green, of Milford; Hon. Wm. Griswold, of Columbus, and Hon. Geo. W. H. of Wausau.

They leave for the West this evening or to-morrow.

FRATERNAL.—We had a pleasant chat this afternoon with a brother of the quill, L. R. Elliott, Esq., editor of the Manhattan Standard, who is travelling to the Pacific. He is agreeably surprised with the appearance of our city, and thinks marvels have been wrought when the disadvantages under which the people have labored are considered. We wish him a pleasant journey here.

INFORMATION.—If Christian Jensen and James Hamilton will call at this office, they will learn something of their horses that were stolen.

GRASSHOPPERS AT SMITHFIELD.—By telegram from Bp. Ronkelly, of Smithfield, Cache county, we regret to learn that a heavy swarm of grasshoppers alighted in that city about 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the 24th. They came from the north-west.

POLICE TRIVALS.—Sam Getts, for driving a coach through the procession on the 24th was fined $25.

LEADER MOUNDING FOR BUTCHERING A CALF and selling meat on the Sabbath was fined $10.

Several persons were fined for being drunk and disorderly.

The following cases were set for adjudication this afternoon:

Wm. Stevenson, charged with whipping his wife and woman, charged with whipping a man and afterwards robbing him.
