"Beyond all other issues are the issues written by Thomas Jefferson and to its of orderly liberty under the law and of civic honesty. Mr. Bryan's chief fleutenant, Mr. Croker, represents the broader sense can the work forces which stand for civic dishonesty human hands be employed, and now they openly champion the was rather a bow of prom- cause of riot, of mob violence, of upsetforces which stand for civic dishonesty truth ting by force or fraud the verdict renten the dered by the people at the polls. Without, any rebuke or repudiation of Mr.
Bryan and with the openly expressed encouragement and approval of Senator Jones who is running Mr. Bryan's na-tional canvass, Mr. Croker has now twice, in open statement, incited the violent and the lawless to open riot on election day next Tuesday. He has done this in so many words, with the vice is a fitting sequence to the way in which the members of his party for the last six weeks have been conducting their campaign. It is fitting and natural when mobs are encouraged to break up peaceable political meetings to interfere with the right of free speech and of free discussion on the platform of the issues before the poople that there should follow advice from the organized leaders of the party guilty of such conduct calculated to overthrow the verdict of the people when it shall be given. Let me recall to you that our present election law which provides for equal representarepresentatives at the count of ballots was passed by a Republican legislature and signed by a Democratic governor, the late Roswell P. Flower, a Democrat of the old school, by the way, who four are able to prevent it being done. Have these men forgatten the events of '93 and '94 in this State? Have they fortory statements, such incitements to riet ignorant and evil men to such deeds as have in the past have culminated in murder as are liable at any time to cul-minate in murder. They, themselves, no matter who may be guilty would go free though morally guilty while their lawless dupes would pay the full penaty of the law. Have those men forgotten that scores of election officers new try to incite others to attempt. Let there be no misunderstanding. Every power of the State will be exerted to see on next Tuesday each man in this State shall east his vote as he pleases and shall have it counted as cast.

"I should regret the election of Mr. Bryan as the greatest possible calamity that could be all the nation, but if Mr. Bryan has a plurality of but one vote in his State it's count will be projected by every force at the command of the executive and the same measure of justice that we need to othe shall be meeted to us in return."
