

The past week has been the lightest of any in recent fall seasons in a social way. Only a few functions have taken place and these have been chiefly of a quiet nature. The cold weather insures in the near future the dancing parties which always make a feature of the winter, and several functions are already being planned.

Among the prettiest affairs of the week was the luncheon given on Thursday by Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle, the event taking place at the home of the hostess. The table and rooms were bright with pink and white cosmos, and covers were laid for 12. After the luncheon a delightful afternoon was spent, the hostess giving several harp selections, and Mrs. A. J. Gorham some readings. The guests were Mrs. A. J. Gorham, Mrs. David Hemphill, Mrs. A. T. Sanford, Mrs. Frank C. Kelsey, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Ernest Greenwood, Mrs. Sereno Tuttle, Mrs. F. D. Halm, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Hoffman and Miss Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertained a few friends at an informal evening party on Tuesday.

An unique affair of the week was the "barn" party given by Mrs. J. F. Hinton on Monday night. The party was held in the house, but the rooms were gotten up to suggest a well-stocked barn in harvest, sheaves of wheat, shocks of corn, bunches of hay, and other details carrying out the idea. Sunflowers and fruit were everywhere in evidence and the affair was a very enjoyable one. A guessing contest, and an old-fashioned supper were among the pleasant features.

On Tuesday night A. Hannerer entertained at dinner at the Alta club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch and Miss Hirsch of Philadelphia.

Capt. and Mrs. E. M. Blake gave a delightful euchre party at the post on Wednesday night, a few of the post people being entertained. The rooms were prettily decorated in autumn leaves and eight tables were played, with six at a table.

Mrs. E. W. Hall entertained the ladies of the Aid society of the Baptist church at a Kensington on Thursday.

Mrs. W. L. Green gave a pleasant afternoon function yesterday at her home, in honor of Mrs. Hanchette, Mrs. Halm, and Mrs. Murphy.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden.—The leading social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Eldora Myrtle Lyon to Mr. Richard Lee Taylor, which took place Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple. The happy young bride and groom returned to Ogden on the evening train and were received at the elegant home of the groom's parents, Hon. and Mrs. R. J. Taylor, 2644 Jefferson avenue, by their relatives, who had gathered to extend their best wishes and congratulations and spend the evening with them. An elaborate repast was served in the dining room. The bride and groom are among Ogden's best known and highly esteemed young people. The bride is a charming young lady of beauty and talent. She has been associated with her mother in the millinery business. The groom is one of the city's best known young business men, being interested in the brokerage business and other enterprises. They have a host of friends who will join in wishing them happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will be at home to their numerous friends at 463 Twenty-first street after Nov. 1.

Mrs. A. V. Curby and Mrs. E. P. Jones, who have been visiting in Ogden with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stevens, left this week for California to join their husbands, who are in business there.

Mrs. S. L. Purgan and daughters Rose and Lillian, who have spent the entire summer visiting in England, Sweden and Norway, returned home this week, having had a most delightful trip.

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the cozy home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Richey, on Madison avenue. Richey was wedded to Mr. T. W. Layne of McKeesport, Pa. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. J. L. Carver in the presence of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony and the extending of congratulations the guests partook of a bounteous wedding dinner. The bride has for a number of years been one of Ogden's popular young school teachers, and is a young lady of accomplishments. The groom is employed in the railroad offices at McKeesport, at which place they will make their future home.

Mrs. George Leachhead, Sr., and daughter Lizzie returned home this week from three months' visit with relatives and friends in Scotland, which they enjoyed very much.

east to visit for three weeks at the St. Louis fair.

PROVO.

The Sorosis club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Irvine last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Sam King gave an interesting account of the life and labors of Jonathan Edwards. Miss Hogland's review, of early Pilgrim life was well given, and followed with the closest attention. The club adjourned for two weeks; an account of the meeting of the Federation of Clubs to be held in Logan next week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor left Provo for St. Louis Thursday morning. After visiting the fair, the doctor intends visiting medical schools and hospitals in several of the larger eastern cities, before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Evans, and Mr. and Mrs. David Vincent, have returned from St. Louis, and report their trip a most pleasant one.

The People of Provo are looking forward with great anticipation to the concert to be given by Miss Lula Gates on the evening of Oct. 17. It has been some time since her last concert here, and it will be many years before the pleasure of that evening will be forgotten. It is useless to say she will be greeted by a crowded house to welcome her to her home city next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Libby of Whitefield, N. H., are visiting Mr. Libby's aunt, Mrs. Hannah Smith. This is their first visit to Provo, which they are enjoying very much.

Mrs. R. R. Irvine has returned from the world's fair at St. Louis. He visited other eastern cities while away, combining business with pleasure.

One of the most successful meetings of the Ladies' Republican club was held in the clubrooms last Monday evening. Judge Largent of Salt Lake City was the guest of the evening, and delivered a well prepared address on "Republican Principles." Lizzie Thatcher gave a reading entitled "The Old Virginia." Mr. J. B. Nelson, State Treasurer Dixon and Senator Reed Smoot spoke encouragingly of the growth and advancement of the Republican party. By special request, Miss Eva Ward gave a vocal selection. A duty lunch was served, and the remaining part of the evening devoted to social chat. The president, Mrs. Kitty Hines, and her assistants deserve much credit for their energetic efforts in making the club one of social, as well as great educational value.

Prof. Hickman gave a lecture before the Young People's organization of Springfield Friday evening.

Mr. C. A. Glazier was a visitor at Alpine last Monday evening.

Miss Eva Ward sang in the tabernacle during the session of conference last Sunday morning.

Mr. Clarence Patten and Joe Nibley of Salt Lake City were Provo visitors last Sunday.

A farewell party was given in honor of Mr. Harry Tromas, at the First ward social hall Thursday evening. After enjoying an interesting program, refreshments were served, and the remaining part of the evening devoted to games and music. Mr. Tromas is a bright, energetic young man, with many friends in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse intend spending the winter in California. They may close up their beautiful home, on First East street, where so many pleasant social evenings have been spent, by their host of friends.

The Mystic club met at the Kindergarten rooms, Thursday afternoon, an
