Continuous selling of the Union Pa-cific stocks offset attempts to bid up prices in other quarters, and the mar-ket went down pretty steadily. Sup-porting orders, however, were en-countered in the general list at about the level of Saturday's closing. Union Pacific broke to 1½ and the preferred 1¼ under last week's final prices. On-tario & Western and Consolidated Gas also lost a point. Business fell off tremendously at the lower figures and the market was steady through the second hour. Toward mid-day the tone improved somewhat with New York Central and Southern Pacific making the best showing. Some of the Tork Central and Southern Pacific making the best showing.
