BREVITIES.

Seven thousand women belong to the Belgian Internationals.

Who pays the highest price for a home? The woman who marries for one.

A Michigan doctor was arrested on the death of a patient but was promptly discharged upon the plea that he had prescribed all the medicines he knew.

In Iowa if a man borrows a quarter from his wife and gets drunk on it, the woman can sue him and recover the money, that is, if he has so much money left.

It is said that the three hardest words of the English language to pronounce, consecutively, are, "I am mistaken." An exchange suggests that it is much harder to say, "I deliberately lied."

The great leaders of modern literature have been hearty eaters, if not bon vivants: Goethe, Schiller, Milton, Byron, Lamb, Scott, Shakespeare himself, Thackeray, Dickens, have left on record their penchant for good dinners.

The manufacturers of St. Lawrence, Mass., have nipped a strike in the bud by agreeing to pay their hands hereafter by the hour instead of the day, leaving it with the operatives whether they will work six or ten hours per day.

A proposition to light the streets of Mount Vernon, Indiana, was opposed in the City Council of that burg on the ground that if the streets were lighted thieves would be enabled to see when they were watched and consequently it would be impossible to catch them.

A woman of Breslau, in Germany, has been sentenced to four years' imprisonment for obtaining money under false pretenses, in sending to the country three young ladies under the false pretext of securing positions for them as governesses in good families.

The New Bedford Standard says that one Saturday evening recently, a lady who lives near a church in that city was sitting by a window and listening to the crickets, which were loudly chirping, the music from the choir rehearsal being faintly audible, when a gentleman dropped in familiarly who had just passed the church and had the music full in his mind. "What a noise they are making to-night!" said he. "Yes," replied the lady, "and it is said they do it with their hind legs!"

An Indiana editor gives this to the world as an argument that the women of his state are prepared for the duties of a voting citizen: "A Harrison county girl recently knocked her mother down with a rolling pin, and in turn was choked by her father until her tongue hung out of her mouth. In a short time mother and daughter recovered, and pitched into the old man with rolling pin and table forks, nearly ruining his arm with the latter. The daughter then threw all the dishes out of the window.

The New York Tribune says: The police estimate that, on an average fully 500 persons—man, woman and children—go into the streets every pleasant day with the intention of stealing anything they can, with any prospect of safety, lay their hands on. These marauders particularly infest the hotels, public offices, and crowded shops, and carry off whatever they can steal from a bundle of any goods, an umbrella, or a cane, to a sheet of paper or a daily newspaper. Many of them are well dressed, have good manners, and would never be suspected by the uninitiated.

Florence, the comedian, tells a capital story of a waiter at one of the London taverns, who was sadly given to drink. A party of young men determined to reform him, and one day they read an imaginary paragraph from a paper, relating a terrible accident, in which an inebriate on blowing out a candle, was killed by the flames igniting with the fumes of his breath. Jerry pricked up his ears at this, and went in search of the prayer-book. Returning with this, he expressed a desire to take a solemn oath, upon it, bemoaned the fact that he had been a sorry tippler, and was bringing himself to ruin, and then swore that never again so long as he lived, would he attempt to blow out a candle!

Some of the women lace-dressers in Nottingham, England, have struck for an advance in their wages of 25 per cent., and a reduction in the hours of labor to 51 per week. The master-dressers agreed to offer the work people an advance of 12½ per cent. on their wages, and make the working hours 54 a week. The hands of most of the firms accepted the offer. In two large concerns, however, the women refused to resume work unless their terms were agreed to, and during the day proceeded to some of the other houses in the trade in order to attempt to induce the hands to leave work. In two large silk and cotton doubling mills in the town the hands have struck for the nine hours' system.

A Commercial correspondent who lately visited Senator Brownlow, at his home in Tennessee says: "Upon entering the Senator's house, we found him lying upon a large sofa, and a negro rubbing his feet. He is in a wretched health, but no more than he has been for two years. His hands and feet are continually jerking and shaking with the palsy. He cannot read unless the book or paper is fastened to a frame in front of him. He cannot speak above a whisper, and some days his strength is so far gone that he cannot do that. Indeed, he is as helpless as an infant. Nothing but constant care and watching upon the part of his family and friends, and his own firm determination keeps him alive. He is a man of tremendous energy and force of character. Not one of the other seventy-odd senators could be prevailed upon to leave home if they were in the prostrated condition that he is."

Here is a new story about Dean Richmond:

A modest printer's devil in Albany entered the manager's office, fearing that he would be rudely rebuffed when he made his mission known. After a moment's hesitation, he said, falteringly:

"Mr. Richmond, I believe?"

"Yes; what do you want of me?"

"I should like to get a pass from Albany to Buffalo."

"On what grounds do you ask for a pass?" (This with a rising and a very rough voice.)

"On the grounds, sir, that I don't want to pay my fare."

Richmond, without another word, wrote out a pass and handed it to the applicant. The boy took it, saying:

"Thank you, thank you, Mr. Richmond."

"You needn't thank me. I am glad to accommodate you. You are the first person I've ever known to ask for a pass on the right grounds."

Negroes Panic Stricken—The Wharton Case—Suicide in a Bank—Seventy-two Cases of Small-Pox—Jesse Grant Better.

PHILADELPHIA.—The steam frigate Chattanooga, lying in the channel at League Island, sprung a leak and sunk; it is supposed she was cut through by the ice.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The committee appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury to examine the printing bureau, report everything correct.

NEW YORK, 28.—James H. Hacket the veteran actor, father of recorder Hacket, of this city, died this morning at Jamaica, Long Island.

The whereabouts of Tweed it is said has been constantly known to the sheriff, and that he has never left the city and had no such intention. He has been to his office this morning, where he had a talk with several of his friends. Justice Scott says he saw him this morning in a comfortable place in the city. The justification of the bondsmen was continued to-day, and Messrs. B. F. Fairchild, and B. G. Cornell were accepted. It is stated that each signer of the bail bond is responsible for the whole amount, a fact which doubtless caused the withdrawal of Terence Farley and others.

A large assemblage of the newly elected members of the senate and legislature met at the 5th Avenue hotel this evening. The time was chiefly spent in discussing events in the coming legislature. Gov. Alvord will be appointed speaker.

Gen. Sickles has gone to Albany to take the preliminary steps to secure his nomination to the U. S. Senate, in place of Conklin.

The Erie railway, to-day, declared a dividend of 3½ per cent. on preferred stock, payable Feb 1st, 1872.

Rufus Ripley, gold clerk in the bank of New York, committed suicide in the wash room of the bank to-day, by shooting himself with a revolver; no cause is yet assigned.

The Central Savings Bank has suspended; the officers say for a few days.

A motion for discharge was made to-day before U. S. Commissioner Osborne, in the case of Callender, bank examiner, it was opposed by the District Attorney; the decision was reserved.

There have been seventy-two new cases of small pox in Brooklyn this week.

Money is very stringent, bonds at a government sale of 3½ millions at from 108,15 to 108,25; sales one million at 108,42, to 108.55. Governments strong, higher, good investment, in demand. The treasury has paid 1,600,000 in gold on account of the January interest.

Stocks firm, higher. W. U. T. 69½, Quicksilver 24½, Wells Fargo 56, Pacific Mail 53½.

LONDON.—The bullion in the bank of England has decreased 20,000 pounds; Consols 92½, money 92½ on account, American securities firmer.

PARIS.—Rentes 55 fr. 47c.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass.—General Butler made a speech here to-night on the fishing interests, as affected by the Washington treaty; he criticised it severely.

ST. LOUIS, 28.—Further advices from Sedalia confirm the previous accounts of the killing of negroes in Saline Co.; it is said that great excitement exists there. The negroes are panic stricken. Efforts have been made to suppress the facts.

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—In the Wharton trial, Jusan Jacobs, the negro cook of Mrs. Wharton, testified that while making the bed of General Ketchum the day before he died, she found a tumbler containing cracked ice between the bolster and head board; also a small phial had rolled down in the bed from near where the tumbler was. It smelled as if it contained laudanum. Ketchum was always drowsy when she went to his room. The witness testified to having at various times, during General Ketchum's visits to Mrs. Wharton's, seen him take medicine from a bottle without measurement; once she offered to get him a spoon, which he declined, saying he was accustomed to drink from the phial what he considered a dose. At the time witness found the phial under the General's pillow she was, by Mrs. Wharton's orders, changing the bottles. The General objected to her removing the bottles.

Mrs. Wharton's daughter was called. She stated that she left home on a visit to Hartford county, on the Thursday previous to General Ketchum's illness. She arrived home about an hour and a half before he died. She testified to taking from home with her a phial of paregoric, which she left at the house she visited. All medicines in her mother's house were kept on a wash stand in her mother's room, she went to it constantly. The phial found in General Ketchum's bed was here shown to the witness, who said she had never seen it before the day that General Ketchum died; she was positive she had never seen any such phial in the house. She was absent from home for the purpose of making farewell visits previous to her departure for Europe, which had been determined on about a year previously. She had at that time $18,000 in government bonds of her own, and under her own control. On the afternoon of Ketchum's death, Mrs. Hutton gave her his pocket book, watch, keys, &c., which she looked up and kept until Charles Ketchum came over on the 4th of July. Then she gave them to her mother, who gave them to Charles. She stated in reply to a question by Mr. Steele, that the letter sent by her to Mrs. Chubb, asking her to come to Baltimore, was in reply to a telegram received by her from Mrs. Chubb, the day before.

Miss Nettie Mayer, of Baltimore, was called. She said she was an intimate acquaintance of the Whartons; she saw Gen. Ketchum there frequently. In conversation last winter he told her he had been in the habit of taking medicine from a bottle without measurement.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 28.—In the U. S. Court this morning, Lottie D. Miller, one of the Ku-Klux, was found guilty. Judge Bond over-ruled Standburry's motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment. All the prisoners, so far convicted and who pleaded guilty, have been sentenced to from one to five years in prison and to a fine of 1,000 dollars; from eleven to eighteen months and a fine of $1,000 each; from one month to a year and a hundred dollars, and from one to three months and twenty dollars.

CHICAGO.—The inquest on the body of Mrs. McCoy, the supposed victim of the abortionist, developed the fact that abortion had been procured upon her, but not within so recent a period as her visit to Chicago. Shaurd, her betrothed husband, and Mrs. Fahlbusch, the doctress, at whose house she died, were discharged.

It is reported that J. Young Scammon and several prominent citizens have purchased the Chicago Republican, and will place it in charge of Sidney Howard Gay, formerly of the New York Tribune, and later of the Chicago Tribune.

CINCINNATI, 28.—Jesse Grant is much better and his recovery is now probable.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

Burglaries—Gamblers Arrested—The Gambling Fraternity in a Panic.

SAN FRANCISCO, 29.—A fatal error has been found in the indictment against Johnny Divine, alias "The Chicken," for the cowardly murder of the young German, August Kamp, whom he had defrauded out of twenty dollars. The name of the deceased was given in the indictment as John M. Kamp, and the grand jury will be compelled to find a new indictment.

Fresh burglaries continue to be reported at the police office, but the operators evade every effort of the police for their discovery.

The weather is warm, wind and clouds less soppy in feeling, and the appearance of the barometer is such that hope is entertained that the storm is wearing away.

The San Francisco delegation has been in session to-day, considering the proposed legislation for the regulation of the social evil, and the amendment to the board of health bill.

Judge Stanley, this p.m. examined the cases of J. R. Dickinson and John Doe Brown, the gamblers arrested late this morning and held to answer on three charges of carrying on the game of faro, playing at faro, and suffering it to be played in their place, they being the proprietors. He fixed the bail at $1,000 each charge. Most of the regular gambling houses were closed, or carried on their operations with the windows closed with blankets, so that no light could be seen from the street, and with extra squads at the bottom of the stairs and at the doors of the club room. There is a regular panic among the fraternity.

Mining stocks are more active and stronger.

Another party also discovered what are believed to be fine diamonds, in Arizona, has recently returned there from this city, being satisfied that he has the dead thing on an unlimited fortune. He went off quietly, taking every precaution not to be followed, being determined to keep the location of the place a secret.

EUROPEAN.

Speech by the Emperor of Austria. French and German Squadrons Moving—Proceeding in the National Assembly.

ROME.—A royal decree is issued, carrying into effect the commercial treaty definitely concluded between Italy and the United States.

Several Italian Archbishops and Bishops waited on the king of Italy at Christmas and presented the congratulations of the season.

VIENNA, 28.—In the Reichsrath, today, the Emperor Francis Joseph delivered the speech from the throne, with which the session is usually opened. After the customary formal congratulation his Majesty proceeded to deal with home questions. His readiness to grant extreme concessions he was sorry to say had not brought internal harmony to the state, as desired. The crown, while it contemplates the exercise of separate kindness with constitutional liberty, claims that its acts are in the interest of the whole as well as of individual states. Great stress was laid on the enforcement and giving heed to the laws. The government will yield to the wishes of Gallicia in so far as they are compatible with the interests of the empire. Measures are promised which will render the Reichsrath a complete representative body, reform election abuses, and develop the land. As to the aspect of Europe and the foreign relations of the empire, they are favorable for the maintenance of peace; and the unification of the Austrians will improve the pecuniary condition of the government. A bill will be submitted for the prompt settlement of the question of education, and the system will be remedied. Regret was expressed that any part of the empire yet remains unrepresented in the Reichsrath. The deputies are exhorted to supply the spiritual and material wants of the country. He closes by declaring that Austria is weary of international conflicts, and desires peace and order. Times were never more prosperous.

The lower house of the Reichsrath, to-day, elected Herr Hopper, President, and Herren Vinede Lish and Grosz Vice Presidents.

LONDON, 28.—The Standard reports that a French squadron will proceed at once to Greece, to support the claims of French citizens to silver mines in Laurium. The Mot d' Ordre is authority for the report.

The Prince de Joinville is about to resign his seat in the Assembly, to strengthen the position of the Duke d' Aumale.

Thiers gives a state dinner on Saturday in honor of the Emperor and Empress of Brazil. Business will be partially suspended on Saturday the 30th. The cotton market will be closed at Liverpool and little business will be done in London.

New Year's day will be observed as a close holiday, the stock exchange, cotton and other markets will be closed, and business wholly suspended.

LISBON, 28.—A German squadron, bound for Rio Janerio, to settle the difficulty between Brazil and Germany is hourly expected to appear off the mouth of the Tagus.

PARIS.—In the Assembly to-day Thiers insisted that the committee who have under consideration the proposed act for allowing an increase in the circulation of the bank of France, shall submit their decision to the Assembly at once, for action. He said at present the circulation was only $32,-000,000 francs below the maximum amount now allowed by law; and he threatened that the committee should bear the responsibility of delay in affording relief to the French people from the scarcity of the circulating medium. The committee spurred by Thiers' threat, finally, though unwillingly, promised to submit to his proposals at to-morrow's setting.

The Paris papers assert that Bismarck is seeking a pretext for the occupation of the evacuated French provinces.
