LOGICAL ECZEMA CURE

ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS

After treating eczema for years as a practically incurable blood disease, the medical world is greatly interested in the discovery that it is a blood disease at all, but is due to a parasite in the skin itself. This parasite is easily destroyed by the external application of a compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., which will quickly kill all eczema germs, while soothing and refreshing the skin.

R. A. Folkerts, of Duluth, Minn., tells of the success with D. D. D. Prescription in treating patients. "There was a man here suffering from Eczema for the last fourteen years, and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with Rheumatism for fourteen years, and Eczema in his feet, and the second treatment in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely. I have tried everyone in the world will be able to learn of your grand remedy. The first application is only a balm, and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I shall never be without it, and shall use it among my patients altogether."

No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, salt rheum, ringworm, etc., you will feel instantly soothed and the itch allayed at once with a few drops of this oil of wintergreen compound is applied. The cures all seem to be permanent.

TAYLOR FAMILY IN BIG REUNION

Nearly 400 of Departed President's Lineage Gather at Granite Tabernacle.

SPEECHES AND A BANQUET

President Joseph F. Smith Recites Instances in the Life of President John Taylor.

Of the 400 or more persons who assembled at the Granite stake tabernacle yesterday afternoon to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of the late President John Taylor, perhaps 375 were of Taylor lineage. Not all of these, however, were his direct descendants, but the great majority of them were his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, including those who had become related by marriage.

As related in yesterday's "News," Sunday last marked the 100th milestone that President Taylor would have reached had he lived, but that day not being one on which a birthday function could be properly held, yesterday was designated as the time when family and friends should meet together to pay respect and homage to the memory of the third president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The occasion was characterized by short addresses, the most noteworthy being that of President Joseph F. Smith, who had known President Taylor from his childhood, and who spoke in a strain of once tender and strong of the life and labors of his friend and brother. An address of welcome was made by John W. Taylor, B. H. Roberts spoke briefly and an original poem, "In memoriam" written by Mrs. Leonie Taylor Daynes, a granddaughter of President Taylor, was read by her mother, Mrs. May Rich Taylor. President Frank Y. Taylor was master of ceremonies.

INFORMAL BANQUET.
 The program, entirely informal, was rounded at the close of a banquet, held in the basement of the tabernacle. More than a dozen tables were set, each in the form of a "T," and at each more than 30 persons were seated. An abundance of good things were provided in the way of viands, and the tables were beautifully decorated as was also the spacious room.

At the conclusion of the speechmaking occurred a pleasing and unique feature of the evening, namely the blessing of John Taylor Gibbs, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon A. Gibbs, the mother being a daughter of President Taylor. Those who officiated in the ceremony were Presidents Joseph F. Smith, John R. Winder, Anthony H. Lund and Frank Y. Taylor, the first named pronouncing the blessing. The hall was then cleared and dancing was indulged in, principally by the young people.

The remarks of Elder John W. Taylor were devoted for the most part to the family, the members being urged to be faithful and true to the cause which their sire had fought and bled.

Hon. B. H. Roberts laid before the family association the matter of making disposition of the journals and manuscripts placed in his charge for the preparation of the biography of President Taylor, and which are still in Mr. Roberts' possession. The speaker then spoke briefly in eulogy of the man whose history he had written, saying that from his early childhood the courage and devotion of President Taylor had deeply impressed him, and the fearless and able defender of the latter-day work had been a role in his eyes. Mr. Roberts said that nothing so highly to be given had given him so much pleasure as the preparation of President Taylor's biography.

At the close of Mr. Roberts' remarks

PRESIDENT SMITH'S ADDRESS.

President Joseph F. Smith was the concluding speaker. He referred feelingly to the part taken by Elder John Taylor at the time the prophet and patriarch were murdered in Carthage jail. He said that Elder Taylor himself was a martyr, not figuratively, but literally, as his blood had flowed for the testimony of Jesus Christ. There was not a moment from the time that Elder Taylor became acquainted with Joseph Smith until the latter's death that he would not have given his life for the prophet, so thoroughly convinced was he of the divinity of Joseph's mission and so deep was his love for his friend and brother. President Smith recited instances in the life of President Taylor that showed his devotion to truth, his firmness of character and his courage in times of danger and distress. The speaker declared that among all the good and noble men with whom he had been associated, he had known none more pure and clean of mind than John Taylor, and upon his children and his children's children, until the latest generation, President Smith invoked the blessing of the Lord.

PROMINENT GUESTS.

Among the invited guests present were the following: Presidents Joseph F. Smith, John R. Winder, Anthony H. Lund, Elders John Henry Smith, Rudger Clawson, Hyrum M. Smith, George Albert George, George H. Richards, Orson F. Whitney, Anthony W. Ivins, Seymour B. Young, B. H. Roberts, J. G. Kimball, Patriarch John Smith and Elder Philip DelaMad. The latter who is now nearly 86 years of age, is a resident of Tooele county. He was with President John Taylor in France in the early "fifties," assisting him in the work there.
