

What would have been a wholesale burglary in this city was prevented last evening by the appearance of Officer Meisner, on the scene, who frightened the burglars away. The burglars had entered Spargo's bookstore on Washington avenue by prying open the back window. They opened the cash drawer ind register, but finding no cash, left the goods in the store undisturbed. They evidently next directed their attention to the Boyle hardware store, which they entered through a back window. They went through that store, stealing therefrom a dozen razors and some other sutleryware, departing through the window. They then went to the C. A. Beghtol jewelry store next door to Boyles' and pried open the window, but were confronted with a harder task to gain entrance to the main part of the store than they had no doubt antici-pated, as a heavy iron barred door separates the small room at the rear from the store, and it was at this door they were working when Officer Meisner heard the noise, and when he stepped up to the rear of the store it is supposed they entered the repair rooms so he could not see them. Mr. Meisner went to the nearest telephone and called Chief of Police Browning, who, with Southern Pacific Detective Dan Fitzpatrick, responded, but before Mr. Meisner returned the burglars had es-caped from the building and could not located. In their fright they left the razors they had stolen from Boyles, an old pistol and several cartridges lying on the back room floor of Beghtol's. The police worked on the case all night, and this morning, but found no trace of the burglars.

The Chinese consul-general San Francisco received a complaint dated March 10, reciting certain fears and calling for protection from the la-bor unions here. The document alleges that the Chinese population of Park City was in momentary danger from expulsion or bodily violence, and that the labor organizations here have instituted a comprehensive boycott against them The complaint was referred to the Chinese ambassador at Washington, Shen Tung, who laid the matter before Secy. Salem, Fremont Co., Idaho, Aug. 19, -Belleving that the "News" whether to ive credit where credit is due, we rish to correct what appears to be an intentional misrepresentation made by Rexburg correspondent, as appears the "News" of the 17th inst. there claimed that "Rexburg is the town where the next Idaho sugar facory will be located." Permit the riter to give your readers correct formation as to the site of the factory and some of the incidents leading up to its selection, etc. Through the merg-ing of the Blackfoot and Idaho Falls sugar factory schemes, and the selec-tion of the latter place to erect the plant on, the thought was suggested to scople of the north end of the valley that if they "got a move on them," per-haps they too could get a factory. When the matter of location was considered there arose some jealousy be-tween, Rexburg and St. Anthony, and the result was a sort of a compromise. With this in view the Sugar company had the contracts printed with the clause inserted, "Centrally located between Rexburg and St. Anthony," which would place it on the railroad ine at or near Salem. A general and local committees were ppointed to canvass among the farm-re to obtain the necessary 5,000 acres o be planted into beets. When this ad practically been accomplished and olleagues came and viewed the territory for miles around in order to select the best location for the factory aving in view the quality and amoun of suitable land, with water and roll-

A vaj-uable horse under my observation died of lock-jaw caused by a gravel. The gravel caused the foot to break at the heel, just above the hoof, and pus was discharged. The owner did not cleanse the wound with an antiseptic solution, simply because other horses that had hear graveled had not well arithmet the een graveled had got well without this been graveled had got well without this extra trouble; consequently tecanic germs entered the sore and caused lock-faw, which resulted in death. It is always well to remember that though a wound may get well without leansing, it will get well much quicker f it is cleansed. And the man today who does not use antiseptics when need-ad, will gooner or later be reminded of what he should have done, when it is too late.
