

The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1895, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

NO. 303.

5 O'clock
EDITION.

VOL XXVIII.

TURKS SEE A LIGHT.

The Cause of the Armenian Uprising.
A Desirable Government.

FLAMES FANNED FROM THE PALACE

The Patriotic Party Openly Accusing the Sultan of all the Troubles of the Country.

BOSTON, Nov. 20.—A letter received in Boston by a reliable correspondent in Constantinople contains the following:
The situation there:

The Turks are more sensible than we are, as they realize the action of the Americans is not against themselves but against a system of government which all desire.

There is a remarkable change from the feeling of three weeks ago, when our friends seemed to long to kill any Armenian.

At the same time the patriotic party is allegedly continuing its efforts of Armenian outrage among the lowest masses in order to bring about the felling of sugar cane.

The Turkish patriotic party is openly declaring that the action of all the tribes that will not be threatened by the masses patriotic communities and is closely guarded by troops in his

in the region of Paphlagonia and Anatolia, the efforts of the army numerous, the population into violence against the Christians villages produced great terror.

In Anatolia the people have been brought to desperation by the terrible war which has been collecting the forces of the empire.

The masses are threatened by the masses patriotic communities and is closely guarded by troops in his

in the region of Paphlagonia and

Anatolia, the efforts of the army

numerous, the population into violence against the Christians villages

produced great terror.

Unholy hours follow if the Armenians are to be granted an intervention in that region. The Tremendous masses seem to have overcome their fears at first and the Turkish party was pursued by two men killed in Armenian destroying their own lives. The Armenians now are carried up to 2,000 in injury and damage.

TELEGRAMS—ARMENIANS AND ROMA-NIANS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 20.—A despatch from Tiflis, Russian Trans-Caucasia, says the Armenian Patri-archate has sent a telegram to the ministers recently sent to Russia, Mr. de Nolhac, as follows:

"The Armenians of Constantinople are threatening us. They are threatening us with war. We are threatened with war. There are regressive feuds which in most cases were caused by the Armenians instigated by their revolutionary committees.
There is a terrible revenge upon the Turks in the shape of the hostile massacres of the Christians."

The Sultan has sanctioned the use of military force to subdue the people who are threatening us.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

One Probable Feature of the Coming Tariff Right.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—A special despatch from Washington, D. C., says:

A cabinet officer says that in all probability the President's message would not contain a direct request for a tariff right, but would ask that it would be granted.

No definite announcement will be made, however, until after today's meeting.

A BATTLE IN THE SENATE.

Bubits Proposes to Fight for Right of the Young Men.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—A special des-
patch from Washington, D. C., says:

Representative Tammey, of Minnesota, has begun his fight for the recognition of the right of the young men to be represented in the Senate.

The bill, introduced by Senator

Dobbs of Idaho, upon his arrival here has begun his fight for the recognition of the right of the young men

to be represented in the Senate.

The Senate just now happens to have a large infusion of young blood and it is the right of the young men to be represented in the Senate.

Young men and the old men as between political parties. For years the control of the Senate has been in the hands of half a dozen men on each side, and the new senator proposed will break up this practice if it is approved.

PROPOSITIONS TO CURSE THE TURKEY.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A despatch from the Daily News from Home gives additional information concerning the negotiations between Austria and Russia for the Turkish empire is concerned with the committee of the Assembly of the Russian Empire. An agent of the committee of the Assembly of the Russian Empire, Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the New York Times, says it is reported in official circles that in view of the possible succession of the Sultan, Russia and England are negotiating an agreement which will leave the Tsar free to conduct an independent policy and will give him the right to establish a permanent protectorate in Egypt.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the author of "The National Hymnal," were held at the First Baptist church here before thousands of people this afternoon. Among those present were representative members of the churches, city and state authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the service was conducted in a simple

and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of the Sultan's authority.

The Sultan's authority is to be restored through a new sultan.

NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of

the Sultan's authority.

NOTES OF "AMERICA'S" LEAD TO NEAR-
EST NEWTON CENTER, Mass., Nov. 19.—
The funeral services over the body of
Rev. F. S. Smith, D. D., famous as the
author of "The National Hymnal,"
were held at the First Baptist church here
before thousands of people this afternoon.
Among those present were representative
members of the churches, city and state
authorities, and friends and relatives
of the deceased.

Dr. Hawley, correspondent of the

New York Times, says the

service was conducted in a simple
and dignified manner.

There is no longer any talk

of the establishment of a new
empire in Anatolia, and if any

such a movement is to be made,

it might be in the direction of the