STATE TEACHERS' CONVENTION

Will be Held in Ogden First Week in January—Preparations For Big Event.

FUNERAL OF ENGINEER WELCH

Mr. Famine Adds to the Burdens of Sugar Factory—High School Military Instructor Resigns.

Ogden, Nov. 10.—Supt. Allison of the Ogden city schools, with committees from the teachers, is busily engaged in making preparations for the teachers' convention to be held in this city the week beginning Jan. 1, at the High school building. Mr. Allison stated last evening that, indications are the coming convention will be the largest ever held in Utah and one of the most interesting and instructive. The reports received from all parts of the state indicate that great interest is being taken in the meeting. Most of the trustees are arranging for the teachers in their respective districts to attend, allowing part pay in some instances and others full pay to help defray their traveling and hotel expenses. Many of the trustees will also be in attendance.

The committees having the arranging of the program state that the one being prepared will provide for all who attend ample instructions on the most up to date topics in education. Some of the most able educators of the state and from other states will be present to address the meetings on various subjects that will help to advance the public schools, which today are acknowledged as ranking among the best in the Union.

Arrangements are being made with the hotel people of Ogden for low rates, and the railroads are going to give good rates, which will help to swell the number in attendance.

There are over 1,800 school teachers employed in the State of Utah, and if 75 per cent of that number attend the convention, it will make a large gathering of instructors. The people of Ogden take great interest in the coming event and will do their part to make it a thorough success. Prof.

MENTAL HOSPITAL BOARD.

Provo Health Conditions Good—Damage Suit Against United Verde. Special Correspondence.

Provo, Nov. 10.—At the meeting of the state board of insanity held Thursday the greater part of the time was devoted to the consideration of the acceptance from the contractor of the bath room building annexed to the north wing. Architect Watkins presented a statement to the effect that the work was completed according to plans and specifications, except that the floor in the third story is about five inches lower than designed, which makes it five inches lower than the floor in the main building, with which it will be connected. Also that 30,000 brick in the upper floors, or stoops, are not correct brick. This Mr. Watkins, however, does not consider a defect. He recommends that the floor be raised to its proper height, or the present incline from the higher floor on the main building be lengthened and that the work be then accepted. The board will have a special meeting Monday to decide on what will finally be done in the matter.

The following appropriations for October were made: Salaries, $1,907.80; current expenses, $1,938.31. Treasurer Farrer reported the following: Funds on hand Nov. 1, $1,382.15; General fund, $1,382.15; Improvements and repairs fund, $105.10. Medical Supt. Calder presented the following report of the movement of patients for October:

Sept. 20	171	183	354
Admitted in October	7	4	11

HEALTH CONDITIONS GOOD.

The local health authorities do not take kindly to the report of State Sanitary Inspector Clark as published, wherein he charges the people here are suffering from typhoid on account of the fact that there have been only three cases of typhoid here in the last 10 months. It does seem that the complaint is rather hypocritical. In the matter of slaughter houses, it is admitted there is more ground for criticism. The city board of health and council has had this question under consideration for years, and have made efforts to improve conditions, which have been temporarily benefited, but in time the old neglected conditions have again prevailed. Today the board of health will meet with the butchers and the matter of the butchers joining in building a slaughter house on sanitary lines will be considered. If this is done, great advance will be made towards changing the objectionable conditions, and whether it is or not, a drastic inspection will be made by the city.

FUNERAL OF ENGINEER WELCH.

Alvin Welch, the unfortunate engineer who met his death last Saturday in a wreck on the Nevada and California railroad, was buried yesterday afternoon in the Ogden city cemetery. Largely attended funeral services were held over his remains at the Second ward meetinghouse, Bishop Robert McQuarrie presiding. Beautiful musical selections were rendered by the ward choir and Mrs. Mary Farley sang a solo. The speakers were Elders William Moyer, T. S. Browning and Bishop McQuarrie, who spoke many words of comfort for the bereaved young wife and relatives, and eulogiums for the departed, whose sad and untimely demise was feelingly referred to.

A large funeral cortege followed his remains to their last resting place, and a wealth of floral offerings covered the grave. Representatives of the B. of L. E. attended the funeral.

CAR Famine GRIEVANCE.

The Amalgamated Sugar company is still having some difficulty in getting transportation for the sugar beets from the fields to the factory. The farmers are doing their part well, in getting the beets out of the ground, and are in some places piling the beets up in the field awaiting cars in which to convey them to the factory. The company has been able to get enough beets delivered to the factory by the near farmers to keep the machinery going up to the present time, and indications are that the railroad company will soon be able to provide cars for the beets now piled in the fields. The run this year is going to be heavy. The quantity and quality of the beets are unusually good in most places, so that all concerned are satisfied.

MILITARY TEACHER RESIGNS.

Captain A. L. Louder, who was appointed to the board of education to take charge of the military training department of the High school, has declined the appointment, giving as his reason that he is now in California for the benefit of his health, and cannot return for several months. BURGLARS ENTER STORE.

James Johnson's hot pie and confectionery store was entered Thursday night and several dollars' worth of candy and cigars were taken from the place. It is estimated that the parties who made off with the goods were familiar with the place and must have entered by means of a skeleton key, as no damage to the building was done. The city marshal is investigating and if possible will run down the culprits.

academy band, the various classes following their manner. The procession marched past the buildings in which the academy has found a home in earlier years and continued through the business district of the city, returning to the new building at 10 o'clock.

The assembly hall was filled to its utmost when the meeting was called at 10:15. President A. H. Lund, Elder George Tansdale and other prominent visitors were present. After an anthem by the academy choir the invocation was offered by "Patriarch" Mahon. A school song (written by a student) was then rendered, and Principal Noyes made a short and appropriate speech of welcome. In the address made by Elder Tansdale, he emphasized the fact that the young people of today are the future of the nation in living and partaking of the blessings of the gospel of Christ. They should appreciate and take advantage of them.

President A. H. Lund showed very clearly and forcibly the value of good books, and told those present to cultivate the habit of good reading. He quoted from Bacon to show that some books are to be tasted, some chewed and some eaten, and directed. The other musical numbers were a soprano solo by Mrs. Ida Reed, a vocal solo, "Kind Words are Sweet Tones of the Heart," by Miss Minnie Peterson; a violin duet by Prof. Christensen and a student, and a brass quartet. Oris Stewart, president of the student body, was on the program for a sentiment which he made very interesting. The meeting closed with the singing of the hymns.

The afternoon was spent in friendly athletic contests with the Mantle high school, which was a large crowd, with the following results:

20 yard dash—High School first, Broad jump—Academy first. High jump—High School first. Shot-put—Academy first. Teachers' tennis—Academy first.

MONROE.

Light Vote Cast.

Reprehensible Halloween Pranks—Close of Beet Harvest.

Special Correspondence.

Monroe, Sevier Co., Nov. 7.—Yesterday voters seemed very much in earnest in their participation in the election. Only 333 votes were cast in both voting precincts out of about 500 registered, absence and indifference being the causes of so few votes being cast. Voters were largely Republicans with the exception of a few favored Democrats, who ran for county offices.

Halloween pranks were more than usually aggravating. One instance is especially reprehensible. Alfred Newby, who is erecting a nice brick house, had one side of his house ruined by the water tap being turned on and damaging the foundation.

The heating plant placed in the school is doing most excellent service, and all pupils can attend to their studies in comfort.

Weather has been most propitious for beet harvesting, which will be completed this week.
