Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Henry Christmas Business—The toy and holiday goods jubilee trade, the heaviest Christmas business in three years, with the retail trade over the state buying almost without stint.

St. Mary's Academy—St. Mary's academy, conducted by the sisters of the Holy Cross, will begin the new school year tomorrow morning. It is anticipated that the capacity of the school will be taxed to its utmost by the number of new pupils coming from points in the west.

Planning His Revival—The Young People's Christian union is planning for a big revival meeting to be held the last part of next month. The union consists of the federated young people's societies of the various evangelical churches of the city, and the revival will mark the opening of the fall work.

Congressman Wood Here—Congressman Ira Wood of New Jersey, accompanied by his brother, J. A. and Alfred Wood, and Edward P. Parkinson, city controller of Trenton, N. J., arrived in Salt Lake last night, and will spend a few days visiting with J. A. and E. P. Parkinson, and J. A. Parkinson, cousin of Mr. Wood. The party is enroute to the Seattle exposition.

Governor's Club Dance—A complimentary ball, the arrangements for which have been completed by the executive committee of the Governor's club, will be given Wednesday evening at the Ocean hall. Owing to the short time no formal invitations will be sent out, but all friends of the club are invited to attend. The affair will mark the opening of the Governor's season. During the summer months, much work has been done in the remodeling of the interior of the hall, and it now presents a considerably changed appearance.
