

SECRET EVENING NEWS.
Friday, February 5, 1892.
LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
GONE SOUTH.—President B. Young, accompanied by Elders F. D. Richards, Geo. Q. Cannon, Joseph P. Smith, and other brethren, started this morning to hold a two days' meeting in Provo.
BENEFIT TO-NIGHT.—This evening J. G. Mott, scenic artist and author, takes a farewell benefit, previous to his departure with his lady, and we bespeak for him a bumper. His brush has been used to much effect during Madame Scheller's entertainment, to afford gratification and pleasure to our theatre-going public—for to look upon the beautiful and bright is to enjoy both. In such places as "The Phantom," "Under the Gaslight," "Cinderella," "The Nalad Queen," and others, he has presented the effectiveness of the pieces presented. His beautiful comedy, to be played to-night, "When Women Weep," shows that his pen is as ready and clever as his pencil is facile and artistic. The bill for the occasion is a strong one, and should attract a large audience irrespective of the claims of Mr. Mott upon the public for a substantial token of their appreciation of his labors.
THEATRICAL.—"The Child of the Regiment" was performed for the last time yesterday evening, with its excellent cast. Few plays have taken such a hold on the public as this charming musical comedy, and "Josephine" is one of Madame Scheller's favorite parts, and one in which she displays a certain piquant and naive coquetry, yet in every respect a most perfect and beautiful play, which will with a general admiration wherever she may appear.
TODAY, there is a fine bill presented for the benefit of Mr. Mott, in "When Women Weep," followed by the spectacular extravaganza of "Beauty and the Beast," which will be a grand success, and some beautiful new scenery by Mr. Mott.
THE WEATHER.—We have received the following by Deseret Telegraph Line.
Utah: somewhat hazy and cold. Brigham City: clear and mild. Willard: very pleasant. Payson: very warm and pleasant. Panguitch: clear and pleasant. Hatch: warm and pleasant. Three inches snow. M. Pleasant: fine but cold and clear snow twelve inches deep. Round Valley: very pleasant. Sun shining very brightly, snow two inches. Fillmore: warm and pleasant. Panguitch: clear and pleasant, rather cold, snow two inches. Beaver: clear and cold, snow two inches at night. Panguitch: cloudy, but mild and pleasant, roads muddy. Cedar City: warm but very cloudy. Tokerville: like storming, roads muddy.
POST OFFICE BUILDING.—Persons who desire copies of this bulletin, issued from the News office, and who have not yet been supplied, can obtain them by applying at Money Order Office window of the Post Office.
NEW STAGE ROUTE.—Major Howard Egbert, who was selected to locate a new stage route for Wells, Fargo & Co., from Humboldt Wells to Bear River north, informs us that he has succeeded in locating an eligible stage line, by way of Meadow Creek, Duff Creek and Promontory City, the distance by the route being 200 miles. The road is well watered, with grass and timber most of the way, though small tracts of desert have to be crossed, but not of any importance, nor to impede travel. On the trip through he experienced the utmost kindness at every point. People along the proposed line, whether engaged trading, trading, procuring furs, or in whatever way, were busy and attending to their business. He speaks especially of the courtesy tendered him by Messrs. J. M. and M. A. Carter, the former of the firm of Marshall & Carter, Promontory City. He found a busy, lively place, with the people industrious and attending to their own affairs. They believed the prospects good for a city, but the Major thinks when the rails are laid the city will not have much permanency.
On asking him concerning the mines reported to have been recently discovered there, he said that though he had explored the country he had seen no indications nor heard anything of them till he came to this city.
POLICE.—Dennis McGoffin and Frank Morris, were arrested for drunkenness. Their cases will come up to-morrow morning. Hiram Jennison was also arrested for obtaining goods under false pretenses.
IN TOWN.—We had the pleasure, to-day, of meeting Col. C. H. Snow, General S. M. Green, H. M. Robbins and Henry Simonds, Esqrs., who arrived in this city yesterday. Col. Snow is the editor and proprietor of the Deseret, Washington, and is here as a Government Director inspecting the line of the Union Pacific Railroad. Mr. Robbins is correspondent of the same paper. The stay of the gentlemen is limited, as they leave in the morning, having completed the object of their visit. It is believed that their visit to this region, they express themselves agreeably surprised with our City and surroundings. Col. Snow is a relative of the Hon. Erasmus Snow.

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.
The credentials of the newly elected Senators, Tipton and Stewart, were presented. The Senate moved to take up the motion of Congress to reconsider the vote relating to the Central branch of the Union Pacific Railroad; lost.
The Constitutional Amendment came up at the expiration of the morning hour. Pending the question on Stewart's motion for a substitute for the House resolution, the Senate resolution was reported from the Judiciary committee. Perry made an elaborate speech. Morton objected to the Senate resolution on the ground that it left in the power of the States to disfranchise for other causes than race, color or previous condition of slavery; he preferred the affirmative amendment regarding who should have the right of suffrage.
Williams offered the following amendment, on which he will speak to-morrow: "That no person shall have the right to vote or hold office, prescribed by the Constitution or laws of any State."
HOUSE.
Johnson and Scannell, two recent witnesses, were brought before the bar of the House and discharged from custody.
Woodward introduced a joint resolution for changing the name of Wyoming Territory to Unalaska, which was referred to the Judiciary committee.
Schenck moved that the evening session be devoted to general debate, as some desired to revise the whisky and tobacco amendment, which were not printed. Schenck said he desired final action on the bill during the present Congress. The motion was agreed to.
The amendments reported by a committee of the whole to the Indian appropriation bill were taken up. Garfield moved to recommit the bill, with instructions to report additional sections, transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department, ruled out of order.
Butler, of Mass., stated that the bill under consideration would not pay the Indian expenditure by three millions; and that if the system begun by the peace commissioners is carried out, that plan would cost six or seven millions per annum.
Garfield denounced the Indian bureau as thoroughly corrupt. Windom defended the bureau. Several members participated in the debate.
Holbrook, the delegate from Idaho, in the course of his remarks, used the following words:
"The gentleman in charge of this bill saw fit to silence the delegates here by raising points of order and making assertions, which, he knew at the time, to be unqualifiedly false." The Speaker called him to order. His offensive words were taken down. The Speaker again interrupted him and said it would be improper for him to repeat his objections, which he had already taken down by the reporter. They were read by the Clerk; when the Speaker, in severe terms, said:
"The Chair rules these words out of order, as being unparliamentary and disrespectful. When a gentleman declares that a member has stated on the floor what he knew to be unqualifiedly false, he used the most insulting language that could be uttered on the floor of a parliamentary body."
Holbrook was about to make some remarks when Benjamin interrupted him, and said he objected to the delegate proceeding until he had retracted what he had said.
Holbrook: "I do not propose to retract one word of what I have said."
Speaker: "The delegate from Idaho refuses to retract his words."
Holbrook: Does the Chair rule so?"
Speaker: "The Chair has ruled that the remarks of the gentleman are not only unparliamentary, but as insulting as could be made on the floor of a parliamentary body."
Holbrook: "I desire to ask a question."
Speaker: "The Chair can yield no debate with the gentleman."
Chandler appealed from the decision of the Chair, as being contrary to previous decisions.
Speaker: "The Chair can hold no controversy with the gentleman from New York, or any other gentleman in relation to other decisions; any decision stands by itself on the words used, and is subject to appeal at the time."
Chandler withdrew his appeal, when Schenck offered a resolution, that Holbrook, Delegate from the Territory of Idaho, having uttered the following language, quoting it distinctly and in the presence of the House, and refuses to retract the same, that he be immediately brought to the bar of the House by the Sergeant-at-Arms and severely censured by the Speaker. The resolution was adopted without division. The Speaker then administered the censure of the House when Holbrook retired.
The discussion was continued at some length and finally the bill passed.
The House took up a bill to authorize the building of a military and postal road from Washington to New York. Cook spoke in favor and Kerr against the bill until the morning hour expired, when the bill went over.
The House proceeded with the business on the Speaker's table. The Senate Joint resolution, directing the Secretary of the Interior to annul the stationery contract with Dempsey & O'Toole was passed, with a slight amendment.
