Washington Points.

WASHINGTON, 13.—The Interior Department to-day received a copy of the fourth annual message of Hon. D. W. Bushyhead, principal chief of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, to the National Council, sitting at Tahlequah, Nov. 2, 1886. He says, among other things:

"I deem it my duty to invite your attention to the subject of the proposed confederation of the nations and tribes of the Territory, with the hope that you will take some action of a definite character looking to the formation of an intertribal government, clothed with such functions and powers as it may deem proper to confer upon it. The importance, not to say the necessity of such action, is suggested by the fact that there are bills before Congress providing for the erection of a Territory of the United States out of the so-called 'No Man's Land,' with such portions of the Indian Territory as may be included, by consent of the tribes residing thereon. Thus an for invading and dismembering the Territory is sought to be carried out, which in my opinion could be defeated in advance by a union of the tribes in a confederation through which they would act together on all questions involving the interests of all. Such an organization would not only conserve the interests of the whole Territory, but it would command the respect of the people and the Government of the United States. The danger and the power of the white man lies chiefly in his combination of forces. It behooves us to profit by their example. The Indian Territory occupied by 30 tribes, each, as in the olden days, distinct from the others, invites an invasion of their rights from the selfish and unscrupulous. The Indian Territory, with her 30 tribes bound together by constitutional compact into one federal body politic, would, in my opinion, be able by virtue of the moral force such a union would exert, and by the combined wisdom and united action of all, to resist all schemes for the dismemberment of our country and the invasion of our political and other rights."

SILVER CERTIFICATES.

In view of the fact that many new one dollar silver certificates were issued before they were perfectly dry and have since became blurred by use, the Treasury Department has adopted a new drying system which, it is thought, will correct this defect in all future issues. The design for the back of the new five-dollar certificates has just been adopted. It will be printed in a light shade of green, and will represent five standard dollars grouped so as to overlay each other. The two-dollar certificates will be ready for issue in a few days.

Charles Francis Adams, Jr., President of the Union Pacific Railway Company, had an interview yesterday and to-day with Secretary Lamar, relative to the adjustment of differences between the Government and the railway company on current accounts.

entirely satisfactory to both parties is in a fair way of being reached, and the amount determined on will be immediately liquidated by the company and the accounts closed.

The Department of State has received a communication from the Consul at La Guayra, Venezuela, in which he informs the Department that the Venezuelan Government has established a mint at Caracas and has begun to coin the product of the gold mines of the country. The Consul encloses a copy of the decree issued by President Blanco, which declares that foreign money will hereafter be regarded as merchandise, and will be received at the Venezuelan market rate. The officers of the Government are forbidden to receive any other than Venzuelan and foreign gold coin comprehended in the tariffs of March 7, 1879, and July 6, 1880. The importation of all is prohibited. The day of the issue of the decree the officers of the mint offered to purchase during the next eight days foreign silver coin at the rate of eighty cents for each United States dollar. The Consul says the efforts to increase their silver bullion by depreciating the silver coins of the United States and European countries twenty cents on the dollar must fail, and consequently they will be exported.

Judge McCue, Solicitor of the Treasury, in his annual report to the Attorney-General, again calls attention to the number of suits pending in the Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York between importers and customs officers, which suits, he says, create in effect a floating or unliquidated debt against the Treasury, the magnitude of which is beyond the scope of conjecture and which are running on interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum. Many of these suits have been pending for OVER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

At the beginning of this administration the number of old suits at issue in that district was about 2,300, involving millions of dollars, and since that time 1,444 new suits have been commenced. Within that period less than ten of the cases have been tried. Legislation is therefore urged to provide for an additional Circuit Judge in the Second Circuit for the exclusive trial of this class of claims and cases. This would be in the direction of economy, he says, as an additional expense would be far less than the interest the government would be compelled to pay as the penalty of delay. To show that this is a question deserving of serious consideration, he refers to the claim in the 12 consolidated cases of Benkard & Schell, which recently came up for refunding where the principal of the debt was $83,987.

The Sullivan-Ryan Fight—Other Sports.

SAN FRANCISCO, 13.—An appeal was made yesterday by the Society for the Suppression of Vice, to Mayor Bartlett to have him withdraw the license granted for the Sullivan-Ryan glove contest to-night, but the Mayor declined to take further action in the matter. Owing to the fashionable entertainment given to night in the Grand Opera House for the benefit of the Charleston earthquake sufferers, the managers of the contest have arranged that Sullivan and Ryan shall not appear until 11 o'clock, so as to give those who attend the Charleston benefit entertainment an opportunity of reaching the pavilion in time to witness the Sullivan-Ryan performance. The men will fight with four ounce gloves, and under the revised Queensbury rules, the agreement being that the winner shall take 75 per cent., and the loser 25 per cent. of the gate money. Pat Sheedy, Sullivan's manager, says to-night the match will not last fifteen minutes. That Sullivan intends to so suddenly that he won't even give the police a chance to interfere. The great bulk of the male population is on the tip-toe of excitement at the prospect of a clean knock-out, and although the Charleston benefit fund may not suffer, it would, perhaps, have been well for it had the double event not occurred on the same night.

As early as 7 o'clock the doors of the Pavilion were besieged by an eager crowd impatiently awaiting admission. When at last the doors were drawn open, the rush to obtain good seats was so great that many people were badly crushed, if not seriously injured. When all were inside, the Pavilion contained nine thousand people in time to see the large cistern at Sixth and Main Streets explode and tear up the street. This was caused by the foul gas. There was much excitement. Two fire engines were demolished by the explosion and James Council, Engineer of No. 1 Company, was killed outright. The fire was under control by 9 o'clock, but not before it had spread to the stores of L. L. Warren, boot and shoes, and Granman & Shattleworth, wholesale clothiers. These buildings were only slightly damaged by fire, but the stock suffered by water. The following is the loss and insurance: Robinson Brothers, loss on stock and building $85,000, insurance $60,000; William Cornwall, building and stock $80,000, insurance $35,000; L. L. Warren, loss on stock $70,000 insurance $60,000. The other losses will be about $10,000, covered by insurance.

Mamie Kelly's Funeral.

SAN FRANCISCO, 13.—All to-day's papers contain long accounts of last night's public demonstration against Goldenson, who murdered the school girl Mamie Kelly on Wednesday last. They regard it as one of those spontaneous public movements that will tend to stimulate judicial mechanism, while at the same time they rejoice it was not permitted to pass the limits of a demonstration. Six of the persons taken into custody for participating in it were to-day charged with riot. Their cases were continued. The funeral of the murdered young girl took place this morning. The Goldenson family moved away to-day from their house in Hayes Street. While engaged in doing so a crowd assembled and started to mash the furniture. Better influences, however, prevailed, and the family was allowed to depart in peace. The murderer was arraigned to-day, and was allowed until next Thursday to plead. No trouble is anticipated to-night, but the police and the deputy sheriffs will be on duty.

The Strike Off.

CHICAGO, 13.—This afternoon 2,000 strikers gathered about the dwelling of Armour's employes who was attacked yesterday while attempting to move his household goods to another neighborhood. This employe is a Knight of Labor, but refused to go out with the others. He had his goods upon the wagons this afternoon when set upon by a mob. The crowd was dispersed by a company of militia who left a squad of Pinkerton men to protect the goods. The crowd quickly organized and nearly overpowered the Pinkerton guard, when another company arrived on double quick, charged through the mob and arrested six men and routed the others. No casualities.

At a meeting of the strikers to-night a dispatch was read by Mr. Barry from Powderly ordering and the men to return to work. The sentiment of the meeting was equally divided and further action in the matter was postponed until Monday.

It appears that Barry has had the orders in his possession since Wednesday. He claims to have delivered the promulgation solely for the purpose of satisfying himself of its authenticity. The scene in the meeting when the order was read was in many respects an extraordinary one. Barry had not finished the announcement before the assemblage was in an uproar. The men rose to their feet and shouted they would not go back; that they would starve before they would surrender, and that they would have eight hours or nothing. After much heated talk the question of obeying or not obeying, was left open by postponement until Monday.

FOREIGN.

FROM EMPEROR WILHELM'S DOMINIONS.

A Batch of Notes, Interesting and Otherwise.

Doings of the Reichstag.

BERLIN, 13.—Official papers assert that the government has decided against attempting to levy new imposts, Prince Bismarck postponing further taxation projects until the meeting of the next Reichstag, in the hope that the electorate will return a more submissive majority. Coupled with the statements that there will be presented no new taxation proposals, are vague hints that the government is preparing reforms in the financial administration, suggesting a disguised scheme of increased duties. No section of the Reichstag will oppose an increase of the marine budget, a large appropriation being considered a necessity. It is admitted that the fleet is unequal to the wants of the country for defense and offense.

A sharp contest is expected in the present session over the subject of the military septennate. The question will probably be limited to deciding on principle, whether to maintain or to modify the septennate term expiring March 31, 1888. The government is afraid to hazard and it is not likely that the military budget will be produced or that the discussion of the septennate question will be beyond the principle. It is reported that Prince Bismarck is considering the scheme of asking for a budget for a period of four years. In official circles the assertion is still made that the Government does not dream of anything except the Septennate. As to the relative position of the different parties on the question of the principle, 160 votes, consisting of both groups of Conservatives, National Liberals and several Independents, are assured to the Government. The absolute majority required to carry on business is 199. The Centre holds the balance of power.

The eagerness of Prince Bismarck to arrive at a complete modus vivendi with the Vatican arises from the necessity of the government obtaining the vote of the Centre. If Prince Bismarck concedes the admission to Germany of all the Catholic orders, the Centre will vote for the Septennate.

The New Ambassador.

Prince Bismarck accorded M. Herbette, the French Ambassador, his first interview yesterday. The tone of the official press is guarded on the question of the relations between Germany and France, but the chagrin of the members of the French embassy is uncon cealed. The reception accorded M. Herbette by Prince Bismarck was not favorable to the French designs in Egypt. It is reported that M. Herbette assured the Chancellor of the absolute neutrality of France in the event of war in the east. Prince Bismarck has been silent during the week and has vouchsafed no hint of the policy to be followed by Germany.

Ecclesiastical.

Bishop Kapp recently returned from Rome. He has had several interviews with Count Herbert Bismarck and Herr von Gesler, Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs, which strengthens the reports that the conclusion of a concordat with the Vatican is imminent. The Prussian Catholic press declares that a concordat is not needed, an entente being sufficient to protect the church, but that if Prince Bismarck concedes an ample concordat the Vatican will readily accept it.

The North German Gazette quotes this story from the Halle Gazette: Crown Prince Frederick William, while inspecting the recently restored high altar at Merseburg Cathedral, perceived the absence of the cross. In a moment of inspiration the Crown Prince went to the sacristy, lifted the crucifix reverently with both hands and carried it to the altar, upon which he reverently placed it. Then turning to those accompanying him, he exclaimed: "Do you not believe this sacred symbol will remain forever here?" This action is taken to imply that the Crown Prince is prepared to combat all attacks upon the church.

Other Notes.

According to the official returns for the present year, the German merchant fleet is composed of 4,135 vessels, having a registered sea-going tonnage of 1,282,449 tons and crews numbering 58,951 men. As compared with the returns for the year 1885, these figures show an increase in the number of vessels of 122, and a falling off in tonnage of 11,839 tons.

The Trade Court at Aacheh had sentenced 53 compositors to pay damages to their employers for leaving work and joining a strike without giving notice.

The police of Bavaria have expelled State Architect Ressler from the country for assisting in a Socialistic agitation.

The body of Herr Kreebes, member of the Berlin Municipal Council, has been found in Grunewald. He had suicided by shooting himself through the head. A writ had been issued against him for embezzling trust funds.

Professor Jordan, of Koenigsberg, is dead.

THE ROYAL THEATRE.

The accounts of the Berlin Royal Theatre, including the opera, show that the cost of the State is 2,500 marks annually. Of this amount the Emperor contributes 250,000 marks from his private purse, besides paying the deficit incurred by the opera and ballet, which do not pay owing partly to the large salaries paid the artists. Herr Niemann contracts to sing 48 nights for 36,000 marks, Herr Betz, baritone, receives 40,000 marks yearly, and the tenor-buffo, Lisban, is paid 18,000 marks. Frau Sucn-Hofmeister receives 36,000 marks, Fraulein Beeth 20,000, Fraulein Reinard 14,000 and Fraulein Pattini 16,000. The drama yields a handsome surplus.

The issue of the musical works of Frederick the Great commences with 25 flute concertos edited by Barge of Leipsic.

Goldmark's new opera "Merlin" will be produced in Vienna on November 19th. The principal artists appearing in the opera will be Frau Materna and Herren Winkelmann and Reisbenberg.

ASHLEY CONFERENCE.

ASHLEY, Nov. 6, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Our first conference as an organized stake, which convened Nov. 6th and 7th, and was presided over by President S. R. Bennion. There were present in the stand, the various ordained and acting Bishops, with their Counselors, High Priests, Seventies, Elders and leading men. The conference was held in the Merrill's Ward school house, the largest in the valley, and was crowded to excess; the sisters filled the major part of the house. Stirring addresses were listened to from President Bennion and others; referring to the follies of fashion, etc., President Bennion spoke pointedly of the fashion in vogue among many of our sisters of banging their hair, showing that in the old country, at least, it was considered as a token of lost virtue and immoral lives. Stake Presidents for the Relief Societies, Y. M. and Y. L. Mutuals and Primary organizations were elected, and the general and local authorities of the Church were sustained by the conference, after which conference adjourned for three months. C. C. B.
