

MARRIAGES THAT WERE FAILURES

Seamy Side of Matrimonial Bliss Is Exposed in the Divorce Court.

TALES OF UNREQUITED LOVE.

Plain and Fancy Recitals of Several Men and a Few Women Who Disregarded Their Obligations.

In a melodramatic voice, Mrs. Louise Heilberg, a young woman of tragic type, intense and melancholy, described in divorce matinee yesterday afternoon how her husband, Charles A. Heilberg—the villain—rattled money in his pockets while she wept without enough to eat. If looks could have assassinated Heilberg, he would have been killed off in the first act. As it was Judge Morse saved him when he came down the curtain on their domestic troubles by ordering him to pay $10 a week for the support of herself and children, until the suit for divorce was heard.

For weeks Heilberg and his wife have lived apart. The only contention is for the custody of their two children, Mable, 4 years old, and Claude, 4 years old. Until yesterday the children had been held by their father. He released them and took them home to their mother when he was served with an order to show cause.

When Mrs. Heilberg met her husband on Main street and Second South streets several days ago, she asked him about the children. He declared that they were in good hands. Then he began to rattle his money, telling her he had $175 to fight the case or leave the city carrying off the children with him.

Mrs. Heilberg had only 20 cents to her name at this time. There was no flour in the house, no coal and only a few potatoes and some bread. She had been waiting for two days in order to gain livelihood. She underwent an operation recently and was not in a physical condition to work so hard.

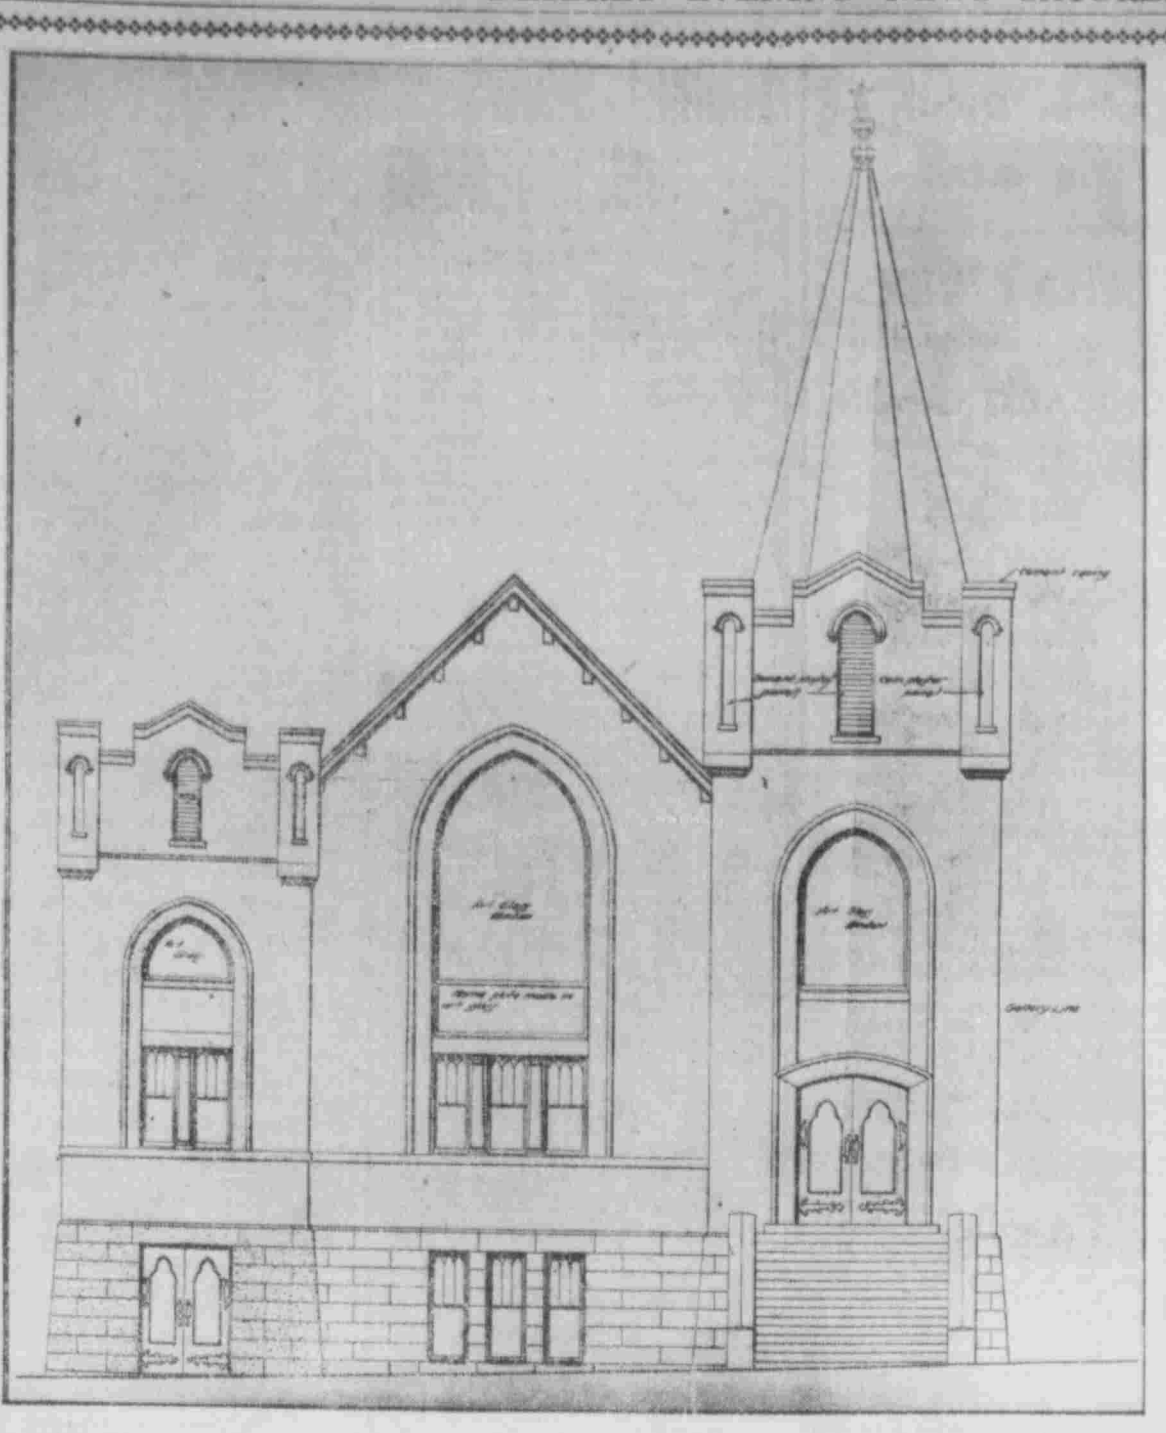

Heilberg was examined as to his ability to furnish his wife and children with the necessities of life. He earns $18 a week at the Crabtree Produce company as a clerk. He was ordered to pay $10 of this each week to his wife.

Mrs. Heilberg said that the furniture company had also threatened to come and carry her furniture away because Heilberg is behind in his payments. Heilberg's attorney declared that his client would see that the furniture would not be taken away.

HAD A MEAN DISPOSITION. After William Knadle has threatened to kill her and himself in the same manner his brother had exterminated his family, Mrs. Clara Knadle decided that it was about time to leave him. Her testimony was corroborated by her eldest daughter, Mable, 17 years old, and Judge Morse granted her a divorce.

She was awarded the custody of her four children and $20 a month alimony to support them. According to her testimony Knadle was a constant drinker and had been cruel to her and his children. He threatened to exterminate the entire family about six months ago, so Mrs. Knadle packed up her things, took her children to Idaho and remained there for two months. Knadle's brother in a fit of insanity, killed his wife and then shot himself. Fearing that Knadle would carry out his threats Mrs. Knadle worried herself sick until she suffered an attack of nervous prostration from which she is now recovering. They were married on Nov. 22, 1888, in Lincoln, Neb., and have four children.

Mrs. Kate Brockebank testified to the cruel acts of her brother, George Brockebank toward his wife, Mrs. Esther Brockebank, who was granted a divorce. "If it hadn't been for me," she said, "George would have choked his wife to death on one occasion. I went in the house just in time to pull him off. Then I saved the life of his 10-year-old son."

NEW MEETINGHOUSE FOR THE TENTH WARD.

The above cut represents the front elevation of the new Tenth ward meetinghouse, as agreed to by the building committee. Bids are now being called for the erection of the building, which is expected to cost about $20,000. It is the intention to construct the walls and put the roof on at present, and to finish it completely later. The building will be 60x75 feet, and it will consist of one main hall, the above size, also a basement which will contain six class rooms. There will also be two other rooms on the first floor in addition to the main hall.

When I grabbed a shovel out of his hand which he raised to strike the boy. He is a heavy drinker and cruel when he is under the influence of liquor.

Mrs. Brockebank conducts a boardinghouse in Bingham canyon. She hasn't seen her husband since last January and she was awarded the custody of her four children. They were married here on Oct. 25, 1897.

SHE SLAPPED THE CHILDREN.

Because her husband, E. D. Elliott, objected to her slapping his children, Mrs. Lillian Elliott applied for a divorce yesterday. Judge Morse decided that she had not lived here long enough at one time to have established a domicile here and the case was dismissed. They were married in St. Anthony on Feb. 9, 1905. Elliott was a widower with two children and when Mrs. Elliott attempted to correct them, he ran her out of the house. Since that time she has been wandering about the country conducting boarding houses in mining camps, and washing clothes for working men. On account of her jumping around from one place to another, Judge Morse decided that just now she was without a matrimonial domicile.

SEPTEMBER AND DECEMBER.

Mrs. Mary Marriott, aged 45 years, was accused by her husband Dr. Joseph Marriott, aged 71 years of Murray, with attempting to obtain his money by fraudulent means. She had already persuaded him to sell his drug store in Murray for $10,000 and she had obtained $2,000 from the sale. With this money she had leased the Midland hotel on Richards street in this city. Beside this she has several hundred dollars in the bank. She asked yesterday for an order allowing her temporary alimony. This was refused by Judge Morse.

Dr. Marriott invested about $2,000 of his amount in a farm which he rents. The remainder he placed in the bank. Although Mrs. Marriott obtained her dower right at the time of the sale of the real estate she asks for another dower right in his remaining property. They were married in Murray on Feb. 9, 1896. For the past year she declares in her divorce that Marriott has deserted her. Marriott denies this. He says that she married him in an effort to get his property, and that he has always provided for her. With the money that she has already received from his estate, she has invested and made money.

CRITICIZED HOUSEKEEPING.

Jacob Hunter, a farmer in Sandy, came home one evening and scolded his wife, Mrs. Martha Hunter, for failing to take interest in keeping up the house. "If you don't like the way I keep houses for you, get somebody that you do," she replied. Then she gathered up her clothes, packed them in a trunk and left. This is the last time that Hunter has seen her although he has written several letters to her asking her to come back. His son, Frank, 22 years old and Elmer, 20 years old, by a former marriage, corroborated his story. Judge Morse granted him a decree of divorce on the grounds of desertion.

DRUNK FOR 260 SUNDAYS.

Mrs. Emma Hobush, a dressmaker, secured a divorce from her husband, Fitz Hobush, on the ground of drunkenness. Every Sunday for five years Hobush has been intoxicated. While intoxicated he was cruel to his wife and two children. Mrs. Hobush was given the custody of her son and daughter. They were married April 24, 1894.

On the grounds of desertion Mrs. Agnes Trough was granted a divorce from J. A. Trough. They were married Sept. 20, 1897, and three months later he left her. She has not heard from him since. She was awarded the custody of her baby five months old. Her sister, Carrie Olson, was the corroborating witness.

Mrs. Mary M. Holden was awarded $5 a week temporary alimony from Max Holden, a tempter, until her suit is tried. In her testimony she said that all she wanted was Holden to pay the expenses of the suit and attorney's fees and that she would not accept another cent from him. They were married two years ago in Bingham canyon.

TWO WIVES ARE UNHAPPY.

Mrs. Babcock is Deserted and Mrs. Neilson Has Other Woes.

Mrs. Margaret E. G. Babcock charges that her husband, Wm. Henry Babcock, has not supported her nor her child, in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third district court. She has been compelled to seek aid from her friends and relatives. She was awarded the custody of the child, William, 4 years old, $20 a month alimony, $50 attorney's fees and $25 suit money. They were married in Salt Lake on Aug. 10, 1902.

On the charge of desertion, Mrs. Lillian Neilson filed suit yesterday in the Third district court against Philip Neilson to whom she was married on April 25, 1895. She asks for the restoration of her maiden name and for temporary alimony.

BUTTER WAS NOT BLEANDED.

Complaint Is Issued Against Thompson Brothers by County Attorney.

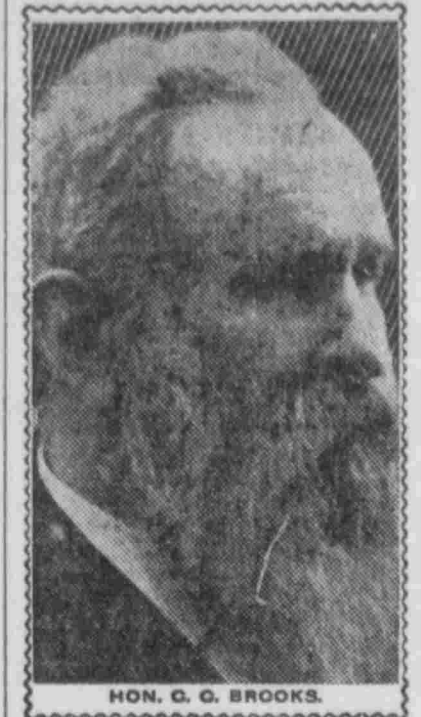

Thompson Bros., butter dealers of Salt Lake, were charged yesterday in a complaint issued by County Attorney J. P. Lyon with having sold unbleached butter on April 16. The complaint was sworn out at the request of Willard Nelson, state food and dairy inspector. A complaint was also sworn out against Sampson Benjamin, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. Benjamin attempted to graft on the county pauper fund to the extent of $3. He represented to James Sabin, pauper clerk, that Mrs. Sophia Frederickson was unable to pay him the rent she owed him and induced Sabin to advance it.

MANY DEFENDANTS ARE DEAD.

When handed a list of 118 subpoenas yesterday in the case of Salt Lake City against a large portion of the population.

MAYOR OF SUNBURY Says Peruna Is a Good Medicine.

Hon. C. G. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building and Loan Co., writes: "I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Peruna. It is a great medicine. I have used it and I have known many of my friends who have obtained beneficial results from its use. I cannot praise Peruna too highly."

Whether it be a cold or a cough, catarrh of the head or bowel complaint, whether the liver be affected or the kidneys, the cause is very liable to be the same. The weather slightly deranges the mucous membranes of the organs and the result is some functional disease. Peruna has become a standby in thousands of homes for minor ailments of this sort.

tion, Deputy Sheriff C. L. Schettler found that a large number of them were dead. He is undecided how to make a return on their subpoenas. The suit is intended to quiet title on Federal Heights.

NEW BUTTE SWITCHBOARD.

General Superintendent Summers and Assistant Secretary MacKenzie of the Bell Telephone company are in Butte today, interested spectators of the ceremony of "cutting corners" from the old to the new switchboard and the formal opening of the new building. The new board has 15 positions for local work and eight positions for toll service, the connections amounting to 3,000 lines. The new building is 42x50 feet and three stories with a basement, stone front with pressed brick sides and entirely fire proof.

PRAISES INSURANCE LAWS.

W. H. Whittington of National Association Says They Are All Right.

Vice-president W. H. Whittington of the National Association of Life Underwriters is in the city from Cincinnati on a western business tour. He addressed the local life insurance men this afternoon at the Commercial club. Mr. Whittington says of the Utah statutes: "The insurance laws you have in Utah are the very best, for life underwriting they could not be improved upon. They are a protection to the company and a safeguard to your people; there is no job about either one of those statements. Utah's laws suit us, and they ought to suit the people who take out life insurance in your state."

KEITH-O'BRIEN COMPANY

Join our Sewing Machine Class

Procure a $50 Machine for $25--$2 Down, $1 a Week

The sewing machine is a wonderful invention. No invention for the simplification of woman's work equals it.

As it stands today the machine reflects the highest type of inventive genius.

It has been perfected from time to time during the 60 odd years since the first machine was conceived. At the same time the cost of the machine has steadily decreased.

Business genius has been at work. The old method of getting the machine to the people is obsolete.

The new way is through the aggressive department store—from factory in car lots to the store, thence to the people thereby eliminating state, district and local offices attached to which were officers, office force and the individual salesmen.

Think of the tremendous saving in salaries—which the buyer paid for.

Keith-O'Brien delivers the machine direct—at practically half the regular price.

No wonder our Sewing Machine Club is a splendid success.

The Triumph machine, which Keith-O'Brien offers its club members at $2.00 down and a $1.00 a week until paid for—and delivered as soon as one joins the club—is one of four of the best known makes on the market.

Car lots direct to the people! Glorious news, that! For who wouldn't rather pay $25.00 than $50.00.

A special representative of the factory is with us for a week or two. He wants to tell you about the Triumph and show you its workings. No matter how much you know about machines he can help you. Join the club Monday!

Next Thursday evening, April 29, the exercises in connection with the graduation of the class of 1909 as trained nurses from the Dr. W. H. Groves Latterday Saints hospital will be held in the Wilshire hall, at the corner of A and P second streets. There are, as will be seen from the picture, thirteen members in the class, who have spent three years of toil to reach the coveted honor of graduation. It is no light thing now to do this. It requires hard work and more or less continuous application. There is, however, a good reward for those who are successful. The pay for trained nurses is such now to warrant the most strenuous efforts on the part of those enlisting. Each of these young women will easily find employment. It is said, at the rate of $25 per week, and some of the most proficient in their callings have too many calls made of them at that price. The demand now is for the best among nurses, and the Groves L. D. S. hospital is trying to meet the demand and at the same time afford to the young women of the state a means
