

In Social Realms

Mrs. A. F. Wey and Mrs. Vaughn Paul were among the week's hostesses entertaining at a bridge tea on Tuesday at Mrs. Wey's home in honor of Mrs. E. A. Wall who leaves shortly for an European trip. The rooms were decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses, and a number of friends assisted in serving. Prizes were awarded each table.

Miss Daisy Clark one of the week's brides was guest of honor at a bachelorette party on Tuesday night given by Miss Lois Wraithall the decorations being in pink and about 15 entertained.

Mrs. T. R. Barker entertained the Post Bridge Club on Tuesday, the prizes going to Mrs. Edwin Butcher and Mrs. P. C. Potter.

Mrs. Clarence Sampson entertained the members of her card club on

The table in the dining room had an old Roman brass lamp for a centerpiece, and a Cluny lace cloth. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. J. E. Bamberger, Miss Winnifred Brice, Miss Ruth Sowles, Miss Haymond, Miss Winnifred Snow, and Miss Dorothy Marioneaux. Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle, Mrs. Howard S. Stowe and Mrs. William Banks. Twelve tables of the bridge were played, and the prizes, which were water color sketches of Paris, were awarded to Mrs. Frank T. Roberts, Mrs. George W. Putnam, Mrs. Fred Slade, Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. William Dale, Mrs. Harry Schultz, Mrs. Allen T. Sanford, Mrs. L. A. Evans and Mrs. George E. Ains.

Mrs. David Keith will entertain next Tuesday afternoon at the second in a series of bridge teas at her home, 529 east South Temple street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jenkins and Colonel and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Jr., have issued invitations for a large dancing party to be given at the Odéon, Wednesday evening December 8.

Mrs. W. B. W. entertained her sewing club on Sunday.

Mrs. E. L. Sheets was hostess at a bridge party on Thursday, the rooms being decorated in pink roses and gave a delightful dancing party last night, a large number being present and a pleasant time spent. The affair was in charge of Miss Edna Hull, Miss Mamie Price, Sterling Snow and Warren Stratton.

Mrs. A. B. Hirth entertained her sewing club on Wednesday.

Miss Sadie Price one of the month's brides was guest of honor at a bachelorette party on Wednesday night given by Mrs. C. Price, the decorations being in white and lavender and about 25 guests present.

Miss Elanah Miller entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday her guests at home to their friends at 135 Sixth East street.

Miss Marian Jones left Tuesday for Clinton, N. J., where she will spend an indefinite time. En route she will visit friends in Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jackling left Wednesday noon for New York for a several weeks' trip.

Mrs. A. W. McCune leaves shortly for New York, where she will spend the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Ernest Green and Miss Bessie McCune.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tooker will be at some time during the month for south on California, where Mrs. Hickey will spend the winter months. Mr. Hickey returning to Salt Lake after a short stay.

Mrs. Philip Miller, who has lately come to Salt Lake from Helena, Mont., to reside, is now at home in 418 Sixth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dennis, who are on their way to their home in Washington, D. C., are spending a few days with friends in Cincinnati, O., after spending 10 days here.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Lockart and son, Sidney, are now at home to their friends at the Moxom hotel.

WEDDING BELLS

An interesting announcement of the week was that of the engagement of Miss Ida Smith, daughter of Pres. and Mrs. Joseph F. Smith, and Joseph S. Peery, the wedding to take place on Dec. 29.

The date of the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Groo and John Wise has been set for Dec. 15, the ceremony to be performed at St. Mark's cathedral at high noon.

Other weddings set for this month are those of Miss Florence Wardrop and Frank T. Kent; Miss Lula Gaumer and Frank Johnson; Miss Sadie Price and Alexander N. Russell; Miss Winnie Bates and E. Allen and others.

One of the week's weddings was that of Miss Ida McIntosh and Edwin De Weese the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's brother, William Fischel on Wednesday by Rev. W. T. Brown and a reception following for the intimate friends and relatives. The room were prettily decorated in white roses, chrysanthemums and ferns and Miss Jennie Williamson furnished appropriate music.

Miss Daisy Clark and Jacob Russell were among the week's bridal couples the marriage being solemnized in the temple on Thursday and a large reception following in the evening at the home of the bride. The rooms were prettily decorated in American Beauty roses, ferns and festoons of hearts, and an orchestra furnished delightful music.

Mrs. O. B. Olsen announces the engagement of her daughter Nettie, to G. Herman Schetter, the marriage to take place Dec. 23.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

On Wednesday evening the young ladies of the Second ward held a bazaar to raise funds for the Mutual Improvement association. A short program was rendered, as follows: Sallor's dance by Noreen Collins and Florence Browning; a song by Ione Wilcox. Dancing was then indulged in and a general good time was enjoyed by all present. Beatrice Boyle, Carl Lindquist and Verda Pingree furnished the music during the evening.

Mrs. Loretta Whalen was the guest of Miss Grace Sullivan at Salt Lake during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hollingsworth from Elko, Nev., are visiting his mother, Mrs. D. D. Rowlands, for a few days.

Mrs. Wilson Critzer of Detroit, Mich., arrived in Ogden Sunday morning to visit during the week.

The Historical society met with Mrs. Corey on Saturday, Nov. 20, with Mrs. Foster, the president, in the chair and a large number of members present. The business transacted consisted of satisfactory committee reports on moving pictures, industrial school entertainments and preliminary work with the representative of the Ladsie lecture recital given under auspices of this society last Monday night. The use of the Red Cross stamp on Christmas letters and packages was urged upon members and the worthy cause fully endorsed. Mrs. Condon, chairman of the day's program, assisted by Mrs. Bichsel and Miss Erb gave biographical sketches of Harriet Beecher Stowe and renewed interest in this writer. The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Condon when a lecture will be given by the Rev. J. E. Carver.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Barber have returned from a two week's trip east.

Mrs. Phil Clark of Bureka is in the city for a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jackson McChrystal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Reynolds, who were recently married in Michigan, will leave soon for Garfield, where they will make their home.

Miss Louise Newitt, who is visiting in San Francisco with her sisters, Mrs. Grant Smith and Mrs. J. Q. Barlow, will return to Salt Lake before the holidays.

Mrs. Olive Gaylord left this week for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson left for San Francisco Monday evening for a short visit.

Miss Clara Glover of Yorkshire, England, is here, the guest of her sister, Miss Lillie Glover.

Mrs. Schrack returned home Thursday evening from a visit of several weeks in the east.

T. A. Cosgriff has returned to his home in Wyoming after spending the week here with his sister, Mrs. W. E. Fife.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Siegel of Wells, Nev., are here for a few days.

Mrs. J. J. Greenwald and baby will leave the middle of this month for Portland, Or., where they will spend two months with Mrs. Greenwald's mother.

Miss Mae O'Neil, who is spending the winter here with her aunt, Mrs. I. S. Goodwin, will spend the holidays at her home in Denver, Colo.

Miss Margaret Dunn and Miss Norinne Thompson, who are in school at Miss Bennett's-on-the-Hudson, will be home for the holidays.

Miss Elsie Ward, who has spent the summer in England with her father, is here, guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Plummer for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter and children have returned from six weeks spent in Chicago, Ill., with Mrs. Porter's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter will leave next week for San Francisco and Stockton, Cal., where they will spend a part of the winter.

Miss Frances Evans, who is attending school at Los Angeles, Cal., will be home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lynn leave today for Long Beach, Cal., accompanied by their daughters, Mrs. A. L. Cowan and Miss Winnifred Lynn. The party will spend the winter at Los Angeles and the beaches.

Mrs. W. H. Dickson, who has been spending some time in St. Louis, will return shortly and be at home on Capitol hill with her daughter, Mrs. Russell G. Schuller.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hickey will leave

WHITE ALWAYS CHARMING ON THE LITTLE GIRL.

After all there is nothing so attractive as pure white on the small girl, and mothers who can afford it love to have at least the "Sunday coat" and hat of white. This smart coat is of heavy white serge and the low shawl collar, cuffs and buttons of black velvet add a smart, if startling, touch. The hat is one of the big roll brim white beavers which abound this winter, the trimming being a broad band and bow of white velvet.

numbering Mesdames S. Shurtliff, A. Watkins, G. Weaver, P. P. Heidel and Misses Lucile Heidel, Hazel Tochner, Miss Daisy Wannacott, Carmelite Pitt.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. J. A. Edson will arrive in the city today for a short visit with her son and daughter, Captain and Mrs. Kenneth P. Williams at Fort Douglas. Mrs. Edson and Mrs. Williams and her little daughter will leave here Monday night in their private car Geraldine for California and southern points where they will spend the winter. Captain Williams will join them for a month's vacation after the holidays.

Mrs. Samuel Adams and daughter, Dorothy, left the first of the week for their home in Denver, Colo., after spending the past three months here with Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Franken and Miss Webster, who are having a delightful trip abroad, are now in Rome, where they will probably remain until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Frisco, Utah, will be here early in the new year, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

Mrs. C. L. Tuttle and Mrs. R. R. Bittinger left this week for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend the winter.

D. Alton Hamilton, who has spent several months here, left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will remain until spring.

Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson left Monday evening for a 10-days' trip to San Francisco, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Byer have returned from their wedding trip and are at home in the Zimmerman flats.

Mr. and Mrs. Viele of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., are here to spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. L. C. Miller.

Mrs. Alvah Lee, who has spent the past six weeks in Wyoming and Nebraska, will be back shortly.

Mrs. L. E. Jones, who has spent the past three months in New York and other eastern cities, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Minette Baer is home from a stay of several weeks with friends in Canon City and Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Best and children sailed from New York Tuesday on the Prince Frederick Wilhelm, for Berlin.

Mrs. A. B. Sawyer has gone to San Francisco, Cal., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Brown.

Miss Lillian Lane, who is attending school at Lasalle at Auburndale, Mass., will be home to spend the holidays.

Miss Baker will remain here for the holidays with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferry.

Mrs. J. C. Lynch will be home next week from a short stay in New York.

F. B. Stephens has gone to Chicago, Ill., on a short business trip.

Mrs. Blyth of Evanston, Wyo., is here, the guest of her daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williams will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1, at the Miller apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Reed are spending a few weeks in an auto trip through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Godbe and children are now located in their new home at 943 east South Temple street.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Keyser are now

RESTAURANT FROCK WITH MUFF TO MATCH.

The very smartest notion in Paris now is the short frock of dressy character, the trailing skirt being confined only to elaborate evening costumes. This dainty restaurant frock is a type often seen in New York at the tea hour, when the smart folk drop in at the fashionable restaurants for a "bit and sup." This frock is of violet satin, with trimmings of pompadour ribbon in a rose and violet flowered pattern. The muff shows the marabout mounted effect; that is, stripes of marabout sewed on fabric—in this case on cream lace over violet satin.

Monday afternoon, four tables being played and the prize won by Mrs. Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Hanson of Shelly, Ida., were guests of honor on Tuesday at an evening party given by Miss Lavon Jensen assisted by Mrs. J. W. Rogers, the rooms being prettily decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums and each guest presented with a souvenir of the occasion. Miss Innes presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Harriet Robinson one of the season's brides was guest of honor at a linen shower on Tuesday given by Miss Leola Cusick.

A delightful affair of the week was the reception and dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fife on Wednesday night at Unity hall in honor of Miss Miller of San Francisco, and T. A. Cosgriff, the hall and dining room down stairs being decorated with palms and American Beauty roses, and about 200 guests being present. An orchestra stationed behind a bank of palms on the platform furnished delightful music, and assisting the hostess were her sister Miss Cosgriff and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux and Mrs. G. W. Snow were hostesses at a bridge tea on Wednesday at the home of the latter, the rooms being effectively decorated in small flags representing all nations, and the tables and other details carrying out the idea.

carnations and about a half dozen tables played. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. P. J. Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Loofburrow entertained their bridge club on Thursday night.

Mrs. W. E. Williamson entertained the Flower card club on Thursday, the prize going to Mrs. Dinwoody.

Miss Naomi Hoffman gives an Orpheum party this afternoon for Miss Ollie Wall.

Mrs. Alonzo B. Irvine entertains informally today at a card party, the event being the second in a series.

Mrs. H. W. Sherwood entertained her bridge club yesterday.

Miss Lillian McFarland will entertain at a card party this afternoon for Miss Nellie Swann of Ogden, the amusement to be 500.

The members of the Utopia Bridge club were entertained by Mrs. W. E. Beer on Wednesday, four tables being played and prizes won by Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton, Mrs. C. H. Hoffman, Mrs. E. O. Wedgewood and Mrs. George Brown.

Mrs. W. W. Rivers entertained her bridge club on Tuesday, prizes going to Mrs. M. W. Ingalls.

The freshman class of the University

Gray Hair Restored.

"WALNUTTA HAIR STAIN"
Restores Gray, Striped or Bleached Hair to Black. Does not wash or rub off. Contains no light brown or black dyes. It is a natural hair color. Sold by F. J. HILL DRUG COMPANY.

make a week's visit with her brother, Dr. E. P. Mills.

Mrs. Joseph Wright has returned from a few months' visit to California.

PROVO.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Dusenberry on Academy avenue, when Mr. Raymond Perry and Miss Ethel Jennings, late of Omaha, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Denhardt, in the presence of a small circle of intimate friends. Dr. Dusenberry gave the bride away and Miss Rena Dusenberry acted as bridesmaid and Jack Kimball best man. Carnations, ferns and smilax were effectively used in the decorations and a delicious repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Perry will be at home to their friends at 70 east Fourth South.

Stephen Chipman, Abel J. Evans and Mr. Storrs all of American Fork came over to Provo Tuesday and spent the day.

Mr. Frank Bennett, who has been absent three years in Europe is expected home Sunday.

The B. Y. University Social club gave another of their enjoyable socials and dancing parties at the gymnasium Wednesday evening. Attended by merry crowd of young people.

A welcome home social will be given Sunday evening in the Fifth ward so-

Friends Away?

If you want to be real good to them—want to show how much you really love them—the one best way to express it is to send them a box of

Sweet's Society Chocolates

FOR CHRISTMAS.

Nichols's

FOR

SALT

156 Main Street

Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary

Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses and models of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and nearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness.

Yellow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

