

REMEMBER THIS WHEN YOU VOTE

There Are Three Amendments to Be Voted Upon at Tuesday's Election.

QUESTIONS ARE IMPORTANT

Increased Revenue by Equitable Assessment is the Object of One of The Most Moment.

Every voter who tries to cast a ballot as he wants his vote recorded without being terrified by the voting machine, has at least three things to remember, and for those who are not entirely familiar with using the machine it will be well to adopt a system of checks, for first aid in case of panic at the moment of manipulating the levers.

Here are three things each voter must remember to do after he has entered the booth and his curtains have closed behind him:

First, he must remember a thing difficult to remember, NAME HIS FULFILLED HIS DUTY AS A CITI-ZEN WHO MERELY PULLS HIS PARTY LEVER STRAIGHT AND LETS IT GO AT THAT.

This is because law-makers seeking to keep the power in the hands of the people, have provided that they shall be the final arbiters of proposed changes to the constitution. Three such changes are proposed this year, and it is a sorry comment upon the intelligence with which the rights of the ballot are exercised, to see such questions almost universally overlooked and disregarded.

THREE AMENDMENTS.
In the upper left-hand corner of the machine, above all the levers, are three little levers that should be pushed to the "yes" or "no" side on three constitutional amendments. Two of the amendments, it is claimed, are technical matters, but concernment to the state and to the legislature, and to one of Utah's counties especially can follow the rejection of amendment 2, and financial disaster can follow the rejection of amendment 3 for under the present conditions the state's revenue will automatically drop nearly one-third, as soon as the total valuation reaches $200,000,000, and this revenue is already too small for the demands constantly pressing upon it.

If amendment one passes the mines and smelting industries will pay a larger proportion of the taxes than they do at present. This amendment grows out of a belief on the legislature's part, that the present assessment system of mines and smelters allows them to escape almost free of taxes, and it is sought by this means to place the assessing power in a state body which can see the mines and their wealth from a better perspective than that obtainable by a county assessor.

EASY TO VOTE STRAIGHT.

The second thing he must remember, is that party managers and politicians figure upon the machines bluffing enough voters to vote straight tickets to make it a matter of indifference whether any one candidate is good or bad. Women especially are counted on to get a stampeded feeling and leave the booth after pressing a straight party lever. Bolter in the phase of incompetent citizenship was what made the fight to get three "American" tickets in the field. Every voter who gives in to such a feeling of fear fastens upon himself the power of politicians over his choice. Party labels, the nation over are being cast aside in the face of a new power—the of a wide-eyed, intelligent interest in the personality of candidates and their personal qualifications to do the people's business. Selective choices from all tickets are becoming a rule, and witness the election in Oregon, of a Democratic U. S. senator with a Republican legislature pledged to elect him.

IT IS EASY TO SCRATCH.

The third thing to remember is that it is easy to scratch. All you have to do is turn back the little lever over the candidate you don't like, which was turned down by your pulling your party lever. Then turn down a little more directly over the candidate of your choice. A single, self-possessed glance over the board is sufficient to enable you to locate the proper levers. A single action of the hand will register that you have an obligation to make the machine properly reflect your mental attitude, and the third finger for the way to scratch, by pushing back the other thumb levers first, and then pulling down new ones. You can't pull down the wrong lever, for it won't come except for candidates for the same office.
You have cancelled the vote of the man you have cancelled, and you have voted for the man you have voted for.

Let the first finger then recall to you the amendments that you must vote for after pulling your party lever, the second finger stand for the fact that it is easy to scratch. Just as you have an obligation to make the machine

properly reflect your mental attitude,
cept for candidates for the same office.
You have cancelled the vote of the
voted for the man you have voted for.

CONGREGATIONAL CONVENTION

Example of Christ in Recognizing Downtrodden Should be Followed.

Rev. N. S. Elderkin of Ogden read a paper on "Brotherhood" before the Congregational association last evening. He condemned the attitude toward the foreigner in this country, and deprecated race prejudice. The speaker urged recognition of the downtrodden of the earth as brothers, following the example of the Savior. At the afternoon meeting, Rev. W. J. Larkin of Texas read a paper on the general missionary work of the Congregational church; Mrs.
P. A. Simpkins spoke on the International Council at Edinburgh; Mrs. John Cor-lewis of Ogden spoke on "Women's Work;" Mrs. H. Norton read a paper on "Current Events in the Mission Field;" and Mrs. David Hemphill led the devotional meeting. The place of Prof. Himes on the musical program was taken by one of his pupils, Miss Bertha Johnson. A luncheon was served by the ladies. The following program is being observed today:

9:00 to 9:15—Devotions.
9:15 to 10:00—Reports from the International council.
10:00 to 10:30—Paper, Rev. W. J. Larkin, "The Work and Qualifications of the Pastor."
10:30 to 11:15—Discussion.
11:15 to 12:00—Teachers' round-table; S.
H. Goodwin.
12:00 to 1:00—Paper, "The Tendency of Modern Biblical Criticism," Rev. J. Chalmer Smith.
1:00 to 2:30—Discussion.
2:30 to 3:00—Business.
3:00 to 3:15—Song service.
3:15 to 3:30—Address, "Faith and Doctrine," Rev. P. A. Simpkins.
Some 60 delegates from different parts of the state are present.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal Catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will all the swelling and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membranes. The fits of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, will be stopped when the causes that produce it are removed.
Cleanliness, comfort and renewed health by the use of Cream Balm.
Sold by all Druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely's Brothers, 50 Warren Street New York.

ALLAN MURRAY A SUICIDE.

Brother of Former Bell Telephone President Severs Arteries.

Information comes from Portland, Or., that Allan C. Murray, formerly an employee of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company in this city, committed suicide at the first named place, by severing an artery with a pocketknife. The body was found Oct. 21 in an entirely nude condition in the railroad yards, and in a nearby freight car were the man's blood-soaked clothing and the knife used to back his wrists.
"The deceased was a brother of D. S.
Murray, for years superintendent of the Rocky Mountain Bell company here, and he was a nephew of the late Eli H. Murray, once governor of Utah. Allan C. Murray for some time was superintendent of construction for the Bell company, but lost his position here. On Oct. 15 he was in the city as an employee of the telephone company at Portland.
In the dead man's pocket was found a letter from his brother, which read in part:

"I am not going to preach to you, but you have ignored the fact that you owe an obligation to somebody other than yourself, and even if you have no care for yourself, these other persons who have endeavored to benefit you and your sisters and brothers have the right to demand that you do something for yourself. If you do nothing for them, company as you did in the Rocky Mountain Bell company I will indeed be in a bad way."

WOMAN'S MIND DERANGED.

A woman giving the name of Mrs.
Agusta Miller, suffering from a deranged mind, who was taken to the county infirmary several days ago, was transferred to the county jail yesterday afternoon for safe keeping. Her condition at the infirmary became worse and it was decided to place her in the county jail until her condition could be examined into by physicians. It is probable that she will be sent to the state mental hospital at Provo. Efforts have been made to locate her relatives, supposed to be living in Vernal.

FIRE DEPARTMENT BUSY.

The fire department was kept busy for a short time last night. Two fires and two false alarms were responded to. One of the unnecessary alarms was at Walker's store and the other was at the corner of Fourth East and Fifth South streets. There was a brush fire at Eighth East and Eighth South street which was extinguished by the firemen of No. 3. Defective wires in the residence of C. P. Brooks, 280 A street, caused a loss of $500 to the house and $5 to the contents. The building is a two-story affair, valued at $1000, and owned by the Safety Investment company.

Shops

They are low priced suits, too—very low priced indeed, considering that they are made in the most modern, comfortable and sanitary boys' clothing factory in this country (Report of U. S. Government Inspector) and not in the overcrowded unsanitary basements and attics of the tenement districts of our large cities.

To introduce this make of clothing into the homes of the people of Salt Lake who should buy it and who would greatly profit by using it, instead of the cheaper grades, we have taken 100 suits—Russian Blouses, Junior Norfolk and Double Breasted Styles, which usually sell for $4.50 and $5.00, and have marked them all at $3.75.

And with the same object in view we have taken about 50 suits from the regular $6.00 lines and marked them at $5.00 each.

For Princess, Empire, and Directoire Gowns.

Your gown may be the work of the most artistic dressmaker and still be an utter failure, if fitted over the wrong kind of a corset.
If you want a smooth and beautiful effect, with all the fetching lines of the "new back," you must wear one of

THE Gossard CORSETS

They lace In Front

They are the original front-lacing corsets—the only front-lacing corsets that follow the natural lines of the back, side and bodice—developing and emphasizing the figure's greatest beauty points.
They are health corsets, too—because they hold the spine securely, "rest" the back, promote deep, easy breathing—give full play to the vital organs.
There's a Gossard model that's exactly suited to your figure. Let us show it to you. Our corset fitters have received special training. They will see to it that you secure the proper model.

When men lose their hair the awful truth eloquently glistens forth

When women lose their hair—the arts comes to their rescue—and the unsophisticated men knoweth it not

But a majority of them find, to their dismay, that their hair is fall-
