

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Murder at Silver Reef last night. President Taylor and party have gone to Logan.

Today's legislative minutes are undoubtedly left over.

The present spell of cold weather is being protracted to an unusual length.

A short time since there was almost a surfeit of theatricals; now there is almost a dearth.

A Denver policeman shot a young man in the leg, Saturday last. The young man wouldn't wait for the officer to come up with him, hence the shooting.

Two men were arrested on Tuesday last at Salina for burglarizing a car on the Denver and Rio Grande track. They were bound over and sent up the county jail.

Award of $50 has been offered for the recovery of the body of John Lohane, who has been missing since Christmas, having left Royal City on that evening for the Mayflower mine in Bristol District. —Pioneer Record.

We should judge the present weather must be very severe on the mountain ranges. Farmers were never, however, in a better situation to feed their animals, the hay and lucern crops of last year having had no parallel.

A little son of Brother Thomas H. Roberts was coming in the north-eastern part of the city yesterday, when a large boy jumped upon him. The little fellow's mouth came in violent contact with the runner of the sled, knocking two of his front teeth out.

Ben Tass, who is rusticated in Arizona, so rumor says, has trimmed his long hair and grown a beard and will no longer answer to the name of Ben Tass. It does not matter what cognomen the old man calls under, for Ben can steal cattle just as well under one name as another. It makes no difference in this. —Pioneer Record.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Breast Museum.—A Sandwich Island garment, made of "kapa," a kind of paper prepared from the bark of the paper mulberry tree, has been presented to the Museum by President W. Woodruff, for whom the article was made by the natives.

Gone to Cache.—This afternoon President John Taylor and Joseph F. Smith and a number of other prominent brethren left for Logan, for the purpose of attending the quarterly conference of Cache State. Among the company were Apostles Lorenzo Snow, Franklin D. Richards, F. M. Lyman, John Henry Smith, Moses Thatcher and President W. B. Preston, of Cache State, and Elder C. W. Penrose.

Carp fish.—By letter from Professor Spencer F. Baird, Washington, D. C., it appears that only four carps of carp can be sent at present for Utah. These are now on the way.

Mr. Harfoot, our fish commissioner will distribute these as follows: Mr. Jacob Hontz, one can; Mr. Daniel Williams, one can; instead of two ordered; Mr. J. Eastmond, one can; Mr. James A. Reed, one can, instead of two ordered.

Barbarous.—The Bear Lake Democrat says that a fine three-year-old colt, belonging to W. Hoge, of Paris, was let out of the stable for exercise on Thursday afternoon, January 19th. Whilst it was running loose, it was stabbed with a phlogistic prong of the fork entering the colt's belly twice, causing its death.

Such things are becoming of too common occurrence. Not long ago a horse's tongue was cut out, and the owner a poor man—lost his animal through it.

Going East.—To-morrow morning our respected townsman, the proprietor of the Eagle House, Mr. S. P. Teasdel, will leave for the East, on business bent. He will be absent about six weeks, and will purchase for his store one of the finest seasonal stocks of general merchandise in this city.

Being one of the shrewdest merchants in the West, he knows how to buy, which is one of the main secrets of success in mercantile pursuits, and his thriving and extensive trade evinces the fact that he also knows how to sell.

When Mr. Teasdel returns he will bring his two daughters home. They have been stopping in the East for several months, receiving instructions in drawing and music. We wish him a pleasant trip and safe return.

A Terrible Tragedy.—A thrilling and tragic occurrence took place on Table Mountain, near Golden, Colorado, on Monday, Jan. 29th, when a party of four, including a woman, were returning from an unsuccessful hunt, by descending the side of a plateau. We extract from the Denver Tribune's account of the affair:

So key was the steep declivity that he, holding his gun by the muzzle, used the tree-trunk to cut a little hole in the surface in which to set the heels of his boots. But a few feet had been proceeded in this manner when the gun broke through the key cost of quite a little patch of snow, and dropped down with considerable force, until the hammer was brought in contact with a hidden rock, which discharged the death-dealing weapon. The powder and shot tore into the palm of the right hand, and one of the fingers, then, entered the right wrist, tearing a fearful hole two or three inches in diameter, and after crawling through the body lodged just under the skin back of the left shoulder blade. The vest and shirt were almost torn into bits. The victim threw up his hands without a groan or cry, wheeled partially around and then went plunging down the mountain side. For 50 feet the descent was fearful, the body of the body being accelerated by the snow and ice which partially covered the rocks and the distance of 50 feet from the summit to the rocky lake below was slightly retarded by the icy and out of the rocks like a ball, falling and striking a bloody trail, and finally sinking to look upon, and from which spectators turned with a sickness of heart.

A SILVER REEF TRAGEDY.

HERBERT STEEL KILLS WILLIAM RAFFERTY. TALK OF LYING THE MURDERER.

The following special to the News was received to-day:

SILVER REEF, Utah, Feb. 2d. A cowardly murder was committed here about half-past eleven last night. Herbert Steele, a printer recently connected with the Miner, having been refused a drink at the Capital Saloon, became quarrelsome, and finally drew his revolver on Johnny Quillan, the bar tender. William Rafferty, who was nearby, told Steele to put up his gun, and remarked that he wouldn't shoot anybody. Steele replied, "The hell I wouldn't," and pointing the pistol at Rafferty, fired. The ball entered in front of the right shoulder and ranged towards the heart, causing death in a few minutes. Quillan would have shot Steele on the spot, but was prevented by one of the bystanders grasping his pistol. Steele was immediately seized and lodged in jail, strongly guarded for the double purpose of preventing his escape and protecting him from the fury of the excited citizens.

Steele is regarded as a desperate character, having been a leading actor, it is said, in other shooting escapades, one of which occurred not long ago at Cherry Creek, Nevada, and resulting in the death of a prominent citizen of that place.

Rafferty has been a saloon keeper here for years, was a peaceful, inoffensive man and had the respect of all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three little children to mourn his death.

The feeling against Steele is very bitter and, judging from the sentiments expressed on all sides, it would not be a matter of much wonder if to-morrow's dawn found him dangling at the end of a rope.

The Reception.—The members and officers of both Houses of the Legislative Assembly, with but two or three exceptions, went in a body to the residence of Governor Murray, last evening, in carriages furnished by Mulloy & Paul. They were cordially received and severally presented by Secretary Thomas to the Governor, Mrs. Murray, General McCook and his staff, other officers of his command, civil officials, etc. The pleasant and tastefully furnished parlors were occupied by the invited guests until half-past 10 o'clock, except during the interval spent in the dining room, where an elegant lunch was in readiness and of which all present partook. Mrs. Murray showed herself an agreeable and skillful hostess, distributing her attentions with admirable tact. The Governor was in good spirits, and made everybody perfectly at home. Gen. McCook proved himself a gifted conversationalist, and his experience and travels furnished many an interesting topic. The Fort Douglas orchestra band were in attendance and performed with excellent effect the following:

March, "Prussian Prize," Flaut; Selection, "Patience," Saxophone; Waltz, "My Dream," Walstein; Duet, "Martha," Flauto; Polka, "Sweetheart," Arpino; Selection, "Pirates of Penzance," Saxophone; Waltz, "Graceland," Saxophone; Quickstep, "59,000 Devils," Nickells.

Chief Musician and Leader. The Apollo Glee Club serenaded the Governor and party, and on being invited inside, entertained the company with vocal music. At the hour named the legislators withdrew, having spent a very agreeable evening. The Sixth Infantry officers remained till a later hour. The reception was a very pleasant and successful affair.

The Education Bill.—There is considerable agitation in the public mind over the bill for the consolidation of public schools. It is as yet in its crude form, and has to pass through processes that may completely metamorphose it. In fact we understand that one of the features deemed most objectionable has already been altered. While we note with great pleasure the general interest that is taken in the subject involved, and without passing an opinion upon the measure in its present undigested form, we would advise that conclusions be not hastily arrived at, in case portions of the bill that will not ultimately appear in the measure should be attacked. When the bill is matured so that its true nature can be definitely determined, will be a good time to make an onslaught upon its objectionable points, if any remain. The bill was introduced in the Council by Councilor Cairne, but that gentleman is not its author. He merely presented what had been prepared by others.

Would it Not?—Would it not be a good thing for our Legislature to consider the coding moth, how destructive it is? Perhaps a small appropriation to be devoted to the introduction of worm-devouring birds would be in order. Among the best kinds, as suggested in a former article, in the News are: orchard orioles, and summer warblers, which are abundant in the Western States. It has been demonstrated that each of these birds devour seventy-five worms a day. In other parts of the country the lively grass-hopper has been made the subject of legislation. Surely the destructive orchard pests are of sufficient importance here to be entitled to the same dignity; especially as it has been suggested that damaged fruit has been one of the causes which have led to the prevalence of diphtheria. Because the worms are not destroyed, some of the people are demolishing their orchards. An adequate remedy for the coding moth would save at least a million dollars a year to the Territory.

Fatal Accident.—A fatal accident occurred at Logan Canyon, on Monday last, to a person by the name of James Smith, residing in the Fifth Ward, Logan. The person named was on his way to take a contract for work on the new canal which is being built down the canyon. He was walking up the canal, when a small rock descended from the mountain side, struck him on the head, causing his death about three-quarters of an hour after the accident. Deceased was taken to his home, and the body was interred yesterday. He was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his untimely end. —Cor. Ogden Herald.

Returned.—Mr. George Romney returned to-day from his California trip, feeling well, and greatly pleased with his visit to the coast. He accomplished the main object of his going west—the purchase of timber for the mammoth flume, to run through that portion of the city lying between the terminal point of the Salt Lake and Jordan Canal and the City Creek stone culvert. The timber is expected to begin to arrive shortly and the construction of the flume will be commenced as soon as practicable.

Small Business.—In yesterday's issue, a small paragraph about the introduction of a bill into the Legislative Assembly by Mr. Peery, to provide for a jury fee in civil cases, a couple of typographical errors appeared, the proof, by an oversight, not having reached the reader. Although any newspaper is liable to make similar mistakes, the Herald is small enough to notice this one. Did we descend to such trifling criticism we might retaliate every day. We observed, for instance, some time since, that it called the recent Legislative Session the "Semi-Annual Session," but we didn't say anything about it, for we had sense enough to know that the Herald knew better than it expressed.

Our hypercritical contemporaries, speaking of the Governor's reception this morning said, "All felt they had been most agreeable entertained," this being only one of several errors in the same issue.
