MAY DAY IS NOT TRESPASSING.

Acting Manager of Uncle Sam Con. Says a Survey Made Has Satisfied Him of This.

BUT MINE WILL BE BENEFITED

Vein Was Prospected for—How It Was Missed and What Its Discovery Has Demonstrated.

It was apparent from the actions of May Day when it was called upon by the Mining Exchange today that the officials of the Uncle Sam Consolidated, who were granted permission to make a survey of the May Day underground workings yesterday, came away satisfied that their territory was not being trespassed. This was later confirmed by Acting Manager James Chipman. "We were led," Mr. Chipman stated, "to believe that the May Day company was working on a vein that was partly within the sidelines of the Uncle Sam Consolidated. Naturally, this interested us and desiring to ascertain definitely if such was the case and get our bearings on the course of the vein, application was made to Mr. Darmer, the manager of the May Day company, for permission to take our survey down into the mine. Mr. Darmer treated us courteously and promptly granted the request. Accordingly, the survey was made yesterday, but as yet the surveyor's notes have not been made up, so I am not prepared to say just how close the May Day men are to our lines. I am satisfied, however, that they are not at work in our territory.

"The examination," continued Mr. Chipman, "has demonstrated clearly to my mind the theory we had in the beginning; that the May Day vein runs on the east side of what we call the dyke, and if it keeps its present course and size it will undoubtedly prove a valuable thing for the Uncle Sam.

"Mr. David Evans, while manager of the Uncle Sam, ran a cross-cut towards the May Day line with a view of catching this vein, but without success. "We also ran another cross-cut further south to the May Day line and did cut a vein of low grade ore, upon which some operations were done, but no sinking. The ore body in the May Day is located about 150 feet below these drifts—on the Crandall level, which were run in the Uncle Sam. That, no doubt, will account for our failure to encounter the vein.

Mr. Chipman was accompanied on his trip to the mine by George Dyer, manager of the Consolidated Mercantile mine. They returned from camp last evening.

The Big Thing in the Way of Strikes at Goldfield.

The big thing in the way of strikes during the past week was that made on the Tonopah Club which lies northeast of the Sandstorm and west of the Adams-Goldfield claims, says the Goldfield News. And from present indications it will prove second to but few.

If any, of the phenomenal strikes made in this district. The ledge has now been opened by a series of trenches for a length of 150 feet and shows 26 feet in width with only one wall in sight. The rock is the hugriest looking stuff imaginable and the wonder is that anyone ever panned or assayed it for value. It only again proves the truth saying that "gold is where you find it," for this hungry-looking stuff carries values of hundreds of dollars per ton in gold. In the trench where first opened the values doubled in sinking three feet. Average samples across the 26 feet returned assay values of $51.20, $78, $81 and $40 at three feet in depth. As before stated, much of it goes into the hundreds and the owners are now sucking out that goes from $100 to $500 per ton. In the main trench the values are all in gold, but 50 feet away an assay showed 60 ounces in silver, with the gold values maintained. Henry Weber, E. J. Geo. Winfield, J. R. Duffield and J. P. Hennessy are the owners of the Tonopah club and also the Bonanza, which has a fine showing. To facilitate operations they will organize the Tonopah Mining Company, but the organization has not been completed.

NEW HAVEN OFFICERS.

Chosen Yesterday After Annual Stockholders' Meeting.

The stockholders of the Bingham-New Haven Mining Company held their annual meeting yesterday. The old board of directors was reelected and organized by the selection of L. E. Stoddard, president; T. W. Farnum, vice president; F. P. Brewster, secretary and treasurer, who, with A. J. Malloy and William M. Bradley, constitute the board of directors. The annual report of Manager Malloy contained the information the production of ore during the past year has exceeded the east of development. The outlook for this property is exceedingly bright and that it will rank among Bingham's largest producers is quite generally conceded. The ledge has been followed for more than 300 feet.

STEED CANYON MINING.

Surveyors at Work on the Farmington Group of Claims.

A party of surveyors have been working Steed canyon the past week, making a plat of the Farmington group of mining claims, and locating sites for permanent buildings, such as boarding house, power house, etc., says the Davis County Argus. This shows that the Kentucky people mean business and that they are making every effort to get started. The work is being done as soon as possible. Tony Hartman of Salt Lake, one of the stockholders, spent two days this week, looking over the property and seemed greatly pleased with the prospects. Mr. Hartman will have something to do with the active management of the property as soon as the work is under way.

MONTANA WINS OUT.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 13.—A telegram received by Dr. A. W. Winchell, of the state school of mines, states that Montana has been awarded the grand prize for her mineral exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. The telegram is signed C. B. Murdoch, one of the officials of the fair. Dr. Winchell is in charge of the exhibit. The award has not yet been made public.

LYNCH STRIKES IT AGAIN.

Secures a Foothold in New District, 60 Miles from Goldfield.

T. J. Lynch and associates, who cleaned up a fortune in Tonopah soon after the discovery of the Mizpah ledge by Jim Butler, have been making an investigation of the mineral possibilities of the Cow Itch mountains, located 60 miles east of Goldfield, where they have secured a foothold and indications point to the opening up of another bonanza.

The formation of the district appears to be identical with that of Goldfield. Assays of croupings showed values running from $10 to $200 to the ton. The property will undergo development at once.

HERMAN HAAS.

Corn Exchange Bank Defaulter Back in Chicago.

TAYLOR & BRUNTON QUIT MONTANA.

Manager F. M. Taylor Announces The Sale of Butte Samplers to the Washoe Company.

PLANT HAS BEEN TURNED OVER

Mr. Woodbridge May Return to This City—Employees to be Taken Care Of—The Nevada Field

The Taylor & Brunton Sampling company has quit the Montana field and will probably never enter it again. F. M. Taylor, the senior member of the big concern, was in the city yesterday afternoon for a few hours, and released the information that he had closed a deal in Butte, from which camp he had arrived, whereby the plant built at that place not quite a year ago, had been sold and possession turned over to the Washoe Smelting company, an auxiliary of the Amalgamated.

Manager Woodbridge, who, prior to going to Montana, was cashier of the local office of the Sampling company, while a decision had not been reached, will probably remain in the service of Taylor & Brunton, and may resume his old post in this city.

As a result of the sale of the Butte plant there will be quite a shifting about, but it is the intention of the Taylor & Brunton management to take care of all its present staff, among its system of plants in this state and Colorado.

As to the building of a mill in Nevada, Mr. Taylor states that the definite decision had been reached. In fact, nothing had been done, since his previous visit to this city, and then the matter had been discussed only in an informal manner.

Frank Engesser, the California mining engineer who enjoys an extensive acquaintance in this city, is in the Goldfield, Nevada, district.

Manager Walter C. Orem reports good progress being made with the driving of the long tunnel at the Utah Apex mines at Bingham.

The directors of the Utah mine of Fish Springs will meet this afternoon. There will be no dividend posted, but the matter of doing some deeper development will be discussed.

Vice President T. W. Farnum of the Bingham-New Haven Mining company will leave for the east during the day, after a very pleasant visit to the great Bingham copper camp.

Glover and Effinger have taken a lease on the Combination Fraction and will sink 150 feet before resuming work. Mr. Glover and Effinger have also taken a lease on the Combination Fraction—Goldfield News.

Samuel Newhouse, accompanied by members of his staff, returned from Newhouse, in Beaver county on a special train arriving in the city about 9 o'clock last night. Mr. Newhouse was well pleased with the progress being made with the construction of the new concentrator.

Henry Southworth is doing the annual assessment work on the Alma claim of the Bettman-Hystrom Group on Mud Creek. He was down Wednesday exhibiting some very good looking gold quartz and some good looking concentrates showing a considerable quantity of gold.—Davis County Argus.

A stream of rich ore continues to go out daily from the Bove-Kernick lease on the Jumbo, about 1,200 sacks being in today's shipment, the values running about the same. Zinc and associates are also making frequent shipments. On the Fuller-McDonald lease a steam hoist is being installed.—Goldfield News.

A shipment goes out today from the Oddie and Gardner lease on the Kendall and minor pits its value at $100,000. As the big values are being maintained with depth it is probable that the rumor is true, big as it seems. Miller and associates have made a big strike on the Sandstorm close to the Kendall and from present indications it promises to equal the Kendall.—Goldfield News.

Charles H. McClure, formerly clerk of the federal district court at Ogden in the territorial times, is in the city again. He expects to leave for Goldfield, Nevada, within the next few days.

Chief Clerk A. H. Rogers, of the local office of the Consolidated Mercantile company, departed for Mercur this morning to fill the position of storekeeper for the company during the absence of Thomas M. Osmann, who leaves for St. Louis tomorrow, accompanied by his niece, Miss Mabel Zerbe.

MARKET WAS VERY WAYWARD.

Opened Active and Irregular With Selling Orders Evenly Distributed.

SPECIALTIES WERE IN DEMAND.

Buying and Selling Caused Prices to Vary—Railway List Under Pressure.

New York, Oct. 13.—The opening was active and irregular in the stock market today within a narrow fractional range. Selling orders were more evenly distributed after the first few minutes of trading and prices all around became lower. A repetition of yesterday's large demand for various specialties soon caused a general rally, but the standard stocks met pressure again at the top. The local traction were bought in round amounts and advanced 1 1/2 to 1 3/4. Kansas & Texas preferred, Great Northern preferred, People's Gas, Pacific Mail, slating preferred and rubber goods rose 1 to 1 1/4. Lackawanna dropped 3/4.

The current prices varied under the influence of selling of railroad stocks and buying of specialties. St. Paul was carried half under last night. Reading 3/4 and Rock Island preferred lost 1/4. On the other hand, there were gains of between 1 and 2 for Sugar, Locomotive, Paper, Railroad Steel, Springs, the car stocks, Corn Products, Paper preferred, United States Rubber, Consolidated Gas and Knickerbocker Ice. Brooklyn Rapid Transit advanced more than 2 points, and the whole market became firmer. United States Steel preferred rising 1/2 over last night.

Islands were firm at noon.

The general rally halted. The bull speculating in the specialties ceasing for a time owing to the persistent pressure against the railway list. Union Pacific and Knickerbocker Ice, Brooklyn Rapid Transit and there was some yielding also to the coalers. Later on the market stiffened when it was noted that the specialists which had not figured in the morning rise, particularly the Smelting stocks, Great Northern preferred jumped 1 point.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit rose 3/4, and the railroad stocks made some slight improvement, but the indicators showed the feature of the market. Tennessee Coal, Colorado Fuel, Lead preferred, Manhattan and American Southern stocks rose 1 to 2. The market was easier at 2 o'clock.
