

COLORADO TEAM LEAVES TODAY

Debaters from Boulder Take the Train for Salt Lake This Afternoon.

HOLMAN'S FRIENDS GUESSING.

Regret That He Was Not Given a Place on the University of Utah Team.

The University of Utah meets its keener rival, the University of Colorado, in debate at the Salt Lake theater Tuesday, Jan. 11.

The only thing regretted by some U. of U. supporters is that Frank E. Holman was not given a place on the team by the judges, most of whom were members of the faculty. It is an open question at the University of Utah as to why Holman is not on the team. Those who are interested in debating both among the students and faculty say that he is undoubtedly the best qualified and most experienced man in the school.

Arthur E. Nafe, who champions the Colorado team, has had a varied experience in debates and oratorical contests to familiarize him with the many fine points of the art of debating and this year meets Utah for the third time.

Richard W. Young, Jr., the Utah champion, has had one experience in intercollegiate debating, but James Carlson, the third man on the team, and C. H. Anderson, the other man, will be in their first contest of this nature next Tuesday.

The question is, "Resolved, That the present distribution of power between the state and federal governments is not adapted to modern conditions and calls for readjustment in the direction of further centralization."

COLORADO TEAM RECORD.
The record of the Colorado men shows that they are more experienced than the locals. Arthur Nafe was on the team that met defeat in Utah two years ago, and again met the Utah team at Boulder last year. Fred Anderson won the senior-junior debate this year as well as several other debating and oratorical contests. Philip Van Cise won the Giffin prize debate in 1907, and was a member of the sophomore team this year.

Richard W. Young, Jr., the champion of the local team, has been on but one intercollegiate debate, the one held here last year with the University of Oregon. James Carlson and C. H. Anderson were the members of the winning team of the class series last year. The men realize their handicap and are anxiously preparing as they can to make the best of their lack of experience they will not have missed some of the points that they might use.

According to the latest word received by Manager Carlson the Colorado team will leave Boulder this afternoon.

A large mass meeting of the students of the University of Utah has been called for Tuesday noon when it is expected that the debaters of both schools talk to the students.

Two of the three judges now selected are Judge George C. Armstrong and Stephen H. Love. The teams have not decided on the third man yet.

Two years ago the contest was one of the liveliest ever held in the state and resulted in a victory for the home team. The team which went to Boulder last year was not accustomed to the altitude and consequently could not talk fast enough to convince the judges.

THE WHOLE YEAR ROUND.

Women Everywhere

Use Pe-ru-na.

MRS. JOHN UNDERWOOD

Suffered With Stomach.
Mrs. John Underwood, 520 W. Walnut St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:
"Having had catarrh and stomach trouble and having suffered very much, I, after being doctored a long while, as a last resort took Peruna. The result was wonderful. I would highly recommend it as a good remedy. I still use Peruna and would not be without it. I always have it in the house."

Catarrh and Stomach Trouble.

Mrs. T. Frech, R. R. No. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes:
"I am happy to tell you that I am cured of catarrh. I have followed your good and kind advice faithfully. I bless the day when I wrote you of my condition, and I will always praise Peruna. I think it is one of the grandest medicines on earth."

"Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I gave up all hope of being cured. I only weighed 130 pounds, and was so weak I could hardly get around the room."

"I was induced to try Peruna, and to my great surprise I am now entirely well. My weight is now 188 pounds, my health never was better in my life."

"I shall always praise Dr. Hartman and his remedies."

Thousands of families have learned the use of Peruna and its value in the treatment of catarrhal ailments.

Tired, Worn-Out Mothers.

Mrs. Lydia H. Jesselyn, 501 Westminister St., Providence, R. I., is Treasurer of the Editors League of Rhode Island, chartered in Providence. She writes:

"My experience with Peruna has been most gratifying. Last winter I contracted a severe cold, and for several days I coughed until my voice failed me. When other remedies did me no good, I decided to try Peruna, and within four days the cold was broken up, and the cough abated."

"Within another week an increase in my usual strength and vitality told me that Peruna was doing all that it promised, and more. I also consider it very superior for tired, worn-out mothers, and have advised several to try it, and have seen most gratifying results from its use."

Bowel Trouble.

Mrs. Maggie Durbin, 132 North St., Little Rock, Ark., writes:
"I was troubled for five years with a chronic disease. I tried everything I heard of, but nothing did me any good. Some doctors said my trouble was catarrh of the bowels, and some said consumption of the bowels."

"One doctor said he could cure me. I took his medicine two months. But it did me no good."

"A friend of mine advised me to try Peruna and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well."

"I can recommend Peruna to any one, and if any one wants to know what Peruna did for me if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Peruna is a household remedy of great merit, and is useful in many climatic ailments, such as coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis and catarrhal diseases generally.

MRS. LENA R. MOUDY

Biliousness, Indigestion.

Mrs. Lena R. Moudy, 506 Caywood St., Portland, Oregon, Sec'y Royal Tribe of Joseph, writes:

"For the past six years biliousness and pains in my back and limbs made life miserable to me. My skin was sallow and dry, and indigestion was added to my troubles. I was wakeful at night and would get a weak, faint feeling during the day so that I was not fitted to attend to my regular duties. This caused me serious annoyance and trouble, and I naturally tried many remedies, hoping to get relief."

"Peruna came as a friend in need. It toned up the system, relieved the blood of the poisons and induced a healthy action of the stomach, a fine appetite and restful sleep."

"Within three months I was a changed person, and for nearly a year now I have enjoyed splendid health."

A Grateful Patient.

Mrs. Eliza J. Cazez, R. F. D. 8, Bedford, Ind., writes: "I have been cured by using Peruna and Manalin. I thank you for your advice."

MISS BESSIE B. FARRELL

Restorer of Lost Strength.

Miss Bessie Farrell, 1011 Third Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., is President of the Young People's Christian Temperance Association. She writes:

"Peruna is certainly a valuable nerve and blood remedy, calculated to build up the broken-down health of worn-out women. I have found by personal experience that it acts as a wonderful restorer of lost strength, assisting the stomach to assimilate and digest the food, and building up worn-out tissues. In my work I have had occasion to recommend it frequently, especially to sick women."

"I know of nothing which is better to build up the strength of a young mother, in fact all the ailments peculiar to women, so I am pleased to give it my hearty endorsement."

Pe-ru-na a Woman's Friend.

Mrs. Ella Embree, Clark, Mo., writes: "I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I can truthfully say that Peruna is a woman's friend. I have no more terrible pains and am stronger than I have been. Your medicine has worked like a charm."

Bilious Headache.

Mrs. Emily Kellogg, 5640 S. Lawrence St., South Tacoma, Wash., member of Ladies of the Maccabees, writes:

"Three months ago I had an attack of biliousness which threatened to undermine my health and strength. Luckily for me, I tried Peruna at the suggestion of my friends before it was too late."

"I found in a few days time that I did not have the usual sick headache, neither did food nauseate me any longer. In two weeks' time Peruna had completely rid my system of the poison and bile, and I was in a much better condition. My skin assumed its normal color, I had a splendid appetite, and I was in every way improved in health. I used Peruna for a month longer, and it wrought a wondrous change in my entire system. I consider it a most wonderful medicine."

Nervous Dyspepsia.

Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant St., Watonsville, Cal., writes:

"I was troubled with cramps in the stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months. I improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again. I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured."

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peruna, so I thought I would give it a trial. I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken nineteen bottles and am entirely cured. Have gained in strength and flesh and feel like a different person."

"I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."

MRS. JOSEPH VITTUR

Catarrh of Head.

Mrs. Joseph Vittur, 5709 Erie St., Austin Sta., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"Your medicine, Peruna, was of great benefit to me. I suffered with catarrh of the nose and head for many years. Three bottles of Peruna cured me, after I had considered it impossible to ever be cured again."

"I now always keep Peruna in the house, and recommend it to every one suffering from catarrh. As soon as one of my children commences to cough I give them Peruna, and their cough is soon gone."

"This medicine is surely a great boon to suffering humanity."

Pe-ru-na the Family Doctor.

Mrs. M. E. Seymour, R. F. D. 2, Bowman, Ga., writes:

"I am ready to speak a few words in favor of Peruna and Manalin. I have tried them for nearly every ill of life for myself and family, and find them to be all the doctor claims them to be. Peruna cured me of internal trouble when my doctor could not."

"My advice to all suffering women is, consult Dr. Hartman. What he has done for me he will do for you."

Pe-ru-na in Tablet Form.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

THOSE GOING TO CALIFORNIA

Three Trainloads of Elks and Friends Leave for the Coast Tonight.

BERTH RESERVATION LIST

Roster Includes Large Number of Well Known Salt Lake and Utah People—Itinerary of Excursion.

If there are hard times prevalent at the present time they haven't touched the purses of Utahns and persons from neighboring states because it is going to take three trains of Elks and friends to carry the Elks and their friends to Los Angeles this year. The excursion arranged by the local lodge of B. P. O. E. is the largest yet.

The first section will start on its merry journey at 11 o'clock, following the limited and an hour ahead of the express. It will consist of eight Pullman sleepers, dining car, chair car and baggage coach and in make-up will be identical with the other two sections. A committee of six Elks from the local lodge has been appointed to look after the party and will have charge of all three trains and each will assume whole charge of a train when the trip begins.

Through the San Bernardino the trip will be made without stop except to change engines. At that point tally-ho's will be waiting at the station to take the travelers for a two-hour ride around the city while the trains are undergoing a thorough overhauling. Coming back the herd has two routes offered; one back via Los Angeles and the other by way of San Francisco. A large majority will take the latter route.

Barrels of fun have been arranged while the herd is at Los Angeles. Slide trips galore will be taken, all under reduced rates. The hotels and everything in the City of the Angels were visited by a delegation from the local lodge some weeks ago and all have prepared to show the Utahns and their friends the best in the city at the lowest possible prices.

THOSE WHO ARE GOING.
Those who will compose the jolly party are:

R. N. Davidson and wife, J. L. Briggs and wife, A. B. King, Miss May Midgley, E. C. McGill, A. J. Egbert and wife, A. C. Meagher, Mrs. C. G. Sharpe, W. C. Roper, William Atkins, J. M. McFarlane, G. Paderewski's Third Recital Breaks His Former Records.

Paderewski faced his third audience in Salt Lake at the tabernacle last night. Fourteen years ago he played from the same platform at much the same prices of admission, and drew $3,500; four years ago he came to the theater and his receipts fell to $1,300; last night, under the impetus of some big advertising and owing to the fact that the musical population of the town has increased, he drew something like $3,600, the prices ranging from $3 to $1, with special rates to students. Probably 3,000 people, the choir included, sat spellbound through the rendition of his program last night, and again recorded the unanimous vote that there is only one Paderewski.

Whether one is a musician or not, whether he knows anything about the intricacies of the ivory keyboard—even though he might have belonged among those who fidgeted over the length and severity of some of the numbers on the program—still, it is impossible not to feel a very high respect for a bunch of human energy which has accomplished what Paderewski has. Some Berlin students claim that Busoni and Godowski excel him in gentleness and feeling; some other students name this or that master as surpassing in certain other lines, but they all agree that Paderewski is the world's figure among pianists, the artist who sets the world talking, who makes the world pour its dollars at his feet, and who can command his own terms among the world's managers. The most critical of students, too, unite in saying that no other piano virtuoso on the world's stage today can exercise the witchery over an audience that the Polish artist does, and all agree that in force, vigor, strength, the sweep that carries all before it, and in the whirlwind lightning like achievements of his fingers, he stands alone.

Last night's program was one well calculated to show off his special attainments. It opened with his own Opus 23, "Variations and Fugue," which he rendered for the first time here. Its difficulties were tremendous, but the thunderous effects he brought out of the instrument, in spite of the fact that the number required nearly 25 minutes in rendition, made a deep impression on the listeners. In contrast with it, he followed with Beethoven's Sonata Opus 27, No. 1, 15 flat, a complex title under which pianists will recognize a great composition, and in which the artist was again in his most perfect form. Three beautiful selections by Schubert, with the Liszt arrangement, followed, "Auf dem Wasser zu Singen," "Soiree de Vienne" and "Erlking," all were distinguished by mingled grace and tenderness of treatment, and the familiar "Erlking," with its prodigious left hand movement, so stirred the audience that they called the performer back again and again, and finally made him give an encore number, for which he rendered the "Spinning Song" from "The Flying Dutchman." Next came three of Chopin's rare compositions, opening with the always divine Nocturne F sharp major, Opus 15, followed by Etude No. 10 and E, Opus 10, and the Scherzo E flat minor. The latter also had to be repeated. The two closing numbers were the "Chant d'Amour" by Stojowski, and "Rhapsodie Hongroise" No. 15, by Liszt, the latter played with the astonishing vigor and tremendous effects which have made Paderewski famous. Although the program had lasted two hours, the audience remained seated and called him back again, but it was all in vain, and he had to be repeated. ATTORNEY BORED JUROR.

Matters Evened Up by Jury Finding Against Him.

Macon, Mo., Feb. 8.—During the cross-examination of a witness in a state case here yesterday Juror W. W. Alderman arose and asked a question which created a sensation.

"What I want to know, your honor," said the juror, "is, if we have to sit here and listen to the attorney examine the witness about something that has nothing in the world to do with this case. My time is worth something to me and if the law can force me to sit here and be bored this way, I want to know it."

Judge Holman, who was trying the case, then asked that he didn't make the law, and that as long as he had to suffer that way every day the court was in session, the juror ought to live through one day of it.

The jury found against the attorney who Alderman said "bored the life out of him."

Paderewski's surroundings last night ought to have prompted him to do his best, and no doubt they did. He was seated under the shadow of the great organ, with the 550 singers of the tabernacle choir clustered closely around him, all listening breathlessly to every note he produced. On his entrance the great body of singers, presenting a handsome spectacle, arose and greeted him, remaining standing until he took his seat, a mark of respect which evidently pleased him greatly. Prof. Stephens occupied a chair in front of his right, Prof. McClellan and his assistant, Prof. Kimball, also hovered hungrily near by. Paderewski ordered the six big are lights over the platform turned out, as the glare affected his eyes and only the light came from the star above the organ. While the platform was rather dim, therefore, the absence of the usual glare, was on the whole welcome.

The only number aside from Paderewski's, was the grand old familiar "Lift Up Your Heads" rendered by the tabernacle choir, with Prof. Stephens conducting and Prof. McClellan at the organ. It was rendered in a noble
