GOT GOLD WATCH. Tonnis Association Presents Champion Hunt With Token of Esteem.

Hunt With Token of Esteem.

The first tennis tournament yet held in the Intermountain country closes today, except for a few consolation games, at the Fort Douglas courts, the final game being the men's doubles in which the Sallsbury brothers meet the Roberts brothers. The tournament has given the game a great boost in Sait Lake, and the local clubs are expected to profit greatly from it. The greatest single honor has already been captured by Reuben Hunt of California, who left for his home in Alameda yesterday carrying with him a gold watch, a special token of esteem from the Sait Lake Tennia association. In addition to this he secures one of three chances required to carry off the handsome Newhouse trophy permanestly, and has the title of intermountain champion in addition to his already acquired Pacific coast title. He is rated as eighteenth man in the national lists, and played here in his best form, showing himself to be out of a class with any other contestant. The doubles today are expected to draw a large gallery, as both teams are topnotch players. The game begins at a o clock sharp.
