At Eureka yesterday afternoon Park City broke into the percentage column of the state league by trimming Eureka to a inish, running up a total of 15 points, and allowing only three for the bome team. Zimmerman, the new Park City pitcher, was in good form, and placed his balls where they were needed to do the most good, while Hanson was bad, and grew steadily worse through the progress of the game. In the sixth the rapid fire barring contest began, which sent the Park City up to 15, and put Eureka to sleep perma-nently for the game.
