Ogden, April 12.—The Elks' lodge No. 719 of Ogden City has decided that it wants a home of its own, and for that reason is advertising for a suitable building site on which to erect a modern lodge and club rooms. For some time past the lodge has had this matter under consideration and at the last meeting held it was decided by the members to purchase a suitable building site somewhere close in on which an elegant substantial building will be erected. Any person having a piece of property to sell that is at least 50 feet in width and 100 feet in depth, unless it be a corner lot in which case the depth may be less providing the width is greater, should communicate with the trustees, T. W.

Manager, E. A. Larkin.

Payments for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News should be made to the circulator. Delivery made by carrier on the same terms as in Salt Lake.

Jones, T. A. Whalen and J. A. Howell who are to consider all propositions and submit them to the lodge.

Ever since the B. P. O. E. lodge was organized in Ogden it has had its club rooms in the old Masonic building on Washington avenue, which is centrally located and convenient, but the membership has increased until now the present quarters are not large enough hence the movement to get a building and ground of its own. Already several good sites have been submitted, but the lodge will receive propositions until May 15, when all propositions submitted will be taken before the lodge and the one most favorably considered will be accepted. It is expected that the building will be erected this summer.

FUNERAL OF PERCY WHEELER.

The Lynn ward meetinghouse was filled to overflowing yesterday afternoon by sympathizing friends of John W. Wheeler and family, who desired to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of their son Percy R. Wheeler who died from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. A wealth of beautiful floral tributes silently told the sorrow felt by all in the sad bereavement.

The services were in charge of Bishop George Smith. Beautiful music was furnished by the ward choir. Consoling addresses were given by Patriarch George W. Larkin, President C. F. Middleton, Elder Walter Crane and Bishop Smith. A large funeral cortege followed the remains to their last resting place in the Ogden City cemetery.

WERE GIVEN FURTHER PUNISHMENT.

Judge Murphy did not think that Mrs. Emma Harper had meted out sufficient punishment to Fred Webb, the colored man, Tuesday, when he insulted her and she laid his cheek open for about three inches with a beer bottle and slashed him terribly with a razor, and the judge therefore fined him $5 for his improper conduct, which should be a lesson to the colored element that they must obey the law.

MISSING PERFORMANCE.

It was a great disappointment to the theater-going public of Ogden last evening that Lillian Russell and her company could not reach Ogden in time for their performance at the Grand Opera House. The seat sale was large, in fact it is believed standing room would have been at a premium had the company to get in Ogden on time was caused through the cave in at the Aspen tunnel.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Policeman Al Herlick, who has served the city for several years as patrolman, has tendered his resignation to Chief Browning, which has been accepted to take effect at once.

Ogden is to have another cheap show house at which will be given moving pictures and illustrated songs. It will be located at 242 Washington avenue. Elder John W. Sowerby, who has been laboring as a missionary in Colorado, has come home to spend a few weeks before going to England to finish his mission. Having been transferred there.

from using the city pavilion as a place to hold social gatherings. Up to date the judge has not given his decision.

Promise of Record Breaking Year for Beet Planting—Peculiar Lawsuit.

Special Correspondence. Spanish Fork, Utah Co., April 12.—A boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson on the 10th.

Beet planting in this section is now in order. There is every indication that it will be a banner year in acreage. "Much ado about nothing" has subsided. "All's well that ends well."

PECULIAR LAWSUIT.

A lawsuit has been brought before Judge Booth in the Fourth district court by the proprietors of a dancing pavilion here, against Spanish Fork city as a corporation, to enjoin the city wedding of himself and two wives, Harriet and Lucy Ann Woolf, whom he married in Salt Lake City April 19, 1887, and has reared large families by them. Both women still live in Hyde Park and continue the same harmonious relations with each other which has marked the 50 years of their married lives.

ELISE PERMELIA ROBINSON.

Picker of Penn, who joined the Church at an early day and passed through the mobbing and hardships incident to the history of the Church in Missouri and Illinois, Elsie, their daughter, coming to gladden their home in Hancock county, Ill., in 1840.

The family arrived in Utah in 1850 and Elsie was married to Isaac P. Robinson in 1863. The couple lived in Weber and Morgan counties until 1885, when they moved to Arizona, where they have resided ever since, highly esteemed by all the people.

Mrs. Robinson is the mother of 13 children, six sons and seven daughters, 11 of whom survive their honored mother. Of these, Mrs. Nora Brandt and Mrs. Nellie Cline live in Mesa City, Ariz., Mrs. Emily Taylor at La Grande, Oregon, the remainder of the family, Isaac P., Jr., Joseph, Cyrus, Frank, Orson, Mrs. Elsie Monticelli and Zina Robinson, live here. One son, Wilford, is away from home.

BLUEWATER.

HAKES GOLDEN WEDDING.

Patriarch and Mrs. Collins R. Hakes Celebrate Semi-Centennial.

Special Correspondence. Bluewater, New Mexico, April 5.—March 29 Patriarch Collins R. Hakes and wife celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Bluewater, N. M. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Hakes only the members of the family were present.

Collins Rowe Hakes was born June 26, 1837, in Granton, Lorain Co., O. His wife, Mabel Ann Morse, was born April 20, 1840, in Macomb, McDonough Co., Ill., and with their parents shared the trials and persecutions of the early saints.

They were married March 29, 1857, in San Bernardino, Cal., by Apostle Charles C. Rich, and on Dec. 27 of that year, began, with the saints, the long journey to Utah. Feb. 15, 1858, on the Colorado river, Utah, their first child was born. They arrived at Parowan, Feb. 28, remaining there 19 years, thence they moved to Kanab, where they resided 12 years. During this time Father Hakes labored as a counselor to Bishop King and Mrs. Hakes began her work in Relief society as an officer in the association. In the spring of 1887 they made the journey to Utah, where they lived 23 years. All this time Father Hakes labored in the stake presidency, attending 20 of the 21 semi-annual conferences. Mrs. Hakes also labored in the presidency of the Relief society in Maricopa stake, and was in and out of an angel of mercy to those in need.

Mr. Hakes was elected supervisor in 1887, and served in the council of the National territorial legislature, and has always been prominent in the civil affairs of the territory. At the time of Elder A. O. Woodruff's last illness and death in Mexico, Father Hakes anxiously watched over the patient sufferer. Alone he prepared the body for its last resting place and dedicated the grave.

Such have been the lives of this devoted couple, full of devotion to their God, their family and associates, ever patient, charitable and kind to the orphan and wayward, and to know this is to love them. Their posterity number as follows: Twelve children, six of whom are living: Mrs. Ann Eliza Leavitt, Mrs. Anna, Mrs. Jane Johnson, Chulachita, Chua, Mrs. Mrs. Lottis M. Lamb, Bishop C. R. Hakes, D. Edgar Hakes, and Mrs. H. H. Hakes, Bluewater, New Mexico. Thirty-seven grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren also honor their name.

Splendid Showing Made in Gem State Finances.

Special Correspondence. Boise, Ida., April 5.—State Treasurer C. A. Hastings has just completed the preparation of his report of the financial condition of the state for the first quarter of the current year, ending March 31, 1907. Mr. Hastings expresses himself as being extremely proud of the record made during the three months by the state treasury, which is far in advance of any heretofore made by this department for the same period. The earnings of the surplus funds in the state treasury, deposited in banks furnishing proper security, has during the past three months aggregated $2,896.43, the interest earnings for the month of March being in excess of $1,150. On April 1, 1907, the state treasury had various banks state funds aggregating $509,650, drawing interest at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent a year. Mr. Hastings has already called state bonds, interest ceasing on April 1, to the amount of $51,000. In 1905, the call of state bonds was not made until several months later, and it is calculated that a saving of $2,000 has been made to the state through the early calling of bonds and payment of warrants. Since April 1, warrants have been redeemed to the amount of $17,188.59. State warrants bought for the general school fund since April 1, $27,786.61. Following is the treasurer's statement for the first quarter of the year 1907: There was on hand Jan. 1, 1907, $449,458.49; receipts during quarter ending March 31, $292,873.55, total $1,422,032.04. Warrants redeemed during the same period, $674,542.22; cash on hand, March 31, $747,489.82, distributed among the various funds of the state, the heaviest items of which are: Wagon road sinking fund, $25,187.70; general school fund, $197,685.84; common school fund, $84,029.57; public building endowment fund, $51,133.69; Carey act trust fund, $69,217.35; general interest and sinking fund $57,190.34.
