Bail Fixed.

To-day Thomas F. Harris, the Ogden non-Mormon who is now serving a term in the penitentiary for unlawful cohabitation, was brought into the Third District Court. ## A Burned Bridge.

The regular Union Pacific train due in Ogden at 5:40 p. m. yesterday, did not reach here till midnight. The cause of the delay was a burned bridge about 222 miles west of Kansas City. The burning of the bridge caused no mishap as it was discovered before any trains had to pass over it. The bridge was several yards in length and crossed a swamp. The regular train was delayed about 14 hours, and 7 hours were made up between that point and Ogden.—Ogden Herald, Aug. 13.

Four grown-up persons and one small boy faced Justice Pyper in the Police Court to-day. Two of these, R. Marcroft and Fred. Slater, pleaded guilty to drunkenness, and were fined $5 each.

Mike Fleming pleaded guilty for the sixtieth time to vagrancy and was sentenced to 60 days in jail.

The boy was accused of having, in company with another young rogue from the Ninth Ward, stolen a pair of rabbits. In consideration of his youth and a promise to avoid bad company in the future, sentence was suspended.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The Board of Canvassers Count the Votes of Eight Counties.

The Utah Commission some time ago appointed, as a board of canvassers, the following gentlemen: W. C. Hall, C. O. Whittemore and Hadley D. Johnson, of Salt Lake County, W. N. Dusenberry, of Utah County, and W. W. Maughan, of Cache County. Yesterday morning these gentlemen met at the rooms of the Commission and organized as a returning board with Mr. Hall as chairman. The Edmunds-Tucker oath was administered to each member of the board. According to the provisions of the statute from which that oath is derived, the board can only canvass the vote for county officers; that for members of the Legislature must be canvassed by the Utah Commission itself.

It was decided to take the counties in alphabetical order, and the following were gone through with last evening:

The C. P. Stirring.

As the Union Pacific now takes freight and passengers to and from San Francisco by way of Portland, Oregon, independent of the Central Pacific, it is believed that the latter road will form an alliance with the Northwestern, which now has a road completed to within 400 miles of Ogden. Should the Central Pacific and Northwestern combine, a road would be built through Wyoming to Ogden at once, and a new through line established. The proposed road from this place north would be also built at an early day, and much of the trade of eastern Oregon and Idaho diverted to the Central Pacific.—Winnemucca (Nev.) Silver State.

Fatal Shooting.

In a quarrel over some hay land yesterday morning near Melrose, C. A. Clayton, who was defending himself against Charles Powers, J. Peterson and Z. C. Maddux, shot the latter in the left side, the ball passing through his body, and Powers in the right hand. The wounded men were removed to their homes, where Maddux has since died. Clayton at once took the delayed Utah & Northern train for Butte, and surrendered himself to Sheriff Lloyd, who placed him in confinement. He is well and favorably known in this county, and has lived in the Territory many years. He claims to have shot in self-defense, and as the other men came on his premises armed this seems more than probable.—Butte Miner, Aug. 11.

Salt Lake County.

The following business was transacted in the Probate Court yesterday:

In the matter of the estate of Alex. C. Pyper, deceased, the petition of Christina D. Pyper, for the appointment of herself as guardian of Alexander C. Pyper, Walter T. Pyper and Genevieve A. Pyper was granted, and said Christina D. Pyper appointed.

In the matter of the estate of and guardianship of Brigham C. Pyper, Mary E. Pyper, Maggie M. Pyper and Effemina Pyper, minors, on petition, Jane T. Pyper was appointed guardian of the persons and estates of said minors.

In the matter of the estate of Ezra W. Cummings, the inventory of the appraisers, A. J. Cushing, Seward Davis and J. H. Tempest, was filed.

In the matter of the estate of Hiram S. Mortensen, minor, a petition was filed for an accounting of guardian and for removal of guardian, and an order was made for guardian to render an account.

The marriage certificates of Walter L. Scott and Etta Scoville, Joseph James Paul and Sarah Ann Harding, and Thomas Hindmarsh and Mary Bally were filed.

Third District Court.

Proceedings before Judge Zane, Saturday, Augrst 13:

Pioneer Loan & Building Association vs. W. J. Kirby et al.; default and judgment as prayed for.

G. R. Jones vs. Rachel Golding et al., Rachel Golding appointed guardian ad litem for minor heirs.

Isador Morris vs. Joseph W. Watson; default and judgment.

F. C. Thurston et al. vs. H. Hill et al.; motion for commission to take depositions; interrogatories objected to; motion submitted, interrogatories allowed and commission ordered.

Robert Pixton et al., vs. Elizabeth Pixton et al.; report of referee and commissioner read and filed; decree conferring sale, etc., made.

United States vs. Thomas F. Harris; indicted for polygamy; bail fixed at $1,000.

United States vs. F. A. Nmis et al.; hearing on report of referee; motion to stay proceedings on report until statement shall be made and filed; stay allowed.

How Came the Errors?

Correspondents have called attention to several errors in the list of the precinct registration of the Territory as published in the NEWS a few days ago. The proof of the list was carefully checked, before publication, with the figures in the office of the Utah Commission, and made to correspond therewith. But there are some material discrepancies between that list and the facts. The list gives Deep Creek 4 voters, while it actually has about four times that number. Kanosh is given, by the list, 33 voters, whereas it has 78, while Huntington, Emery County, has a registration of 89, instead of the paltry 38 credited to it by the list. Correspondents are indignant at such unseemingly attempts to shrivel up their towns. Such errors can hardly be clerical or typographical. Evidently imperfect or incorrect reports have been made to the Commission.

The U. & N. Accident.

For the last three days the trains on the Utah & Northern Railway have been delayed owing to an accident on the line in Idaho. The Butte Miner has the following special dispatch giving an account of the trouble:

Melrose, August 10.—About 5 o'clock this afternoon a shocking wreck occurred on the Utah and Northern at the same place where the wreck occurred on Monday night. At that time the track was so completely torn up that a temporary track was laid round it. This, of course was anything but strong. At the hour mentioned freight train No. 611, northbound, was passing over this temporary track, and, the rails spreading, a number of cars with valuable freight were piled in inextricable confusion on the track. Several of them were overturned into the river, and it is a mystery how any of the train hands escaped with their lives. The south-bound passenger train that left Butte this morning is now delayed north of the wreck, and will have to wait till the north-bound train due in Butte at 8 to-morrow morning arrives on the south side of the wreck, when a transfer will be effected.

"Ben Israel."

E. W. Tullidge, Esq., author of the above play and several other productions of sterling merit, informs us that he is about to take active measures looking to its production here at as early a date as practicable. In this he will not repeat his disastrous experiment with "Oliver Cromwell," a play that deserved better treatment than it received, and to the hotch-potch cast and hurried preparation of which is due in a large measure the financial failure which attended it. "Ben Israel" is fully equal as a literary effort to "Cromwell," and in some dramatic respects is superior to it. Mr. Tullidge deserves well of our theatre-goers; he has written three entirely original dramas equal to most of their kind on the English-speaking stage, and the local public will doubtless show its appreciation of his efforts when his benefit takes place.

A Good Magazine.

Parry's Monthly Magazine has greatly improved since it first made its appearance. It fills a place of its own in Utah literature. Though its articles are chiefly selected, they are pure in tone and instructive as well as entertaining. The original matter is very commendable and the illustrations which occasionally adorn its pages are a pleasant feature. Brother W. R. Jones, of the Parry Company, has gone north in the interest of the magazine, and we can recommend it as a valuable substitute for the light reading matter which some people will have and much of which is not of the highest and most beneficial character. Parry's is always readable and always comes out on time.

Chance to Go East.

The eastern and European excursion now being gotten up by Messrs. Spence and Rossiter, affords a fine opportunity for people in this section to pay a visit to New York and the Atlantic coast. The fare from this city to the eastern metropolis is only $95.30 and tickets are good for six months. Tickets must be purchased on or before the third of next month, and parties who contemplate going should secure them as soon as possible. On account of making arrangements for Pullman cars, etc., it is desirable for Messrs. Spence and Rossiter to know as soon as possible how many are likely to want such accommodations. For further particulars see advertisement in the NEWS.

The Suffragists of Kanosh.

A correspondent says that Kanosh, Millard County, has 78 votes, instead of 33 as given in a list of the precinct registration of the Territory, published in the NEWS a short time since. The town cast 61 votes, only three of which were Constitution, No. There are in Kanosh about 30 widows who are real estate owners and tax payers, but who were disfranchised by the Edmunds-Tucker law.
