

WALKER BROTHERS. True To Our Motto. "We are never undersold." We offer our entire Stock of New and desirable Merchandise in all of our De- partments AT COST and expense of selling for NET CASH ONLY! WHY? Because we prefer doing one season's business without profit to permitting our Goods to get old on our shelves. MAIL ORDERS FILLED AT REDUCED PRICES. ESTABLISHED 1864. F. AUERBACH & BRO.

Friday, Nov. 20, 1883.

On and after December 1st, 1883, subscriptions to the Evening News will be required in advance. Payment for papers not being delivered to parties in this city who have not paid beyond that time will be collected, and the same amount by the carriers, weekly or monthly. Where parties prefer to pay 3, 6 or 12 months, they can do so at this office and papers will be delivered as usual.

Daily per Week..... 25.
 " " Month..... $1.00.
 " " 3 Months..... 2.50.
 " " 6 "..... 5.00.
 " " 12 "..... 10.00.

The siege of turkey is raised.

Priesthood meeting to-morrow, at 11 a. m., in the Assembly Hall.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the Social Hall.

How many more turkey gobblers were there yesterday, than the day before?

A Co-op express wagon was accidentally stuck in a mud-hole in the South Ward, Wednesday afternoon, and one of the wheels broken off.

At Bridgeport, Colorado, between Grand Junction and Montrose, last Wednesday night, some railroad laborers got into a quarrel, in which two of them were killed.

Grand matinee for ladies and children at the Salt Lake Theatre to-morrow afternoon. The minister will give their choice of entertainments. Prices 50 cents and 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

We call the attention of our readers to the auction sale that will take place to-morrow, Saturday, December 1st, at 11 a. m., at Mr. H. A. Auld's new auction house, west of Walker Opera House. See ad. in our special columns.

At Montrose, Colorado, November 28th, a man named Pat Hassett was arrested for drunkenness, and next morning was found hanging to a tree, dead, having hung himself with a blue flannel shirt which he had on when arrested.

At Grand Junction, Colorado, on the night of the 28th inst., T. A. Lester, formerly deputy sheriff of Gunnison County, had some trouble with a drunken man, and during a struggle the man, who was armed with a knife, cut Lester's thigh, making an ugly flesh wound.

At the funeral of Sister Frances A. P. Woolley, at the Ninth Ward meeting house, yesterday at 11:30 a. m., the house was densely packed and the services were conducted by Counselor John Brown. The ward choir furnished excellent music, and remarks were made by Elder S. A. Woolley, of Grantsville, and Joseph E. Taylor, Apostle George Teasdale and Bishop E. F. Sheets. The services were very impressive.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fallen Asleep.—Father John Wilcox, of Herriman, formerly of Wrington, Somersetshire, England, died this morning at 5:45 o'clock, of old age. His doors were always open to the Elders, even before he entered the Church, and since his immigration to Utah, eleven years ago, he has manifested the same spirit of benevolence and integrity to the cause of truth. May his rest be peaceful.

Christmas Story.—The publisher of the Contributor some time ago invited every one who had ever written for its pages to enter into a friendly competition for a prize Christmas Story, to appear in the holiday number of that magazine. These stories are now being received. All of them are to be in by December 1st, when they will be examined by a select committee, who will decide upon the best and award the prize. From the interest being taken by many of the talented writers for the Contributor, the indications are that a very superior Christmas story will adorn the pages of the holiday number.

The "Roman's Eye."—"Will they ever get enough?" This query is appropriate in view of the wondrous popularity maintained by this splendid sensational drama, now closing its second run in this city, and about to be played for the eighth time. It is seldom indeed that the same can be said of any dramatic entertainment presented here. The place has everything to make it popular, and is well cast among an able company. The leading character, "Jack Hearene," personated by Mr. Denzell, is a very creditable piece of heroic acting, his fine stage presence, unassuming demeanor, added to his native ability as an actor, making him a general favorite wherever he appears. We understand the gentleman intends starring at the close of his present engagement with Messrs. Brooks and Dickson. To night is the last one of "Roman's Eye" at the Opera House.

Certificates Awarded.—Mr. A. C. Smyth's vocal music class in the old notation system, finished its first term on Wednesday, November 28th. The pupils have made remarkable progress, and the course was undoubtedly develop some very fine voices and readers. The following members of the class were awarded certificates of honorable mention; the requirements being the same as at the National Training College, England, viz., a knowledge of solfeggio, vocalization and recognition of musical phrases.

Ladies.—Edith Smith, Sarah Bishop, Rachel Bishop, Mrs. M. Bliss, L. H. Latimer, Lizzie Latimer, Ida Hampton, E. Mackay, Jennie Christiansen, Helen S. Perry, Rachel Hamlin, Martha Goughly, S. B. Player, F. B. Player, Ella O. Neilson, Emma Finch, Katie Malbon, Emily Malbon, Rachel Patrick, Lizzie Smith, Jennie Smith, Martha Smith, Jennie Mortensen, Christie Lawson, Mrs. M. C. Hall, Evelyn Cook, Alice Raleigh, Nettie Raleigh, Rose Chandler, Martha Melting, Mamie Anderson, Alice Nunn, Ella Whytock, Nettie Latimer, Tansie Morris, Nellie Morris, Addie Morris, Lizzie Lewis, Isoti Barrell, Rosalie Odell, Jessie Saville, Belle Russell, Alice Barrow.

Gentlemen.—Jno. H. Burrows, T. Hull, G. B. Whitaker, H. J. Hill, J. H. Barrow, J. S. H. Bodell, Joe. H. Haelem, Thomas Thomas, Jno. Haelem.

PERSONAL.

James Dwyer, Esq., is back from the East.

Bishop Peter Barton was down from Kaysville to-day.

Mrs. Wm. Marsden, of Patowan is visiting Salt Lake.

H. H. Cluff, Esq., of Provo, looked in to parties in this city who have not paid beyond that time will be collected, and the same amount by the carriers, weekly or monthly.

Where parties prefer to pay 3, 6 or 12 months, they can do so at this office and papers will be delivered as usual.

Daily per Week..... 25.
 " " Month..... $1.00.
 " " 3 Months..... 2.50.
 " " 6 "..... 5.00.
 " " 12 "..... 10.00.

The siege of turkey is raised.

Priesthood meeting to-morrow, at 11 a. m., in the Assembly Hall.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the Social Hall.

How many more turkey gobblers were there yesterday, than the day before?

A Co-op express wagon was accidentally stuck in a mud-hole in the South Ward, Wednesday afternoon, and one of the wheels broken off.

At Bridgeport, Colorado, between Grand Junction and Montrose, last Wednesday night, some railroad laborers got into a quarrel, in which two of them were killed.

Grand matinee for ladies and children at the Salt Lake Theatre to-morrow afternoon. The minister will give their choice of entertainments. Prices 50 cents and 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

We call the attention of our readers to the auction sale that will take place to-morrow, Saturday, December 1st, at 11 a. m., at Mr. H. A. Auld's new auction house, west of Walker Opera House. See ad. in our special columns.

At Montrose, Colorado, November 28th, a man named Pat Hassett was arrested for drunkenness, and next morning was found hanging to a tree, dead, having hung himself with a blue flannel shirt which he had on when arrested.

At Grand Junction, Colorado, on the night of the 28th inst., T. A. Lester, formerly deputy sheriff of Gunnison County, had some trouble with a drunken man, and during a struggle the man, who was armed with a knife, cut Lester's thigh, making an ugly flesh wound.

At the funeral of Sister Frances A. P. Woolley, at the Ninth Ward meeting house, yesterday at 11:30 a. m., the house was densely packed and the services were conducted by Counselor John Brown. The ward choir furnished excellent music, and remarks were made by Elder S. A. Woolley, of Grantsville, and Joseph E. Taylor, Apostle George Teasdale and Bishop E. F. Sheets. The services were very impressive.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fallen Asleep.—Father John Wilcox, of Herriman, formerly of Wrington, Somersetshire, England, died this morning at 5:45 o'clock, of old age. His doors were always open to the Elders, even before he entered the Church, and since his immigration to Utah, eleven years ago, he has manifested the same spirit of benevolence and integrity to the cause of truth. May his rest be peaceful.

Christmas Story.—The publisher of the Contributor some time ago invited every one who had ever written for its pages to enter into a friendly competition for a prize Christmas Story, to appear in the holiday number of that magazine. These stories are now being received. All of them are to be in by December 1st, when they will be examined by a select committee, who will decide upon the best and award the prize. From the interest being taken by many of the talented writers for the Contributor, the indications are that a very superior Christmas story will adorn the pages of the holiday number.

The "Roman's Eye."—"Will they ever get enough?" This query is appropriate in view of the wondrous popularity maintained by this splendid sensational drama, now closing its second run in this city, and about to be played for the eighth time. It is seldom indeed that the same can be said of any dramatic entertainment presented here. The place has everything to make it popular, and is well cast among an able company. The leading character, "Jack Hearene," personated by Mr. Denzell, is a very creditable piece of heroic acting, his fine stage presence, unassuming demeanor, added to his native ability as an actor, making him a general favorite wherever he appears. We understand the gentleman intends starring at the close of his present engagement with Messrs. Brooks and Dickson. To night is the last one of "Roman's Eye" at the Opera House.

Certificates Awarded.—Mr. A. C. Smyth's vocal music class in the old notation system, finished its first term on Wednesday, November 28th. The pupils have made remarkable progress, and the course was undoubtedly develop some very fine voices and readers. The following members of the class were awarded certificates of honorable mention; the requirements being the same as at the National Training College, England, viz., a knowledge of solfeggio, vocalization and recognition of musical phrases.

Ladies.—Edith Smith, Sarah Bishop, Rachel Bishop, Mrs. M. Bliss, L. H. Latimer, Lizzie Latimer, Ida Hampton, E. Mackay, Jennie Christiansen, Helen S. Perry, Rachel Hamlin, Martha Goughly, S. B. Player, F. B. Player, Ella O. Neilson, Emma Finch, Katie Malbon, Emily Malbon, Rachel Patrick, Lizzie Smith, Jennie Smith, Martha Smith, Jennie Mortensen, Christie Lawson, Mrs. M. C. Hall, Evelyn Cook, Alice Raleigh, Nettie Raleigh, Rose Chandler, Martha Melting, Mamie Anderson, Alice Nunn, Ella Whytock, Nettie Latimer, Tansie Morris, Nellie Morris, Addie Morris, Lizzie Lewis, Isoti Barrell, Rosalie Odell, Jessie Saville, Belle Russell, Alice Barrow.

Gentlemen.—Jno. H. Burrows, T. Hull, G. B. Whitaker, H. J. Hill, J. H. Barrow, J. S. H. Bodell, Joe. H. Haelem, Thomas Thomas, Jno. Haelem.

PERSONAL.

James Dwyer, Esq., is back from the East.

Bishop Peter Barton was down from Kaysville to-day.

Mrs. Wm. Marsden, of Patowan is visiting Salt Lake.

H. H. Cluff, Esq., of Provo, looked in to parties in this city who have not paid beyond that time will be collected, and the same amount by the carriers, weekly or monthly.

Where parties prefer to pay 3, 6 or 12 months, they can do so at this office and papers will be delivered as usual.

Daily per Week..... 25.
 " " Month..... $1.00.
 " " 3 Months..... 2.50.
 " " 6 "..... 5.00.
 " " 12 "..... 10.00.

The siege of turkey is raised.

Priesthood meeting to-morrow, at 11 a. m., in the Assembly Hall.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the Social Hall.

How many more turkey gobblers were there yesterday, than the day before?

A Co-op express wagon was accidentally stuck in a mud-hole in the South Ward, Wednesday afternoon, and one of the wheels broken off.

At Bridgeport, Colorado, between Grand Junction and Montrose, last Wednesday night, some railroad laborers got into a quarrel, in which two of them were killed.

Grand matinee for ladies and children at the Salt Lake Theatre to-morrow afternoon. The minister will give their choice of entertainments. Prices 50 cents and 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

We call the attention of our readers to the auction sale that will take place to-morrow, Saturday, December 1st, at 11 a. m., at Mr. H. A. Auld's new auction house, west of Walker Opera House. See ad. in our special columns.

At Montrose, Colorado, November 28th, a man named Pat Hassett was arrested for drunkenness, and next morning was found hanging to a tree, dead, having hung himself with a blue flannel shirt which he had on when arrested.

At Grand Junction, Colorado, on the night of the 28th inst., T. A. Lester, formerly deputy sheriff of Gunnison County, had some trouble with a drunken man, and during a struggle the man, who was armed with a knife, cut Lester's thigh, making an ugly flesh wound.

At the funeral of Sister Frances A. P. Woolley, at the Ninth Ward meeting house, yesterday at 11:30 a. m., the house was densely packed and the services were conducted by Counselor John Brown. The ward choir furnished excellent music, and remarks were made by Elder S. A. Woolley, of Grantsville, and Joseph E. Taylor, Apostle George Teasdale and Bishop E. F. Sheets. The services were very impressive.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fallen Asleep.—Father John Wilcox, of Herriman, formerly of Wrington, Somersetshire, England, died this morning at 5:45 o'clock, of old age. His doors were always open to the Elders, even before he entered the Church, and since his immigration to Utah, eleven years ago, he has manifested the same spirit of benevolence and integrity to the cause of truth. May his rest be peaceful.

Christmas Story.—The publisher of the Contributor some time ago invited every one who had ever written for its pages to enter into a friendly competition for a prize Christmas Story, to appear in the holiday number of that magazine. These stories are now being received. All of them are to be in by December 1st, when they will be examined by a select committee, who will decide upon the best and award the prize. From the interest being taken by many of the talented writers for the Contributor, the indications are that a very superior Christmas story will adorn the pages of the holiday number.

The "Roman's Eye."—"Will they ever get enough?" This query is appropriate in view of the wondrous popularity maintained by this splendid sensational drama, now closing its second run in this city, and about to be played for the eighth time. It is seldom indeed that the same can be said of any dramatic entertainment presented here. The place has everything to make it popular, and is well cast among an able company. The leading character, "Jack Hearene," personated by Mr. Denzell, is a very creditable piece of heroic acting, his fine stage presence, unassuming demeanor, added to his native ability as an actor, making him a general favorite wherever he appears. We understand the gentleman intends starring at the close of his present engagement with Messrs. Brooks and Dickson. To night is the last one of "Roman's Eye" at the Opera House.

Certificates Awarded.—Mr. A. C. Smyth's vocal music class in the old notation system, finished its first term on Wednesday, November 28th. The pupils have made remarkable progress, and the course was undoubtedly develop some very fine voices and readers. The following members of the class were awarded certificates of honorable mention; the requirements being the same as at the National Training College, England, viz., a knowledge of solfeggio, vocalization and recognition of musical phrases.

Ladies.—Edith Smith, Sarah Bishop, Rachel Bishop, Mrs. M. Bliss, L. H. Latimer, Lizzie Latimer, Ida Hampton, E. Mackay, Jennie Christiansen, Helen S. Perry, Rachel Hamlin, Martha Goughly, S. B. Player, F. B. Player, Ella O. Neilson, Emma Finch, Katie Malbon, Emily Malbon, Rachel Patrick, Lizzie Smith, Jennie Smith, Martha Smith, Jennie Mortensen, Christie Lawson, Mrs. M. C. Hall, Evelyn Cook, Alice Raleigh, Nettie Raleigh, Rose Chandler, Martha Melting, Mamie Anderson, Alice Nunn, Ella Whytock, Nettie Latimer, Tansie Morris, Nellie Morris, Addie Morris, Lizzie Lewis, Isoti Barrell, Rosalie Odell, Jessie Saville, Belle Russell, Alice Barrow.

Gentlemen.—Jno. H. Burrows, T. Hull, G. B. Whitaker, H. J. Hill, J. H. Barrow, J. S. H. Bodell, Joe. H. Haelem, Thomas Thomas, Jno. Haelem.

PERSONAL.

James Dwyer, Esq., is back from the East.

Bishop Peter Barton was down from Kaysville to-day.

Mrs. Wm. Marsden, of Patowan is visiting Salt Lake.

H. H. Cluff, Esq., of Provo, looked in to parties in this city who have not paid beyond that time will be collected, and the same amount by the carriers, weekly or monthly.

Where parties prefer to pay 3, 6 or 12 months, they can do so at this office and papers will be delivered as usual.

Daily per Week..... 25.
 " " Month..... $1.00.
 " " 3 Months..... 2.50.
 " " 6 "..... 5.00.
 " " 12 "..... 10.00.

The siege of turkey is raised.

Priesthood meeting to-morrow, at 11 a. m., in the Assembly Hall.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the Social Hall.

How many more turkey gobblers were there yesterday, than the day before?

A Co-op express wagon was accidentally stuck in a mud-hole in the South Ward, Wednesday afternoon, and one of the wheels broken off.

At Bridgeport, Colorado, between Grand Junction and Montrose, last Wednesday night, some railroad laborers got into a quarrel, in which two of them were killed.

Grand matinee for ladies and children at the Salt Lake Theatre to-morrow afternoon. The minister will give their choice of entertainments. Prices 50 cents and 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

We call the attention of our readers to the auction sale that will take place to-morrow, Saturday, December 1st, at 11 a. m., at Mr. H. A. Auld's new auction house, west of Walker Opera House. See ad. in our special columns.

At Montrose, Colorado, November 28th, a man named Pat Hassett was arrested for drunkenness, and next morning was found hanging to a tree, dead, having hung himself with a blue flannel shirt which he had on when arrested.

At Grand Junction, Colorado, on the night of the 28th inst., T. A. Lester, formerly deputy sheriff of Gunnison County, had some trouble with a drunken man, and during a struggle the man, who was armed with a knife, cut Lester's thigh, making an ugly flesh wound.

At the funeral of Sister Frances A. P. Woolley, at the Ninth Ward meeting house, yesterday at 11:30 a. m., the house was densely packed and the services were conducted by Counselor John Brown. The ward choir furnished excellent music, and remarks were made by Elder S. A. Woolley, of Grantsville, and Joseph E. Taylor, Apostle George Teasdale and Bishop E. F. Sheets. The services were very impressive.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fallen Asleep.—Father John Wilcox, of Herriman, formerly of Wrington, Somersetshire, England, died this morning at 5:45 o'clock, of old age. His doors were always open to the Elders, even before he entered the Church, and since his immigration to Utah, eleven years ago, he has manifested the same spirit of benevolence and integrity to the cause of truth. May his rest be peaceful.

Christmas Story.—The publisher of the Contributor some time ago invited every one who had ever written for its pages to enter into a friendly competition for a prize Christmas Story, to appear in the holiday number of that magazine. These stories are now being received. All of them are to be in by December 1st, when they will be examined by a select committee, who will decide upon the best and award the prize. From the interest being taken by many of the talented writers for the Contributor, the indications are that a very superior Christmas story will adorn the pages of the holiday number.

The "Roman's Eye."—"Will they ever get enough?" This query is appropriate in view of the wondrous popularity maintained by this splendid sensational drama, now closing its second run in this city, and about to be played for the eighth time. It is seldom indeed that the same can be said of any dramatic entertainment presented here. The place has everything to make it popular, and is well cast among an able company. The leading character, "Jack Hearene," personated by Mr. Denzell, is a very creditable piece of heroic acting, his fine stage presence, unassuming demeanor, added to his native ability as an actor, making him a general favorite wherever he appears. We understand the gentleman intends starring at the close of his present engagement with Messrs. Brooks and Dickson. To night is the last one of "Roman's Eye" at the Opera House.

Certificates Awarded.—Mr. A. C. Smyth's vocal music class in the old notation system, finished its first term on Wednesday, November 28th. The pupils have made remarkable progress, and the course was undoubtedly develop some very fine voices and readers. The following members of the class were awarded certificates of honorable mention; the requirements being the same as at the National Training College, England, viz., a knowledge of solfeggio, vocalization and recognition of musical phrases.

Ladies.—Edith Smith, Sarah Bishop, Rachel Bishop, Mrs. M. Bliss, L. H. Latimer, Lizzie Latimer, Ida Hampton, E. Mackay, Jennie Christiansen, Helen S. Perry, Rachel Hamlin, Martha Goughly, S. B. Player, F. B. Player, Ella O. Neilson, Emma Finch, Katie Malbon, Emily Malbon, Rachel Patrick, Lizzie Smith, Jennie Smith, Martha Smith, Jennie Mortensen, Christie Lawson, Mrs. M. C. Hall, Evelyn Cook, Alice Raleigh, Nettie Raleigh, Rose Chandler, Martha Melting, Mamie Anderson, Alice Nunn, Ella Whytock, Nettie Latimer, Tansie Morris, Nellie Morris, Addie Morris, Lizzie Lewis, Isoti Barrell, Rosalie Odell, Jessie Saville, Belle Russell, Alice Barrow.

Gentlemen.—Jno. H. Burrows, T. Hull, G. B. Whitaker, H. J. Hill, J. H. Barrow, J. S. H. Bodell, Joe. H. Haelem, Thomas Thomas, Jno. Haelem.

PERSONAL.

James Dwyer, Esq., is back from the East.

Bishop Peter Barton was down from Kaysville to-day.

Mrs. Wm. Marsden, of Patowan is visiting Salt Lake.

H. H. Cluff, Esq., of Provo, looked in to parties in this city who have not paid beyond that time will be collected, and the same amount by the carriers, weekly or monthly.

Where parties prefer to pay 3, 6 or 12 months, they can do so at this office and papers will be delivered as usual.

Daily per Week..... 25.
 " " Month..... $1.00.
 " " 3 Months..... 2.50.
 " " 6 "..... 5.00.
 " " 12 "..... 10.00.

The siege of turkey is raised.

Priesthood meeting to-morrow, at 11 a. m., in the Assembly Hall.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the Social Hall.

How many more turkey gobblers were there yesterday, than the day before?

A Co-op express wagon was accidentally stuck in a mud-hole in the South Ward, Wednesday afternoon, and one of the wheels broken off.

At Bridgeport, Colorado, between Grand Junction and Montrose, last Wednesday night, some railroad laborers got into a quarrel, in which two of them were killed.

Grand matinee for ladies and children at the Salt Lake Theatre to-morrow afternoon. The minister will give their choice of entertainments. Prices 50 cents and 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

We call the attention of our readers to the auction sale that will take place to-morrow, Saturday, December 1st, at 11 a. m., at Mr. H. A. Auld's new auction house, west of Walker Opera House. See ad. in our special columns.

At Montrose, Colorado, November 28th, a man named Pat Hassett was arrested for drunkenness, and next morning was found hanging to a tree, dead, having hung himself with a blue flannel shirt which he had on when arrested.

At Grand Junction, Colorado, on the night of the 28th inst., T. A. Lester, formerly deputy sheriff of Gunnison County, had some trouble with a drunken man, and during a struggle the man, who was armed with a knife, cut Lester's thigh, making an ugly flesh wound.

At the funeral of Sister Frances A. P. Woolley, at the Ninth Ward meeting house, yesterday at 11:30 a. m., the house was densely packed and the services were conducted by Counselor John Brown. The ward choir furnished excellent music, and remarks were made by Elder S. A. Woolley, of Grantsville, and Joseph E. Taylor, Apostle George Teasdale and Bishop E. F. Sheets. The services were very impressive.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fallen Asleep.—Father John Wilcox, of Herriman, formerly of Wrington, Somersetshire, England, died this morning at 5:45 o'clock, of old age. His doors were always open to the Elders, even before he entered the Church, and since his immigration to Utah, eleven years ago, he has manifested the same spirit of benevolence and integrity to the cause of truth. May his rest be peaceful.

Christmas Story.—The publisher of the Contributor some time ago invited every one who had ever written for its pages to enter into a friendly competition for a prize Christmas Story, to appear in the holiday number of that magazine. These stories are now being received. All of them are to be in by December 1st, when they will be examined by a select committee, who will decide upon the best and award the prize. From the interest being taken by many of the talented writers for the Contributor, the indications are that a very superior Christmas story will adorn the pages of the holiday number.

The "Roman's Eye."—"Will they ever get enough?" This query is appropriate in view of the wondrous popularity maintained by this splendid sensational drama, now closing its second run in this city, and about to be played for the eighth time. It is seldom indeed that the same can be said of any dramatic entertainment presented here. The place has everything to make it popular, and is well cast among an able company. The leading character, "Jack Hearene," personated by Mr. Denzell, is a very creditable piece of heroic acting, his fine stage presence, unassuming demeanor, added to his native ability as an actor, making him a general favorite wherever he appears. We understand the gentleman intends starring at the close of his present engagement with Messrs. Brooks and Dickson. To night is the last one of "Roman's Eye" at the Opera House.

Certificates Awarded.—Mr. A. C. Smyth's vocal music class in the old notation system, finished its first term on Wednesday, November 28th. The pupils have made remarkable progress, and the course was undoubtedly develop some very fine voices and readers. The following members of the class were awarded certificates of honorable mention; the requirements being the same as at the National Training College, England, viz., a knowledge of solfeggio, vocalization and recognition of musical phrases.

Ladies.—Edith Smith, Sarah Bishop, Rachel Bishop, Mrs. M. Bliss, L. H. Latimer, Lizzie Latimer, Ida Hampton, E. Mackay, Jennie Christiansen, Helen S. Perry, Rachel Hamlin, Martha Goughly, S. B. Player, F. B. Player, Ella O. Neilson, Emma Finch, Katie Malbon, Emily Malbon, Rachel Patrick, Lizzie Smith, Jennie Smith, Martha Smith, Jennie Mortensen, Christie Lawson, Mrs. M. C. Hall, Evelyn Cook, Alice Raleigh, Nettie Raleigh, Rose Chandler, Martha Melting, Mamie Anderson, Alice Nunn, Ella Whytock, Nettie Latimer, Tansie Morris, Nellie Morris, Addie Morris, Lizzie Lewis, Isoti Barrell, Rosalie Odell, Jessie Saville, Belle Russell, Alice Barrow.

Gentlemen.—Jno. H. Burrows, T. Hull, G. B. Whitaker, H. J. Hill, J. H. Barrow, J. S. H. Bodell, Joe. H. Haelem, Thomas Thomas, Jno. Haelem.

PERSONAL.

James Dwyer, Esq., is back from the East.

Bishop Peter Barton was down from Kaysville to-day.

Mrs. Wm. Marsden, of Patowan is visiting Salt Lake.

H. H