NEW YORK.

The Queen's cup race—Big Bank failure

A riot.

NEW YORK.—Twenty-two American yachts have been officially entered for the Queen's cup race, including the America, Phantom, Dauntless, Idler,

Tidal Wave and Madeline. Ensign

Jasper, late of the Darien expedition, has been ordered to sail the America for the race. The Dauntless will be sailed on Monday, by Captain Brown, who sailed the America in 1851; his son sails the America. Betting is strongly on these vessels.

The liabilities of the Brooklyn Central Bank are stated at from $800,000 to $1,000,000, against a capital of $200,000, and a State deposit of only $5,000. The city of Brooklyn has $158,000, and Kings county $105,000 deposit.

There was a riot among the iron foundries at Peckskill last night; one man was fatally injured. An attempt to lynch the assailant was prevented by the police.

TENNESSEE.

Found dead—A fracas.

MEMPHIS, 3.—Archey Craig, the well known telegraph operator, was found dead this morning. The verdict of the coroner's jury was death from congested condition of the lungs. His remains will be forwarded to Auburn, N. Y., for interment.

A difficulty occurred at Brownsville, yesterday, between A. A. Freeman and John H. Freeman, prominent lawyers, growing out of the publication of a card by the latter, reflecting severely on the former, who is candidate for the office of Judge of the Circuit Court, resulting in John Freeman being shot in the arm and the other cut with a bowie knife.

WASHINGTON.

Holivan Consul at San Francisco—

Applications for banks—Work at the navy yards.

WASHINGTON.—The President has recognized Francisco Perren, as consul of Bolivia at San Francisco.

About 200 hundred applications for banks were received by the comptroller of currency. The majority are from Illinois, where almost the entire number of applications are from the west and south. Several were received also from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Yesterday Secretary Robeson ordered five hundred more men to be engaged at the various navy yards, and the work of repairing and remodeling the vessels on hand and those daily placed out of commission, is to be vigorously carried on.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Judicial Furo.

RALEIGH, N. C.—The Marshal of the Supreme Court has returned from Yancayville. Colonel Kirk has refused to surrender the citizens held in his custody. The counsel for the prisoners moved, first, for an attachment against Kirk, and second, for a writ for some competent person to bring in the bodies and call out the power of the county if necessary. Chief Justice Pierson refused both the motions, and reiterated his former declaration that the power of the judiciary had been exhausted, and that he has no posse committatus to enforce the writ.

Six other citizens of Alamance were arrested yesterday.

ILLINOIS

Mail steamer burned—Deaths during the week.

The steamer Dan Able was burned at Columbus on Friday last. She had a large mail, consisting in part of about a thousand letters, which were destroyed.

Most of them were for the western States and Territories.

The German Ladies' Patriotic Aid

Society has decided to hold a grand annual fair here, the first week in September.

There have been 275 deaths in the city the past week; several cases of varioloid were reported, one fatal.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Fire by land and water.

BOSTON.—Thompson's planing mill and a block of frame buildings, in Hyde Park have been burned; loss $120,000.

The bark Nellie Fenwick, from Hayti for Boston with a cargo of logwood and sugar, was burned off Black Island; the crew and passengers were saved.

RHODE ISLAND.

A Brig Burned.

PROVIDENCE.—A brig, name unknown, laden with petroleum, was burned off Black Island, yesterday.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Parliamentary News—Trying to keep

Hamburg and Bremen Open—A New

Revolving Cannon—Some of the details of the Fight at Saarbrücken.

LONDON, 3.—The following is the Prussian account of the affair at Saarbrücken: The fortifications at this place (Saarbrücken) were attacked by a column of French infantry yesterday evening and were repulsed.

been taken by the French; loss slight on both sides.

LONDON, 3.—A rumor is in circulation here, to-day, to the effect that Weissenburg, has been stored by the French.

The Daily News of this morning, says the services of Lt. Col. Beauregard.

LONDON, 3.—The following is given, to-day, as the number and disposition of the Prussian army: "Duke Mecklenberg commands 108,000 men at the mouth of the river Elbe; Gen. Falkenstein has 48,000 men near Ems; General

Herwarth de Butterfield commands 50, 000 men. The army of the Rhine consists of the following bodies: 80,000 men at Cognac, under General Utenmetz; 108,000 at the Junction of the Maine with the Rhine, under Prince Frederick Charles; and 160,000 along the Upper Rhine, under the Prince Royal, Frederick William. The chiefs are

Generals Molke, Blumenthal, Spark-lin and Stehlin.

In the Lords, to-day, Earl Russell moved the second reading of the bill amending the military act. He spoke at some length, and reviewed the condition of foreign affairs, and said that the government requires full defensive powers. The intrigues and peril upon the Continent are due to the uncertainty as to the course which will be pursued by England. In his opinion, we needed only to declare for the enforcement of the treaties, whereupon half the danger would vanish, for neither the warring powers court the hostility of England. Only in this manner could Antwerp be saved. Earl Granville lamented that the noble lord had such a palpable lack of confidence in the
