IMPRESSIVE SUNDAY OBSEQUIES

Held Over Remains of Henry W. Naishitt, Mrs. Chipp, Mrs. Palmer and Others.

PETITION TO REINSTATE.

Noted Robbery Case—Racing Stock Arrives—Suit for Divorce—Tabernacle Services.

Ogden, April 26.—The funeral of Henry W. Naishitt was held at the First ward meetinghouse Sunday afternoon. Bishop D. H. Ensign officiating. The music was furnished by the ward choir, with solos by Mrs. Heber Warner and Walter Stephens. The speakers were Partridge George W. Larkin, B. H. Goddard, Robert Neslin, President John Watson of the Weber stake and Bishop Ensign. There was an unusually large attendance by members from the county offices, where the deceased was employed as chief deputy in the office of County Treasurer Chambers for a number of years. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful and were a silent tribute to the memory of a man who was held most dear in the community.

The funeral services over the remains of George W. Chipp, wife of the late John Chipp, was held at the Third ward meetinghouse Sunday afternoon. Bishop C. E. Peterson officiating. The music was furnished by the ward choir with solos by James Carlson and George Nye. The speakers were President J. A. Wetherpoon, Joseph Parry and Partridge George W. Larkin.

The funeral of Mrs. Alfred Palmer was held at 12 o'clock Sunday, at the Third ward meetinghouse, Bishop C. E. Peterson officiating. The music was furnished by the ward choir with solos by Mrs. Myrtle Ballinger, Beadie Blair and Ruby Giddies. The speakers were Bishops G. W. Bramwell, W. L. Stewart and J. A. Slater, President James Wetherpoon and Peter Folkman.

The funeral of Joseph Heath was held at the Larkin funeral chapel Sunday at 4 p. m. Bishop E. A. Olson presiding. Orson Griffin rendered a number of solos. The speakers were John Horne, Bishop Olson and W. L. Porter. The interment was in the city cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. John Ballantyne will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Riverside meetinghouse.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.
 Addie Wright has brought suit for a divorce in the district court against William A. Wright upon the ground of desertion. The couple were married in Kansas City, Mo., July 10, 1899, and have no children.

WANTS CASE REINSTITUTED.
 As a sequel to the Apex saloon robbery case in which the defendants, the defendant saloon are charged with robbery, Dist. Atty. Harris has filed a petition in the state supreme court for the reinstatement of the case which was dismissed by Judge Howell in the second district court upon technicalities.

It will be remembered that J. K. Garrett, B. J. McGuire and B. J. Blanton were charged with the robbery of the Apex saloon, of which they were proprietors. The case was tried in the city court, the defendants were bound over to the district court. When the case came up for trial before Judge Howell it was dismissed upon motion of the defendants' attorney upon a technicality in the forwarding of the indictment.

Dist. Atty. Harris then sought to have the case reinstated, but Judge Howell ruled against him. He now asks the supreme court of the state to direct the second district court to reinstate the case and Judge Howell of that court to reinstate the case.

TABERNACLE SERVICES.
 At the tabernacle yesterday afternoon Elder J. H. Paul of Salt Lake City was the principal speaker and spoke upon the subject of the "Sons in the Life of Christ." The subject was handled in six themes, appropriate musical numbers being interspersed between the themes. The tabernacle choir, under the direction of Joseph Ballantyne, the soloists were Misses Myrtle Ballinger and Beadie Blair, Sam P. Whitaker was the accompanist.

CLAYTON WARD BISHOPING.
 President L. W. Shurtliff and C. F. Middleton, Heber Steward and Alta Scoville went to Clinton ward Sunday afternoon to fill a vacancy in the bishopric, to select a second counselor to Bishop Hadlock. Myron Child was named for the position.

RACING STOCK ARRIVES.

A special train consisting of 14 palace horse cars and a standard sleeper arrived from Los Angeles Sunday afternoon.

An inclination to be constipated is a common symptom of the American people. This is due to indigestion, and indigestion comes from indiscretion of diet. Let foods be daily eaten like and there would be no constipation. 10 cents a package.

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CEREAL FOOD

FUNERAL OF WM. J. HARRIS.
 The funeral of William J. Harris, who met a violent death by being run over on Friday night last, will be held Thursday at 4 p. m. from the Sixth ward meetinghouse. His sons, Byron and Frank, are coming from Texas to attend the funeral and his son William from Nevada.

PRELIMINARY HEARING.
 Before Justice Noon today was conducted the preliminary hearing of Ernest Augustus Kelly, on the charge of murdering Sam Waycaster at American Fork, on April 4.

Little new evidence was brought out further than was adduced at the inquest. The sheriff testified that in explaining the manner of Waycaster's death, Kelly admitted that during the scuffle for the gun, between him and Waycaster, after the latter had shot two or three times at Kelly, the gun went off, the ball inflicting a fatal wound on Waycaster.

At the conclusion of the hearing Kelly was held to the district court under $1,000 bonds for voluntary manslaughter.

TO STOP FAST DRIVING.
 The police are making a special effort to stop fast driving on the streets of Provo. Last night Special Officer Cox made three arrests for violations of the speed ordinance, and the parties will have their hearing this afternoon.

The parties who ran down and fatally injured Mr. Harris on Friday have not yet been apprehended, but the sheriff thinks they will yet be found.

NAT'L REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

Young Men to Organize—County Teachers' Institute. Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., April 25.—The B. Y. C. Dramatic company presented "Gloria" at Sibley hall Friday evening to an appreciative audience. The work of the performers was very creditable. Miss Charlotte Stewart of Salt Lake, daughter of Prof. William M. Stewart of the state normal school, and a graduate of the university this spring, has been engaged by the U. A. C. to have charge of the girls' classes in gymnasium work for the coming year. The class meet of the B. Y. C. students on Friday afternoon was postponed for the last three events until Monday afternoon as a storm came up and stopped the sports. The classes are very evenly divided in their athletic activities this spring.
