

GOMPERS RIDES HIS HIGH HORSE

Thinks Congress Should Remain In Session Until It Enacts Legislation He Wants.

GIVES A LIST OF MEASURES.

Include Amending Anti-Trust Law—Also Enacting One Concerning Use of Injunctions.

Washington, May 7.—Responding to a letter from Representative Brumm of the Twelfth Pennsylvania congressional district, President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has written a letter in which he strongly urges that Congress shall remain in session long enough to enact certain legislation which he enumerates. In his letter Mr. Brumm says:

"I wish to say that I solemnly protest against the proposed early adjournment of Congress, as it will be impossible to act upon and pass such legislation as is demanded by the people and asked for by the president. I will be willing to join with others to insist upon several bills being brought out of the committee and acted upon promptly. There is no disguising the fact that Speaker Cannon intended to prevent legislation on these lines by referring the president's message and other bills to the congressional committee."

Mr. Gompers finds in Mr. Brumm's complaint of the speaker's action for his opposition to the continuation of Mr. Cannon in that office and then, taking up the question of a fairly adjournment, says:

"Surely no one will be fooled should Congress adjourn early to avoid the passage of the important measures which are awaiting consideration and action. Those members who are responsible for legislation or for its failure who will vote for adjournment before the enactment of these measures may imagine themselves in a fool's paradise, but I am confident that the people will hold them responsible for the vote to adjourn equally as though they had voted against the measures to which I refer."

He enumerates the following as the measures which labor will insist shall be acted on before adjournment:

The Wilson bill, amending the Sherman anti-trust law.
The Peattie bill, regulating the issuance of the injunction with its original and beneficial purposes.
Extension of the eight-hour law to all government employees of contractors or sub-contractors performing work for the government.
A general employers' liability law applicable to all workers so far as the federal jurisdiction extends.
Mr. Gompers says that from his knowledge of the members of the house "he is fully persuaded that there are enough members of the majority who would act with the minority members on the necessary bills to secure their passage and have them go over for the senate's action before adjournment of this session of Congress."

It is understood that these bills were referred to the judiciary committee in accordance with the house rules, requiring the reference to that committee of all bills involving new legislation.

ATTEMPT TO EXTORT MONEY FROM HEINZE FAILS

New York, May 7.—Edward E. Brennan, a lawyer of Butte, Mont., was arrested in the office of F. Augustus Heinze late this afternoon, charged with attempting to extort $40,000 from Mr. Heinze.

Brennan is 31 years old, and his people are said to be prominent residents of Indianapolis. When he was arraigned immediately after his arrest he was held 48 hours for further examination.

According to a detective of the district attorney's office, who made the arrest, Brennan came to New York

THREE CURES OF SEVERE ECZEMA

Michigan Woman Tells of Her Brother's Terrible Suffering with the Disease—Grandchild and Another Baby also Permanently Cured.

CUTICURA REMEDIES PROVED INVALUABLE

"My brother had eczema three different summers. About the same time each summer it came on his back and shoulders and down his back, and he said his suffering was terrible. He used different kinds of medicines that were said to be good for that disease, but nothing seemed to do him much good. When it came on the third summer, he bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and gave it a faithful trial. Soon he began to feel better and he cured himself entirely with Cuticura and has never been bothered with eczema since. He also used Cuticura to cure a bunch over his eye and a terrible corn which was so bad that he could not wear his shoe. A lady in Indiana heard of how my daughter, Mrs. Miller, had cured her little son of terrible eczema by the Cuticura Remedies. This lady's little one had the eczema so badly that they thought they would lose it. She used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and it cured her child entirely, and the disease never came back. Mrs. Sarah E. Cook, 67 Peckham St., Coldwater, Mich., Aug. 15 and Sept. 2, 1907."

several days ago after having been in communication with Heinze for some time. The complaint which led to Brennan's arrest was made by Heinze at the district attorney's office yesterday.

He said that an attempt was being made to extort money from him, and that Brennan had told him that he (Heinze) had violated the laws of Montana in some of his copper transactions there, and he charged that Brennan threatened to start a law suit after Heinze if he was not paid $40,000.

The first threats were made by letter, according to Heinze and getting no satisfaction in that way, Brennan came to New York and visited Heinze in his Broadway office. The detective was assigned to the case and had Heinze make an appointment with Brennan today. Before the appointed hour the detective concealed himself in a closet where he could see and hear all that was said. According to the police, after a conversation Heinze made out three demand notes for Brennan. One note was for $15,000, and two notes for $12,500 each. After these notes had been made out and passed over to the Butte man the detective followed him under arrest.

Although he had no bondsmen in court when bail was fixed at $5,000, Brennan said that he thought that he could furnish it without any trouble.

CAME TO NAUGHT.

Watchmaker Fields Goes Back on His Identification to Martin.

Portland, Or., May 8.—What the police believed was a piece of evidence in the Wolf case came to naught last night, when A. W. Fields, a watchmaker, who had it reported said he was certain that he had seen H. Martin in Wolf's establishment late in the afternoon of the murder, contradicted the report and stated that he would not swear that Martin and the individual he had seen were the same person.

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Cashier Allegheny National Bank Of Pittsburg Charged With Stealing $249,000.

EXPOSED BY BANK EXAMINER.

Financial Standing of Institution Not Affected—Peculations Have Been Going on for Years.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 7.—William Montgomery, cashier of the Allegheny National bank for over 20 years, was arrested late today on a charge of embezzling $249,000 of the bank's funds. He was arraigned tonight and held for the federal grand jury under a bond of $50,000, which was furnished.

The financial standing of the bank is in no wise affected by the defalcation, as it is in a position to bear the loss without embarrassment. The bank has a capital stock of $500,000, surplus $500,000, undivided profits of $129,000, bank building, cash on hand, etc., $367,000; due from other banks, $107,000, and deposits of $2,445,000.

The alleged defalcation was discovered and the complaint filed by National Bank Examiner William F. Folds. Soon after the close of banking hours the warrant was issued and the arrest followed.

According to Examiner Folds, the peculations have been going on for more than ten years and were covered up on the occasion of each visit of the examiners by means of cashier's check.

The recent defalcation for more than $1,000,000 by two employees of the Farmers' Deposit National bank is said to be indirectly responsible for the discovery in the Allegheny National. Since the exposure of the peculation in the Farmers', it is said, most of the banks of the city have been shifting clerks and one possibly has been shifted for the purpose of discovering irregularities, should any exist. Through such a shift suspicion was aroused in connection with the affairs of the Allegheny National.

The Allegheny National is one of the older and generally regarded as one of the stronger institutions of the city. It has more or less associated with the politics of western Pennsylvania and the directors' room was the scene of many important political conferences, particularly during the life of the late Senator Quay.

Mr. Montgomery has always been prominent in politics, and was a close associate of the late Senator Quay. He was also prominent socially.

Examiner Folds expressed the belief after making the charges that Montgomery had used the funds of the bank to assist friends who were in tight places financially.

DECOY LETTER OF LAPORTE MURDRESS

Waupaca, Wis., May 7.—The letter which Carl Petersen of Waupaca, Wis., received from Mrs. Belle Guinness, the alleged LaPorte murderess, has been translated from Norwegian into English, as follows:

"Dear Sir:—As I some time ago received from you a letter in answer to my advertisement in the Scandinavian, I will with pleasure answer the same.

"The reason I waited for some time is that there have been other answers to the same advertisement. As many as 50 have been received and it has been impossible to answer all. I have picked out the most respectable and I have decided that yours is such.

"First I will tell you that I am a Norwegian, and have been in this country for 20 years. I live in Indiana, about 50 miles from Chicago and one mile north of Laporte. I am sole owner of a nice home, pretty location.

"There are 75 acres of land, also all kinds of crops, improved land, apples, plums and currants. I am on a boulevard road and have a 12-room house practically new, a windmill and all modern improvements, situated in a beautiful suburb of Chicago, worth about $15,000.

"All of this is nearly paid for. It is in my own name. I am alone with three small children, from 5 to 11 years old. The smallest is a little boy. The two largest are girls, all frisky and healthy. I lost my husband by accident five years ago, and have since tried to get along as well as I could with what help I could hire. I am getting tired of this and I have found that it is not well to trust others with so much.

"It is too much for me to look after things, and things are not as I want them anyway. My husband's estate is to take a partner to whom I can trust everything, and as we have no acquaintance ourselves I have decided to apply to you. I have considered favorably must make a satisfactory deposit of cash or security. I think that is the best way for parties to keep away grafts, who have always looking for such opportunities, as I have had experience with them, as I can prove.

"Now, if you think that you are able to in some way put up $1,000 cash, we can talk matters over personally. If you can not, it is worth while to consider? I would not care for you as a hired man, as I am tired of that and need a little rest in my home and near my children. I will close for this time.

"With friendly regards,
"MRS. P. S. GUINNESS,
"Laporte, Ind."

Phinney could not swim and Olney, fearing the canvas boat would not hold up two, told his companion to cling to the boat, and struck out for the shore. Olney came to land he threw up his hands and sank. He was the son of H. C. Olney, formerly a newspaper publisher at Denver, Col.

HOUSE'S TRIBUTE TO SPEAKER CANNON

Washington, May 7.—A touching tribute was paid by the house of representatives today to Speaker Cannon upon the occasion of the seventy-second anniversary of his birth. The usual rollcall at the close of the day had proceeded for some time when it was interrupted by Champ Clark.

"Mr. Speaker," he inquired, "is not this the seventy-second anniversary of the birth of the speaker?"

The speaker seemed taken by surprise and modestly bowed that it was.

"Well," remarked Mr. Clark and applause, "I wish to say we all wish you many happy returns.

sense of objection I sincerely thank the gentleman from Missouri, my friend, personal friend, as I am his political opponent as I am his, for kind remembrance on this, his seventy-second anniversary of my birth. I sometimes wish I could forget it and everybody else could. (Here the house broke out into applause and laughter.) But after all it is some compensation for being 72 when friends recollect the birthday with kind words and thoughts."

TRAGIC SUICIDE OF FATHER AND DAUGHTER

Phoenix, Ariz., May 7.—A bloody and unusually tragic double suicide occurred last evening at the nursery of Frank Wagner, just outside of Phoenix. The two persons affected are Frank Wagner and his daughter, Maggie, aged 14 years. The details of the girl's motive for committing suicide are lacking, but as near as can be learned, she was chafing under parental restraint, just outside of Phoenix. Just before dark this evening the girl shot herself in the mouth with a revolver in the kitchen of her home. The father entered the room soon after and seeing his wounded daughter, ran to a neighbor's for help. The neighbor found that the girl was not dead and went for a doctor. During his absence, Wagner stated to those who had assembled that he was going to join his daughter, and picking up a shotgun walked to the front of the house, and after placing the muzzle of the gun in his mouth, fired, blowing off the entire top of his head. Wagner came here from Pittsburg many years ago.

THE HANNA MINE.

Union Pacific Coal Co. Preparing to Reopen It.

Rock Springs, Wyo., May 7.—Preparations are under way for the reopening of mine No. 1 of the Union Pacific Coal company, in which are some half a hundred bodies, victims of the two recent explosions of gas in the mine. Fire raging in the underground workings of the property has created much anxiety, rendering all efforts at reopening the mine futile, up to this time. The mine now is filling with water, extinguishing the fire, and it is believed the bodies can be recovered.

When the Bowels Become Sluggish with Age

As we grow old, the bowels become less active. It is so with all our muscles.

There comes a time when they must have regular help. Else there is constant clogging—chronic constipation.

Then Cascarets are important.

There is no other laxative which one can use regularly without rain to the digestion.

Salts, pills and drastic cathartics are irritating. Their regular use is impossible.

Cascarets alone give the needed help without injury.

It is a vital thing to keep the bowels right. One cannot be well without it. One free movement every day is essential.

Learn how much help is needed to accomplish that. Then take one Cascaret as often as necessary.

When one is twenty, Nature supplies the laxative, day by day, as needed.

When one is sixty, Nature fails to do that. Then she must have help—regular, gentle help. Not violent help at long intervals.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with C. C. on every tablet. The box is marked like this:
