

nearly twenty-five miles, and report their situation. At imminent peril and in an exhausted condition they reached Tillamook, boarded the steamer Hercules, and arrived here this evening. They report all provisions consumed except bread, and the last pound of fuel exhausted. There is a frozen ocean of ice all around, and as the ship thus beset is now drifting out to sea, there is danger of the whole crew being starved to death. A powerful sailing steamship will be at once dispatched to the rescue. Captain Cross of the steamer Hercules reports to the eastward of Notre Dame bay as far as the eye can reach, innumerable icebergs.

Gontz, formerly postmaster, and Nathan Tabor, merchant of Granby, were killed by George Hudson, who was himself badly wounded. Hudson is regarded as a desperado, and is suspected of horse thieving. The shooting was the result of an old grudge.

New York, 31.—The West Side Bank to-day resumed.

President Arthur had few callers this morning and leaves for Washington this afternoon.

The bank statement shows that they are $1,977,625 below the legal requirements.

CHICAGO, 31.—The weather is steadily growing warmer and the political atmosphere, apparently in sympathy, is becoming more heated. This morning witnessed the arrival of a large contingent of delegates, mainly from the Southern States, who came in independent detachments and representing irregularly all portions of the South. There were a large number of arrivals from Iowa and practically the entire delegation from that State is now in the city. Two Blaine delegates came in from the eighteenth Ohio district and they were accompanied by somewhat over 100 visitors. They marched to their hotel from the depot in a solid body. The event of the morning was the arrival of the California and Nevada delegates whose transit eastward has already been very widely heralded. They were met at the depot by a delegation of citizens and preceded by martial music marched to their quarters at the Palmer House. Ladies and gentlemen of the party alike taking part in the procession until their arrival in the hotel lobby, where dense crowds had collected. The delegation gave three cheers for the gentlemen from Maine and separated.

CHICAGO, 31.—The National Republican committee held a session beginning to-day, all the States and Territories being represented with the exception of Louisiana, Florida, South Carolina and Utah. No business was transacted beyond arranging for the distribution of tickets of admission to the convention and appointing I. M. Bean of Wisconsin, and James H. Stone of Michigan, reading clerks. Adjourned to 1 p.m.

DENVER, 31.—D. S. Hyman, wholesale liquor dealer, Gunnison, is attached. Liabilities estimated at $20,000; assets nominal.

Pittsburg, 31.—This afternoon the directors of the Pennsylvania Bank instituted criminal proceedings against President Riddle and Cashier Reiber, charging them with conspiracy to defraud the bank, and placed the warrants in the hands of detectives; Cashier Reiber was arrested at his home, McKeesport, and brought to this city to-night; Riddle, who was living at the Homoeopathic Hospital, was placed under arrest, but owing to his illness was allowed to remain in the hospital, under strict surveillance. Bail was fixed in the case of Reiber at $50,000; Riddle, $100,000. So far, they have been unable to procure bail.

John Barton, Esq., representing certain creditors and depositors in the bank, says he will file a bill in equity in behalf of his clients against the directors as soon as matters are adjusted somewhat by the assignee. He claims that the directors are individually liable.

The informations for conspiracy to defraud the bank include Prest. Riddle, Cashier Reiber, Thos. J. Watson and seven others whose names will not be made public till after their arrest. Bail has been fixed at $10,000 in each case. Reiber's bail was reduced to $3,000, and upon giving bonds in that sum he was released.

Washington, 31.—The following notice is posted upon the doors of the banking house of D. W. Middleton & Co., No. 142 F Street: "Owing to heavy and immediate demands, we have assigned to Geo. T. Green for the benefit of our creditors." The doors of the bank are not open, and a number of excited persons gathered to talk over the suspension. George T. Green, the book-keeper and assignee, says that D. W. Middleton retired from the firm a week ago, owing to ill health and disinclination to continue the struggle against what he thought the inevitable. The capital stock of the bank is $400,000. Green says that a statement of the condition of affairs will be made early next week. He cannot approximate the amount of the liabilities.

Its deposits amounted to $250,000, and stocks and securities belonging to customers about as much more, making the total liabilities about half a million. Among the depositors were many army and navy officers and newspaper correspondents. The heaviest creditor, Mrs. Hutchinson, widow of the late president of the Alaska Fur Seal Company, had about $100,000 in the bank.

CHICAGO, 31.—The Journal's Milwaukee special says: D. C. O. Howard, charged with robbing the bank of Monmouth, Illinois, of $150,000, was arrested in Waukesha to-day on a telegram from Monmouth to the Waukesha authorities. He confesses his identity, but is reticent regarding the crime.

The remaining indictment against McKeague for the murder of the aged Wilson couple at Winnetka, was nolle prosequi to-day, in view of his acquittal on a former indictment, the evidence being similar in both cases, and the prisoner was set free.

Memphis, 31.—Appeal Batesville, Miss.: A difficulty occurred on the streets this morning between H. W. Thaler, editor of the Batesville Blade, and Julius Porter, a young lawyer, which resulted in the killing of Porter. Thaler was arrested, but discharged on the preliminary trial, having acted in self-defence. The difficulty grew out of accusations made against Porter, which Thaler refused to retract.

DENVER, 31.—A cattle round up camp on Frenchman Creek, near the Nebraska and Colorado line, was destroyed by flood on Thursday. Eleven cowboys, belonging to Colorado and Nebraska outfits, were drowned. The flood was caused by a cloud-burst, which occurred at Small Flathead Cheyenne Indian Trail Canon. The water came with such force that it swept everything in its path; men, horses, wagons, camping outfits, all were carried down the stream with such force that few escaped. The names of the missing are Lon Wetherbee, J. Lindsay, R. Roddy, R. Fowler, P. Lynch, John Smith, L. Netherton, Wm. Ferguson, Wm. J. Pelton, and C. Hall. The bodies of the last four have been recovered.

Galveston, 31.—News Del Rio, Texas: The county jail of Kinney County, at this place, burned this evening; one of the prisoners, a Mexican half-breed, was roasted to death. The other prisoners were safely removed. Origin of the fire unknown, but believed incendiary.

CHICAGO, 31.—The National subcommittee resumed its session at 7.30 to-night with closed doors. Senator Cullom presented his credentials to act as proxy for Senator Logan, in view of the illness of Burton Cook, heretofore acting as proxy.

By unanimous vote it was decided to take up the case of the contested delegation from the State of Virginia, which embraces all the delegates in the State, including four delegates at large. Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island moved that the delegation headed by Senator Mahone be placed upon the rolls. Mr. Beattie of Montana offered an amendment, referring the contest to the committee on credentials of the National convention, without action. The amendment was lost on a vote by call of States, as follows: Ayes, California, Maine, Nebraska, New Jersey, West Virginia, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, total, 10. Noes, Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Wisconsin, Dakota, Utah, Washington Territory, District of Columbia; total 31. The original motion of Senator Aldrich was then carried by a similar vote.

The result of the vote seats the Mahone delegation in the National Convention, subject, however, to any action taken by the convention.

The heat of the presidential convention was very considerably intensified to-day, owing to the large influx of delegates and the presence of the outside forces, which are expected to play a prominent part in shaping events. About 400 delegates have arrived on the ground, and have been supplemented by an innumerable host of flunkers, who are at present the most active factors in the preliminary battling. It is conceded that no convention in the history of the party was composed of delegations more thoroughly unhampered in the way of pledges than the present one, all of which tends to lend sharp excitement to the early movements in the fight.

Earnest but good natured work was done during the day for the different candidates, but only in the way of throwing out skirmishers and preparing the lines for attack and defense. One hears very little of anyone save Arthur and Blaine; occasionally something is said and done for Logan, the third conspicuous candidate who is reported, but the delegates do not seem to attach much importance to his candidacy. In this respect they may be mistaken. There seems to be no doubt of a friendly alliance between Blaine and Logan.

The policy of those who do not wish to see either Blaine or Arthur nominated is to persuade unpledged and independents to adhere to their choice through the successive ballots. They even desire to keep Illinois voting for Logan. It is expected this course will compel a break in the ranks of Blaine and Arthur, and make it possible to nominate either Gresham, Lincoln, Sherman or Hawley. As between Blaine and Arthur, this class of delegates usually express a preference for the latter. This fact leads Arthur's friends to hope that the independents may be induced finally to come to his support.

Several local veteran organizations visited the hotel lobbies to-night singing campaign songs, with an evident desire to awaken enthusiasm on behalf of Senator Logan for President.

The arthur men are somewhat disturbed to-night over a report that the Arkansas delegation will go for Blaine. Prominent supporters of Arthur say there is a story afloat that Powell, Clayton and the Blaine managers have entered into some sort of an understanding.

Hamel Disston, one of the delegates at large from Philadelphia, has declared for Blaine. Arthur's strength in that delegation is estimated at 12.

St. Louis, 31.—An attempt was made this afternoon to get up a business men's meeting in the interest of Arthur for President and send a delegation to Chicago to advance his cause; but it failed, not more than half a dozen gentlemen being present, and they stating that they could not spare the time to go to Chicago.

Intercourse to-day with Nebraska and Kansas people develops the fact that Blaine's friends have overestimated his strength in these two States, and when the ballots are had there will be a pronounced division.

No one can fail to discover differences between the management of the conspicuous candidates. There is little system, but great enthusiasm in the Blaine ranks, while Arthur's followers are like a well-drilled army.

A small but influential meeting of supporters of Senator Edmunds was held at the Palmer House to-day, immediately upon the arrival of Geo. W. Curtis and Mr. Theodore Roosevelt from New York. Besides those two gentlemen, there were present at the conference Andrew D. White, Governor John D. Long, Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts; John T. Bilbert, of New York, and Horace White.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—The Chronicle's Visalia, Cal., special says: A cloud burst near here last night broke with such fury as to sweep away the house of Peter Stewart and all the inmates, consisting of himself, wife, mother, two children and R. Weasner, a sheep herder. The bodies of Stewart and his mother and one child, recovered to-day, were frightfully mangled, the clothes being torn to shreds. Weasner is injured beyond recovery. The house was dashed to atoms.

Galveston, 1.—The Galveston News Waco special says: Information is received from Shackelford County, that on Friday night last, a huge water spout fell covering several hundred acres long, doing serious damage. One ranchman lost 800 sheep out of a flock of 900. On the same day a water spout burst near Cisco, at the head of Battle Creek which caused the creek to overflow in a few minutes, covering the bottom lands, drowning cattle, and washing everything before it. Several farms are ruined. No lives lost.

CHICAGO, 2.—The situation this morning in the presidential canvass is very much simplified. All the delegations are now on the ground, including New York and Pennsylvania, whose coming had been looked forward to with some interest. Negotiations which were carried forward in the interest of the respective candidates yesterday make it clear that the adherents of the six candidates, namely: Arthur, Blaine, Edmunds, Sherman, Logan and Hawley, having made a fair measure of their strength deem that the present aspect of the fight warrants them in standing by their men.

The most ardent of those for Arthur and Blaine, do not now claim for them a majority of the convention. The highest figure mentioned for Blaine is 338, and the highest for Arthur about 325, but conservative advocates put each figure for both under 300. This is necessary in view of the stand taken by the Edmunds, Logan and Sherman men. The friends of the Vermont Senator are to-day in high feather over the possibility of his nomination, and contend that he has developed unexpected strength in all the Northern and Western States, and has even acquired some votes in Missouri. So strong are they in their faith, that a caucus of all his adherents was called this morning and is now in progress at the rooms of the Massachusetts delegation. It is attended by all the Vermont, nearly all the Massachusetts and New Jersey delegations and a portion of New York's, including Andrew D. Volite, Theodore Roosevelt, John J. Gilbert and Geo. W. Curtis, and portions of the delegations of Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan. The caucus numbers about 85, and the Edmunds people contend that they hold the balance of power and can summon 100 votes, which if their estimates are correct, and the Sherman and Logan men stand by their colors, the convention will unquestionably result in a dead-lock.

A caucus of the Edmunds adherents was held at the quarters of the Massachusetts delegation this morning. There were present between three and four hundred people, of whom one hundred and fifty were delegates. The latter were not willing to pledge themselves to the cause of Mr. Edmunds at the outset, but absolute pledges of ninety were obtained to vote for the Vermont candidate, and it was estimated that his strength in the early balloting would exceed one hundred.

Logan's forces have been instructed to remain by him and the Ohio men who are for Sherman numbering somewhat more than one half of the delegation, declare that all the overtures which have been made to them have been ignored and that they will certainly remain by him.

Why Dr. Price's Gream Baking Powder is superior to all others, is because the testimony in its favor is the strongest, most intelligent and most competent.
