The scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulty of obtaining them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine. Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a hair.

It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some good blood medicine like Scott's Blood and Liver Syrup, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.

EVENING NEWS.

Friday, January 23, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Workmen Wanted.—See notice of 100 men wanted, to lay iron on the Utah Southern Extension.

Carlees Concert.—Remember the Carlees Orchestral Concert, on Monday. You'll never regret going. Get your tickets early.

Vagrants.—Three vagrants were arrested yesterday, by the officers, and in the police court, this morning, were fined $30 each, which they will, of course, work out.

Writing and Book-keeping.—On Monday, the 26th inst., classes in penmanship and book-keeping will be commenced at the Deesert University, from 2 to 3.30 p.m., Mondays and Thursdays. The instructor is Mr. Wm. E. Jenkins, an accomplished young penman and an experienced book-keeper.

Comic Opera Coming.—On the 18th and 17th of February, the Gaiety Burlesque Company will play at the Salt Lake Theatre. This company has just closed a very successful engagement, of eleven weeks, at the Bush Street Theatre, San Francisco, and is now alternating, nightly, at the California Theatre, with Wilhelm, the violinist.

Musical Visitors.—We had a pleasant call, this morning, from Mr. W. W. Whitney, president of the Loring and Blake Organ Company, whose manufacturing office is at Worcester, Mass. The gentleman came from the east, and is seeking our city, under the guidance of Mr. David O. Calder, our local music merchant, previous to leaving for the west to-morrow.

Good for Davis!—The petition of the citizens of Davis County, asking that Antelope Island, in Great Salt Lake, and the waters intervening between it and the western boundary of that County, be annexed to Davis County, has been favorably reported upon and the enlargement will doubtless be made. Tourists from Davis County need then no longer spend their summer months in Europe.

Personal.—C. W. West, and J. H. Cook, of Filson Mining District made a brief call at our office yesterday, and report everything moving along in a lively manner.

Look out for him!—A short time since we cautioned the people of southern Utah against a man giving the name of Harris, hoping that our contemporaries in that region would have sufficient journalistic courtesy to republish the warning. This not being the case, we can only again notify the public there and elsewhere that Harris is a fraud, and we have and will have nothing to do with him. He is in fact, a complete impostor, of medium height, and is evidently consumptive. We learn that he has lately been victimizing the people in Beaver county, especially at Mineville. Look out for him!—Junction.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings on Friday, Jan. 23, 1880, all the Justices present and presiding: Elizabeth Handley respondent vs. Eric M. Cast, appellant, from Third District. An ex-parte motion, to dismiss the appeal of this cause because the transcript was not filed in the clerk's office of this court within the time required by law, was submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

Wells, Fargo & Co., respondents, vs. Samuel Weston, appellant, from Third District. A motion, in behalf of the respondent, that this court make a writ of habeas corpus in this cause, was argued by J. G. Sutherland in support thereof and by J. C. Boyle against the same, the latter, however, protesting that this court has no jurisdiction of this subject matter, and that objection of want of jurisdiction was not raised by such appearance and argument. The motion was submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

Paul Betts, assignee, appellant vs. M. Shaughnessy United States Marshal, respondent, from 3rd District; cause argued by R. K. Williams for appellant, and by E. D. Hoge for respondent, submitted and taken under advisement.

On motion of E. Baskin, Esq., it was ordered that the resolutions adopted by the Salt Lake bar on the death of Mr. Hemphill and published, be entered on the minutes of this court.

Court adjourned until Monday, the 26th inst., at 10 a.m.

Bishops' Meeting.—The meeting of the Bishops and Ward officers, last evening, was, as usual, well attended. After the customary preliminaries, Bishop Edward Hunter arose and delivered a brief and pointed address on the paying of tithing, showing the blessings that would accrue from the faithful observance of this commandment, as well as the disadvantages which would, in the end, result from robbing the Lord of his rightful share of the temporal increase of his people. One-tenth was what was required, and to freely offer this should be esteemed a privilege instead of a burden. He then reverted to the duties of the Bishops in Zion. He knew they worked hard, and got more blame, sometimes, than encouragement for so doing. But God would reward them eventually, for he always rewarded according to men's deeds. President Taylor once said: "If men were to be rewarded for work, the Bishops would get a pretty good reward." But work was what we were put here for, not play, and the Saints would yet see more of it. These were peaceable times compared to those that were close at hand. At one time it was only Missouri against us; then Missouri and Illinois; then those States and the Government; but now it was to be America and Europe arrayed against little Utah, and it would soon be the whole world in arms against the Church and Kingdom of God. But our hearts need not fall, for God was on our side, and would see us through triumphantly.

Counselor J. E. Taylor being invited to speak, made a few well chosen remarks in his usual forcible manner. He first alluded to the primary meetings to be held next Monday evening, and urged all good men and honest voters to attend them, as well as to be interested in the coming election. He then continued the subject of tithing, from Bishop Hunter's remarks. In early days it was the custom for the bishop to sit as a judge of what a man's tithing should be, now it was left more or less to the man himself. There was a complaint that many took advantage of this freedom to either pay no tithing, pay it irregularly, or not pay a fair tenth of their increase. He advised the bishops to seek out such men and kindly teach them that it was a duty to pay tithing, and that a blessing was either given or withheld, according to obedience or disobedience of the law. He was confident this course would reclaim many. A bishop knew who paid tithing and who did not and could not have that confidence in a person who failed to honestly bring his offerings, as with the one who was strict and faithful in meeting every requirement, and delinquents should be told of this, and urged in all kindness to reform.

Bishop L. W. Hardy observed that the bishops meetings were as well attended as any in the kingdom, and reminded those present that a faithful record was kept in the books, of all that transpired or was talked of in these assemblies, and posterity would yet read the things said and done by their forefathers in these very books. He spoke of the state of perfection we hoped to attain, and the necessity of advancing toward it continually. We were imperfect now, but we need not be discouraged. It took Enosh 300 years to make his people good enough to be translated, and we had had but half a century. Add to us 250 years and there would, no doubt, be a marked improvement. The speaker also touched upon the subject of tithing, as had been done by the preceding ones. The meeting adjourned for two weeks, at 6 o'clock p.m.

Accidentally Shot.—A young man, named William Jones, of Kayaville, was brought to the city yesterday afternoon, from Grass Mountain, about 70 miles west of Grantville, where he had been herding sheep. His right foot had been shot through the instep, and was bound in cloths. Inquiry elicited the fact that on Tuesday, while taking his gun out of his bedclothes, which were lying in a wagon, the muzzle of the piece fell upon his foot, and the gun being discharged in some unaccountable manner, he received the wound described. He did not seem to be in much pain, and covered quite freely of the accident. While our reporter was interviewing him, Dr. J. M. Benedict, who had been summoned, came up, and the patient was conveyed to the Sisters' Hospital.

COUNCIL.

Friday, January 23, 1880.

After the usual preliminaries, Councilor Oluf presented a report from the committee on unfinished business, stating that they had examined the bills left over from the last session and did not find such bills necessarily a part of the business of the Legislature, and recommended that if such bills were presented at all, they should be introduced as original bills.

On motion of Councilor Thurber, the report was accepted.

Councilor Thurber, chairman of the committee on printing, reported back (C. F. No. 1.) "A bill in relation to Guardian and Ward," the same having been printed according to the instructions of the Council.

Councilor E. Snow presented the following report, which was read.

Committee Rooms, January 23, 1880.

Mr. President—Your committee on counties, to whom was referred the petition of Wm. E. Smith and forty other residents of Davis County, also C. F. No. 10, "A bill for an act extending the boundaries of Davis," beg leave to report that they have considered said petition and bill, and have made a slight amendment to the bill. We recommend the granting of the petition and the passage of the bill as amended.
