

FRAGMENTS.

The weather is quite like Indian summer.

MAT WALLING was fined $5 this morning for drunkenness.

JOHN A. GROESBECK, Esq., returned from Montana last evening.

If the fruit crop is properly dried this year, it may be made a source of considerable profit.

The quarantine physician reports that not a yellow flag is out in the city at the present time.

The immigrants are expected to arrive at the D. & R. G. depot at about half past five o'clock this afternoon.

JAMES BUCKLEY, for being drunk, profane and disorderly, was fined $12 in the police court yesterday afternoon.

MAYOR HUNTER, of American Fork, was among the passengers who came up on last evening's Utah Central train.

A GAME of base ball will be played between the "Rats" and "Leaves" on Thursday afternoon, on Washington Square.

L. A. SAUNDERS, assistant claim agent of the U. P., has resigned his position, and left for Detroit this morning.

The Cassia County (Idaho) Times is making a lively campaign against republic carpet baggers in our sister Territory.

The stone of which the culvert on the south side of the Temple Block is being constructed, was mostly cut last winter, by Temple hands.

The play "Saints and Sinners," to be performed by the Madison Square Company, contains no reference whatever to the "Mormons."

MANAGER PALMER, of the Madison Square Company, was quite disappointed on learning that the circus had engaged all the large bill boards in town.

The Banker's Monthly, published by Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago, and devoted to finance and commerce is an able journal of its class, abounding in matter of interest and value to business men.

A BUZZ of keys was found hanging on a fence this morning and left at the City Hall for the owner. The ring on which the keys are placed bears the inscription, "An open door will tempt a saint."

Last night the police raided a Chinese gambling den on Fifth Street and arrested Ling and Quon Dan Lang. The parties were up in the police court to-day, the room being filled with a horde of chattering Mongolians. L. R. Rogers conducted the prosecution, and A. H. Nelson, Esq., appeared for the defense. A number of witnesses were examined, and when our reporter left, a heated discussion was going on between the attorneys.—Ogden Herald.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of a call from two distinguished visitors from Boston—Dr. Marie E. Zagrowska and Miss Julia A. Sprague. They were accompanied to our office by Dr. Romanus B. Pratt. These ladies are close, intelligent observers, and express themselves delighted with the appearance of the city and its surroundings, being specially attracted by the industrial phase of the community.

On Thursday evening a gentleman named Mason had a narrow escape at the U. & N. crossing at Harrisville. He was driving across the track in a covered wagon and had not observed the approaching train, which was behind schedule time. The engine struck the rear end of his wagon and sent the spokes of the wheels in all directions. Fortunately no further damage was done. No blame is attached to the engineer.—Ogden Herald.

The Ogden Herald of Saturday last says: "Two boys about 12 years of age got on the break-beam of a passenger car from Salt Lake this morning. They rode in safety in their perilous position under the car until Farmington was reached, when they were discovered by the conductor and made to vacate. They will probably have a long walk to Salt Lake, where they should be met, if not at the switch, at least with it."

LOCAL NEWS.

The Emigrants.—The emigrants are expected at the D. & R. G. W. depot at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, the train having been delayed one hour since leaving Pueblo.

To Primary Associations.—It is urgently desired that the secretaries of the Primary Associations of Salt Lake Stake send reports before Friday, Sept. 10th, to Miss Bessie D. Pratt, State Secretary, No. 77 Peach Street, Salt Lake City. Conference will be held September 18th, in the Assembly Hall.

Mrs. ELLEN C. CLAWSON, President.

Immigrants Released.—From a private dispatch received in this city to-day, we learn that forty-six of the fifty-one immigrants detained in New York were released on habeas corpus by Judge Andrews of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and that they started for Utah last evening. The dispatch further states that the five immigrants still detained will probably be released soon.

Y. L. M. I. A. Quarterly Conference.—The Quarterly Conference of the Y. L. M. I. A. will be held in the 17th Ward Assembly Hall, Friday, September 17th, 1886, commencing at 10 a. m. Those Secretaries who have not sent in their reports will please bring the same with them as it is desired to have a full report from this Stake at the general fall conference. The presidents and officers are requested to bring the members of their respective associations with them.

A Leading House.—Undoubtedly the house of Henry Dinwoodey in this city ranks as a leading one in the lines it carries, as compared with the wealthiest establishments of the kind in any portion of the great Rocky Mountain region. Purchasers of the finest furniture can obtain just what they want, as can the farmer or mechanic who desires something cheap and common. The stock of furniture always kept on hand is simply enormous. Wall paper is one of the leading specialties of the house, and one of the finest and largest lines of carpets in this Territory, constitutes another department.

The house of Henry Dinwoodey is a great variety of accessories to the comfort and beauty of the home, may also be purchased here. Persons who intend purchasing any article named in Mr. Dinwoodey's large display advertisement elsewhere in this issue, should call and get their prices and look at his goods.

More "Habeas Corpus" Proceedings Necessary.—To-day Brothers Hyrum Goff, W. J. Jenkins and Jas. O. Poulsen were brought in from the penitentiary and taken before Commissioner McKay. The two latter were subjected to a rigid examination, but being possessed of a very small amount of property, which was invested in real estate, they were discharged on taking the required oath. They have each served six months' imprisonment.

In the case of Hyrum Goff, the applicant owned a homestead worth $300. Before his trial he owned an interest in Goff & Co.'s store at West Jordan. This he sold for $1,500, giving $1,000 to his first wife and $500 to the second, for their support. The applicant had ten children under 10 years of age to provide for. During his absence in the penitentiary Mrs. Goff had been employed portion of the time in the store. Applicant could not say what portion of the means had been spent by his family for their sustenance while he was away.

Mr. Varian opposed the motion to discharge, claiming that the law was not intended to cover these cases. The applicant should show that the money was so disposed of that he would reap no benefit therefrom before he could be allowed to take the oath.

Mr. Moyle replied that it was evident in this case that there had been an attempt to evade the law. The applicant had a large family of small children and disposed of the only means he had in the only way he could handle it for the support of his family. He was entitled to exemptions to the amount of $3,750, and his whole property, including the money, was but $2,100, a small sum for the sustenance of so large a family. In the interest of justice and humanity the applicant ought to be released.

The Commissioner refused to discharge Mr. Goff, remarking, "I think he can pay it. I think he ought to, anyhow."

Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted before Judge Zane, and the applicant was sent back to the penitentiary this afternoon.

Is He a "Mormon"?—In the Commissioner's court, the other day, the fellow Hawthorne, accused of bigamy, claimed to be a member of the Church. An officer of the court, who appeared to discredit the statement, remarked: "He is no Mormon." The latter was in a sense right, but was technically in error. Some time last spring Hawthorne attended meetings and Sunday school in one of the wards of this city, and made much profession of faith in the doctrines of the Church, of penitence and religious devotion. Finally he requested baptism at the hands of one of the brethren of the 5th Ward. He was accordingly baptized, that being the extent of his connection with the Church. He is not the first hypocrite and deceiver who has worked his way into the Church for some ulterior purpose. But the community of Latter-day Saints has no use for characters of his stripe, for in point of fact, if not technically, he is no "Mormon." Any religious body is liable to be imposed upon, and when men profess repentance and desire baptism, the rule is to give them an opportunity to prove themselves. When their perfidy is discovered they are severed from all connection with the Church.

A Sunday Disturbance.—On Sunday morning last it was arranged between Charles Pierce and his wife and daughter, who live in this city, that the latter should attend Sunday School, and that the former should prepare dinner. On the return home of the two ladies from Sunday School, however, they discovered that the husband and father had made no preparation for the mid-day meal, but that instead, he was absent from home. Worse than this, from $80 to $90 in cash, belonging to Mrs. Pierce, was missing. After a time Mr. Pierce returned home drunk, and his wife charged him with having taken the money. Angry words followed, when he struck his wife. She thereupon knocked him down. He arose and came towards her again, when she again knocked him down. At this juncture the daughter took part in the trouble, exerting an influence in favor of her mother. Mr. Pierce was arrested, and was to-day fined $12.50 by Justice Pyper for creating a disturbance. He had spent over $80 of his wife's money.

Sabbath School Singing.—At the Sunday School Union meeting last evening the following offer made by Brother Evan Stephens was accepted: He would train thirty children under 10 years of age, from each school in the city, to sing in parts a number of pieces selected by the various leaders of singing and by himself, provided that the singers, music and place of meeting be furnished him. The Presidency of the Stake has tendered the use of the Assembly Hall for the latter, and the choir leaders and superintendents of the various schools are to have the children selected, and books ready by next Monday, when over six hundred of them will begin their labor under their conductor.

The result must be a great improvement in the singing in our Sabbath schools as the thirty new singers become able to gain their present choirs in harmony. No reading or other special instructions will be given at these meetings; other classes will soon be formed for these purposes, to which a small admission fee will be charged. The above is to be done "without money and without price," solely for the improvement of our Sabbath school singing.

Killed.—The following dispatch, received by a gentleman in this city, refers to a sad occurrence which took place at Davis, Millard County, yesterday morning:

"John Webber has been accidentally killed. His body is very much bruised. Will bury him to-day under his father's willies to see him."

No particulars of the accident have been received. The deceased was 14 years of age, and was in the employ of George Busby, near Deseret, Millard County. His father resides in the 11th Ward of this city, his mother being dead. Mr. Webber was not in town when the painful news arrived, and his son was probably buried to-day.

R. R. Changes Probable.—Considerable interest is manifested at present in prospective changes in the management of the D. & R. G. W. The calling of Messrs. W. H. Bancroft and J. H. Bennett to Denver is believed to have considerable significance in relation to the proposed purchase of the Western division by the D. & R. G. and the consolidation of the line under one management. In connection with this the anticipated arrival in this city of S. K. Hooper, general freight and passenger agent of the D. & R. G., and other prominent officials, indicate that an important move will soon be made.

Richard Winzen, a young man of Tompstone, Arizona, was amusing himself last week by hammering a rifle cartridge. The amusement did not last long, however, for the cartridge exploded, inflicting a probably fatal wound in Winzen's abdomen.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—An industrial school for Indian boys is shortly to be opened at Tucson, Arizona.

—A few days ago H. S. Woolley, of Paris, Idaho, was severely injured by his horse falling on him.

—A house, haystacks and barn were burned near Paris, Bear Lake County, a few days ago. The fire was incendiary.

—Two horse thieves, Jackson and Holbrook, escaped from the Territorial penitentiary at Boise, Idaho, on Sept. 3d.

—The Idaho republicans meet in convention on September 22d, to place in nomination a candidate for Delegate to Congress.

—At Tacon, Idaho, recently, H. C. Griffith and Antoine Lurette quarreled and shot each other. Both died within a few minutes.

—Mr. J. Hall, of Park City, was out shooting, when his gun, which was exploded, blowing off the thumb and first two fingers of his right hand.

—Arrangements have been made to have those who have attended the Brigham Young College, at Logan, this year, instructed in the art of cutting and fitting clothing.

—On September 9th, the democrats will hold a convention at Bellevue, Idaho, to nominate a candidate for Delegate to Congress, to succeed Hon. John Halley, the present Delegate.

—A few weeks ago a man named H. D. Lasher, suddenly disappeared from Laramie, Wyoming. His family was left in a destitute and suffering condition. A letter sent by him to a friend stated that he was discouraged with the many trials of his life, and he had decided to end his existence. This sad end to the finding of a suit of clothes, belonging to him on the banks of the Big Laramie river, convinced the people that he had committed suicide. A few days ago, however, an old acquaintance met Lasher at Saratoga Springs, Wyoming, and reported him for having deserted his family. Lasher denied his identity at first, and declared that his name was H. D. Hall. He left the place shortly after for parts unknown.

Work on the Temple.—The walls of the Temple in this city have now reached a height at which further progress is slow, on account of the great nicety and precision required in cutting the stone, and the stone cutters are not able to keep up with the set. A large force of the former are at work on a force of about 80 men is now employed on the Temple block. While the setters are waiting for stone they are putting in the culvert on the south side of the block.

A Great Town for Fruit.—A correspondent says that Pleasant Grove seems to be the Eden of Utah for fruit. Wm. Wadley has an orchard covering some 25 acres and a vineyard nestled close under the mountain, sloping toward the sun, with a contiguous spring for irrigation, and his grapes yield alone amounts to from ten to fifteen tons this year. Most of these are equal, if they do not surpass, the California grapes. He ships them to fruit dealers in Salt Lake.

Representative Dramatic Company.—Expectations run high in regard to Manager A. M. Palmer's company of players from the Madison Square Theatre, New York, who make their appearance for three nights, at the Salt Lake Theatre, on Monday, September 13th. It is now four years since Palmer has visited us or sent this way any organization of his own. At that time his headquarters were the Union Square Theatre, which he managed with great success for eight years. After he retired from this house he remained out of the theatrical business for a year. The wisecracks shook their heads when it was announced that he was to control the fortunes of the Madison Square and declared he was not the man to direct its policy, as it was established as the home of American plays. Mr. Palmer upset all these predictions by giving a successful English comedy—the "Private Secretary"—which ran to a great profit, and the theatre had known for four years. Since that time everything Manager Palmer has brought out at the "home of the American drama" has been of foreign birth. Some were only moderately successful, but the majority were failures. The company is a very good one, and the play is a very good one. Mr. Palmer brings here intact the company that has contributed to these successes the past two years. A list of the people is submitted:

Herbert Kelcey, J. H. Stoddard, W. J. LeMoine, Frederick Robinson, Louis F. Masson, Wm. Davids, E. M. Holland, Walden Ramsey, C. P. Flockton, Harry Holliday, W. W. Presbury, Caroline Hill, Maud Harrison, Annie Russell, Marie Burroughs, Mrs. E. J. Phillips, May Brooklyn, May Hosson, Marie Greenwood, Virginia Buchanan, Herbert Milward, J. W. Batten.

This splendidly equipped company will arrive direct from San Francisco, and during the engagement will present the following three plays: "Saints and Sinners," "Jim, the Penman," and "Our Society." Each of these pieces is new to Salt Lake. "Saints and Sinners," in which the company opens, is a character drama of the English school, from the pen of H. A. Jones, one of the authors of "Silver King."

A Chinaman in New Chinatown Cal., has a monster bear which he rides as he would a horse. He puts a saddle and bridle on the bear and wears a pair of heavy spurs which he digs into its side. When necessary to induce more rapid speed, the bear is of the black species and is a regular jumper. The Chinaman caught it when it was a very small cub; he carried it to his cabin, cared for it tenderly, and when it grew large enough he trained it to draw a small wagon and to perform numerous tricks. The bear has always been well treated and runs about as it pleases, but always returns to its master when called, just as an intelligent dog would. When the bear became strong the Chinaman began riding him, and never had any trouble. He now rides him whenever he goes hunting and fishing, and finds the brute a better companion than a dog, for he will go into water and bring out game, or will carry to his owner ducks or quails he has killed.

Information wanted as to whereabouts of Ebenezer Chaffey, who lived here about 1870. When did he leave Salt Lake and where did he go to? Please address A. R. GRAMHAM, Wisner, Cramham Co., Nebraska.

Have just received a car load of the Morrison Steel, Hand and Sulky Plows, also Water Sleds, Hand and Sulky Plows, also South Bend Chilled Plows, Harrows, Hay Rakes.

We have also secured the agency for the celebrated Vaseline Saddle and Wagon and Carriage Grease. This condensed and strictly Pure Petroleum Jelly possesses all the Lubricating, Softening, Preservative and healing properties of the other well known and tested grades, differing from them only in melting point as it is many degrees higher.

For Carriage and Light Wagon Axles the high grade point grease guarantees clean hubs in any climate and prevents waste from dripping by the action of heat and will not travel like Castor or other liquid oils, thus preventing injury to the underside of the axle and from dust or grit.

For all kinds of Agricultural Implements it is the most practical and satisfactory lubricant known.

For Leather and Enamelled goods, it is softening and preservative, restoring the effects of water, and traveling salts when applied upon a clean and dry surface.

For Sores, Burns, Scalds and Chapped Hands it is cooling and curative.

As a Hoof Ointment it has a widely established reputation.

For tick in sheep it is a perfect remedy destroying the grub without injuring the fleece.

Put up in 1 lb. tins only, each bearing our trade mark and signature of the inventor. Manufactured only by the Globe Lubricating Co., N. Y., and sold by the Studebaker Bros. Manufacturing Co., wholesale agents, Salt Lake City, Utah.
