M'MILLAN BILL PASSES OVER VETO

House of Representatives Votes on Measure—33 Ayes, 12 Noes.

GLASSMANN AND HIS CENSORS

Speaker Indulges in Some Correspondence in Regard to that Famous Joint Session.

The McMillan bill was passed over the Governor's veto by the House at a late hour this afternoon by a vote of 33 to 12.

The special order for the day was the further consideration of the McMillan bill, and the test by vote to see whether or no the bill could be passed over the Governor's veto. The order was set for 3 o'clock and considerable routine business was gotten through with before that time.

An invitation was received in the form of a concurrent resolution of the Colorado Legislature to visit Denver as soon as convenient. Mr. Van Horn proposed, sarcastically, that while about it the junksters should make arrangements for visiting New York, London, Paris and Berlin.

In order to quiet his censors and answer the accusations with regard to his arrogating to himself the management of affairs in the joint session with the Idaho Legislature at Boise recently Mr. Glassmann has had the following correspondence with the lieutenant governor of that State:

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 15, 1901.

To Thomas F. Terrill, Lieutenant Governor.

Carpenter writes me that I usurped the office of president of the joint assembly of Utah and Idaho, please write to me stating the grounds on which you selected and when I was notified. Send letter I can make public.

WILLIAM GLASSMANN, Speaker, House Representatives, Boise City, Ida., Feb. 15th, 1901.

Hon. Wm. Glassmann, Speaker, House Representatives, Utah Legislature, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir—Your favor of this date at hand, and replying to same, I take pleasure in stating that you did nothing whatever to induce your appointment and selection as president of the joint assembly of the Utah and Idaho Legislatures. I am perfectly sure that you did not know you were to be selected as the presiding officer of that assembly, until within less than five minutes before it was made.

In the interest of justice and fair play I take pleasure in making this statement of fact, and hope it may settle the matter, and put to rest the unjust criticisms to which you have been subjected.

Very truly, THOS. F. TERRILL.

Under the heading of reports of standing committees the committee on judiciary recommended the passage or rejection of four bills. House bill No. 55 by Harmon, relating to the duties of county attorneys recommended passing.

House bill No. 16, by Glassmann, regarding the formation of an intermountain state exhibition society. Referred to the attorney-general.

House bill No. 120, by Phillips, relating to property exempt from taxation, recommended not passed.

House bill No. 127, by Holmgren, to repeal the laws regarding district attorneys. Rejected.

House bill No. 161, by Maughan, regarding trespass. Rejected.

House bill No. 85, by Glassmann, to amend the statutes relating to the State board of equalization. Rejected.

House bill No. 25, by Holmgren, regarding executions. Rejected.

House bill No. 134, by Cutler, relating to mileage of jurors to justice's courts; withdrawn by request.

Senate bill No. 19, by Barnes, limiting the liabilities of banking corporations. Passed.

House bill No. 50, by Smith, regarding compensation of attorneys to defend pauper criminals. Passed.

House bill No. 82, by Smith, to amend the statutes relating to executions. Passed.

House bill No. 13, by D. H. Morris, to amend the statutes regarding the sale and disposal of right of way on State lands. Passed.

House bill No. 123, by D. H. Morris, to authorize the publishing of a digest of the decisions in the first 25 volumes of Utah reports. Passed.

power to defeat a local assessment. House bill No. 144, by Smith, by request, to prohibit soliciting of passengers for hacks, omnibuses, carriages or other vehicles on railroad trains and amend the Statutes concerning the equalization of special assessments in cities.

ELECTION CASE. Senate Committee Takes No Action in Barnes Matter Today.

The Senate committee on elections held a session this morning to consider the Barnes contested election case. As usual the committee met behind closed doors. It was learned after the close of the session, however, that no action has yet been taken in the matter, and the entire session was taken up going over evidence. Chairman Murdock stated that it was hoped that the committee could complete its report at the next sitting, which will take place at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

GRADE OF VICE ADMIRAL. Senator Hale Introduces a Bill for the Revival of this Position.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Senator Hale, chairman of the Senate committee on naval affairs, today introduced a bill for the revival of the grade of vice admiral in the navy and authorizing the President to appoint two rear admirals to that office. The bill is in the interest of Admirals Sampson and Schley and is intended to aid in solving the problem of their promotion as a promotion of other officers who served with them in the Spanish war.

Senator Hale also introduced the following joint resolution of thanks to Admiral Sampson in accordance with the President's recent recommendation.

"That in accordance with the provisions of section 1508 of the revised statutes, the thanks of the Congress and of the American people are hereby tendered to Rear Admiral William T. Sampson, U. S. N., commander-in-chief of the United States naval force on the North Atlantic station during the late war with Spain, and to the officers and men under his command, for highly distinguished conduct in conflict with the enemy and in carrying on the blockade and naval operations on the Cuban coast resulting in the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago de Cuba, July 3, 1898.

"Section 2.—That the President of the United States be requested to cause this resolution to be promulgated and to communicate the same to Rear Admiral Sampson and to the officers and men of his late command."

Both measures were prepared at the navy department.

ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION BILL

The House Passes it, but Not Until a Very Lively Fight Over it.

It Gives $5,000,000—Maddox of Georgia Opposes it, While Mr. Tawney of Minnesota Champions it.

Washington, Feb. 18.—This was suspended day in the House. The local committee from St. Louis who are here pushing the St. Louis exposition bill, was in the gallery in anticipation of action upon the bill in the course of the day.

The bill, introduced by the W. C. T. U., who are interested in having the bill amended so as to provide for the closing of the exposition on Sunday and to prohibit the sale of liquors on the grounds also were in the gallery to read the bill immediately after the reading of the journal.

Mr. (Minn.), chairman of the special committee on the Louisiana purchase expedition, moved the passage under suspension of the rules of the bill.

A second was demanded and ordered. This action allowed twenty minutes' debate on a side. Before the debate began Mr. Lattimer (S. C.) asked unanimously for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Maddox (Ga.) opposed the bill. He said he did not imagine his opposition would avail.

"I want to talk about other contracts just as binding," replied Mr. Maddox, who proceeded to read "that manner in which Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, was fighting honest claims."

Moreover, he said, there were to be no public buildings authorized by this Congress on account of the growth of expenditures. This $5,000,000 which Congress would give to a private enterprise by this bill, he would build duty necessary public buildings. He was anxious, he said, to see where the "watch dog of the treasury," Mr. Cannon, stood on the bill.

Mr. Sims (Tenn.) who followed Mr. Maddox, taunted Mr. Cannon with fighting honest claims of a few hundred dollars and then remaining quiet when such a bill as the pending one was before him.

Mr. Cannon said he had consistently and persistently opposed such legislation. He agreed that exposition matters had run wild. But this bill was now upon a footing where it could not be disregarded. He had opposed the paragraph in the sundry civil bill at the last session. It had been placed upon the bill by Senator Cockrell, a Democrat, in the Senate. He had opposed it with voice and vote, but it had become a law. St. Louis had complied with its part of the contract and the government was obligated to comply also. He should therefore vote for the pending bill.

Mr. Moody (Massachusetts), criticized the character of the bill. He predicted that its passage, authorizing the exposition and creating a commission would involve the government in much additional expense to the tune of millions of dollars. He thought a simple appropriation should be placed in the sundry civil bill, so that the government would be absolved from further responsibility. The bill was then placed upon its passage and a roll call being demanded from all sides.

The St. Louis exposition bill passed the House by a vote of 191 to 41. The result was received with applause.

THE FINE WAS FIFTEEN DOLLARS

Prof. J. H. Paul Was Found Guilty Before Justice Kroeger.

APPEAL WILL BE TAKEN.

Defendant Not Permitted to Put in Certain Evidence—Main Questions Not Touched.

Today at 2 p. m. Prof. J. H. Paul, president of the Latter-day Saints' College appeared before Justice of the Peace Kroeger to receive sentence upon the charge on which he was found guilty last Saturday evening. The offense was the neglect or refusal of the defendant to exclude from the college all persons who had not been vaccinated, this being the requirement of an order issued last December by the city board of health.

The professor was found guilty as being on a peace warrant sworn out by the Mooser Cold Storage company, and cited to appear at 1:30 today.

Mrs. Nation made the following statement today:

"Headquarters of the Home Defenders, Feb. 18.—We desire that we may have the aid and names of all men and women of any color or clime to be of use. Our motive shall be Nehemiah IV, 14: 'And I looked and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not afraid of them; remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.'"

Which is down with this need our hell—non resistance—the paralysis Satan is infusing into the deluded sons and daughters of God in order that he may sow the tares while they slumber. We have proven that the command of Jesus is the only safe way. Non-resistance and he will flee. Non-resistance and he is bold and defiant.

His army of the Home Defenders, declares its intent in its name. We are the fathers and mothers who as God's host, have come to the help of the Lord against the mighty and we are here to withstand all the fiery darts of the wicked with the shield of faith. We demand defense, and will have it. No whisky, no tobacco or profanity shall defile our hearthstones. No man or woman who uses any of these defilements shall have or need ask to serve us. We will be your brother to help you to cleanse yourself from the filthiness of the flesh, but you need our assistance. We cannot use you in our business until you clean up. We are going to place before the people men and women who must be examples of virtue and strength who shall serve us to reward good and punish evil. Happy is that people whose God is the Lord, yes, happy is that people in such a manner best suited to the other party. That means that the liquor does not have to be carefully poured out. The New Hampshire statute says that public nuisances may be abated by the acts of individuals.

At this point, Mrs. Nation left her seat and opened a window. The cold wind swept in and blew the papers about the court room.

"Close that window and open it from the top," said Judge McCabe to Marshal Ross.

Mrs. Nation took her seat and Ross closed the lower sash and opened the top sash. Mrs. Nation rushed back and threw up the lower sash again.

"Take your seat," commanded the judge. "The marshal will take care of the window."

"He didn't do it," snapped Mrs. Nation.

"You sit down and tend to your business," Mr. Felt said to Mrs. Nation. "The marshal has closed the window."

Mrs. Nation was surprised. She is in the habit of having her own way and this was rather a shock to her. She looked at Ross too surprised to say a word.

MRS. NATION PUTS FORTH AN ADDRESS

Quotes from Nehemiah IV, 14—Kansas Shall be Free—Second Regiment, Home Defenders, Formed.

Topeka, Kansas, Feb. 18.—Everything is quiet here this morning after the excitement of yesterday. Last night there were rumors afloat of more raids to take place during the night and early this morning, but after a conference with her comrades last night Mrs. Nation decided to remain quiet for the present. The Home Defenders are keeping a close watch on the joints and drug stores and should they find any evidence of the prohibitory law being violated, they will continue their attacks.

Mrs. Nation was arrested this morning on a peace warrant sworn out by the Mooser Cold Storage company, and cited to appear at 1:30 today.

W. C. T. U. MASS MEETING. Lawrence, Kansas, Feb. 18.—The W. C. T. U. mass meeting of last night of a number of women to the police court. Last night of liquor secured in a raid last summer was given the women to smash. The women first went to the office of a justice of the peace and broke a couple of bottles of whisky as evidence and then destroyed the rest of the many authorities. They were followed by a crowd of several hundred people but disbanded without attempting a raid.

MRS. NATION IN COURT. Topeka, Kansas, Feb. 18.—The case against Mrs. Nation brought by the proprietors of the Senate saloon whose place she wrecked about ten days ago, was resumed in the city court today. The court was crowded.

W. I. Jamison appeared for the State to prosecute the case, and J. M. Dumenil for Mrs. Nation. The table between the two attorneys was piled high with law books and Mrs. Nation's attorney had many legal books, many quotations from the Bible, Mrs. Nation sat behind her attorney and spent most of her time writing upon a small tablet. The argument was commenced by the defense and Attorney Dumenil cited many authorities.

In speaking of the first case as a parallel to Mrs. Nation's smashing, he said:

"It is found in the Bible in the temple. We find by Matthew 23:17 entered the temple and abolished that nuisance."

He cited the New Hampshire law which says that the private party abating a nuisance does not have to do it in a manner best suited to the other party. That means that the liquor does not have to be carefully poured out. The New Hampshire statute says that public nuisances may be abated by the acts of individuals.
