The convention then got into another wrangle over the selection of the usual committee of conference with the Demscrats and Silver Republicans, the far western counties, where the middle-ofthe-road movement is strong, insisting on the election of the committee by congressional districts instead of leaving the appointments to the chair. The motion finally prevailed. After the an-

THE SILVER REPUBLICANS.

The Silver Republican convention was called to order by George H. Hib-ner, of Lincoln. After appointing a committee of conference, a recess was taken. After recess the first note of discord among the Silver Republicans came when Delegate Ransom offered a. set of resolutions approving the re-ported withdrawal of Charles A.
