LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

[SPECIAL TO DESKETS NEWS.]

LOCUST STATISTICS.—The following telegram, dated the 4th, was received yesterday, by Deseret Telegraph line:

Smithfield, grasshoppers pretty thick, destroying a great deal. Logan, none here now; Brigham, locusts passing over the city by myriads, some few alighting; Farmington, none here; American Fork, very few here; Springville, very few here, doing no damage; Fountain Green, none here; Fairview, nearly all gone; Gunnison, nearly all left here.

BALL AT THE THEATRE.—To-morrow evening, at the Theatre, there will be a grand social ball, to which tickets of invitation are being issued to-day. As the Theatre is fixed up, specially for dancing and is the best place for that kind of amusement in the city or Territory, many will be sure to avail themselves of the opportunity thus afforded of indulging in the "light fantastic" exercise.

There is one thing in connection with the tickets of invitation to these parties to which we desire to direct the attention of those to who are favored with them. Each of the tickets issued for the ball on the fourth as well as for that to-morrow evening, contains a polite request that those who do not wish to accept of the invitation will return it to John C. Graham, Esq., at the Theatre, that it may be known who will or will not attend. The trouble involved in this is very trifling, but quite a number of those who did not attend the party on Monday evening failed to make their intention known. Besides being an inexcusable act of discourtesy and rudeness, such conduct prevents invitations being issued to others who would probably be glad of the privilege of attending. All who receive invitations for the ball to-morrow evening and do not wish to accept it will, on a moment's reflection, at once see the propriety of promptly making a polite intimation to that effect in the proper quarter, that others may have the opportunity of availing themselves of the pleasurable opportunity.

DROWNED.—Brother Peter Barton, of Kaysville, in a letter, dated the 5th inst., says: "I am sorry to have to record the death of Hyrum Egbert, a boy 10 years old, son of Joseph Egbert, one of the pioneers. The boy, with others, went to bathe on Sunday afternoon, and getting out of his depth was drowned before assistance could reach him. The funeral took place yesterday, at 5 p.m., and was attended by a large number of citizens."

SOUTHERN UTAH.—In conversation with Bro. Jos. W. Young, who is up from "our Dixie," we learn that the people are prosperous in that part of the Territory. Locusts have not made their appearance there. The wheat crop is good; cotton and other field crops middling. Fruit crop very good. On the Muddy wheat was all harvested some four weeks past, and probably thrashing is about over by this time. The prospects on the Muddy are very flattering. The new towns of St. Joseph and Overton are growing finely, many good houses having been built in each, this Spring.

A drain ditch, two and three-quarters miles long, eight feet wide and three feet deep, has been completed this season, and the design is to continue this drain two miles farther up. When fully completed about fifteen hundred acres of choice land will be brought into cultivation, which is now a useless swamp. This swamp land it is believed will make the best cotton field in Southern Utah.

Bro. Joseph speaks in high terms of praise of the Saints who are on the Muddy, and says that no better, or more determined people can be found. The faint hearted and weak-kneed have about all run away from the mission; and they who are left, there, having persistently continued the work they were set to do, in the face of so many discouraging circumstances, are worthy to be classed among the good and great.

The Spring and Summer crops on the Santa Clara will be light in consequence of scarcity of water; but there will be sufficient to save the fruit crop, and, with late Summer rains, a tolerable crop of corn may be raised.

The people of Washington and Kane counties have established a Co-operative stock herd, which bids fair to be a success. Bro. Young visited the Kane country just previous to starting up. He represents this as a fine stock-raising country; that is wherever water can be found. But the scarcity of water in that region will not allow of any extensive farming operations unless the Lord shall see fit to send the former and latter rains upon it. The few brethren at Knab, Pipe Spring and Pahvan are doing a great work in raising large quantities of vegetables and some grain, which will be found very convenient and valuable, should it be necessary to garrison those places this winter to protect the stock from the Navajos.

Matters on the Meadow Valley Wash are a little mixed. The Latter-day Saints in those valleys are doing well, living their religion as well, perhaps, as the best of us; but a great many who are called "Mormons" flocked to the mines about Meadow Valley last winter, and much of their conduct is anything but good. Many young men from the settlements south of this city have been allured from their homes by the phantom of hidden treasure, and once from under the restraints of home and parents, they become debauched and run into all kinds of vices.

AT PROVO.—Early yesterday morning President Young accompanied by his son, Elder Joseph A. Young, left this city for a brief visit to Provo. They are expected to return to this city this evening.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE.—The Millennial Star of the 14th ult., contains the following: "Elder Daniel McAllister left New York, May 23, on the steamship Sumaria, and arrived at Liverpool June 7, on a mission to this country. "Sister Elizabeth Hill left this port on the steamship Denmark, June 6, on her return to Ogden."

FIRE AT SPRINGVILLE.—On the 28th ult. the blacksmith and wagon shop and a barn near by, with all they contained, consisting of tools and work finished and unfinished, belonging to Samuel Carter & Son in Springville, was totally destroyed by fire. Loss $2,000.

Died.

In Glasgow, Dec. 14, Angus Johnston, aged 66 years.—Mill. Star, June 14.

At Moreau City, Sanpete County, on the 17th ult., of a fever, George, son of Lars N. and Perla Larsson, aged 29 days.
