100 VOLUMES

OF THE

STANDARD DICTIONARY!

This rare work of nearly 2,400 pages, each volume weighing 17% pounds, beautifully bound in embossed leather, Issued by Funk and Wagnalls of London and New York, is now on sale at the Descret News office. One hundred volumes have just been received. This is the work in the compilation of which Dr. James E. Telmage was engaged as one of the 200 editors. Its thoroughness is well illustrated by its treatment of the single word "Quorum," as follows:

"Quorum:" 1. Such a number of persons of any deliberative or corporate body as is necessary for the legal transaction of business: unless otherwise ordered, a majority. 2. (Eng.) Certain designated justices of the peace commissioned as JUSTICES OF THE QUORUM, without the pressure of some one of whom out the presence of some one of whom the others could not act. 3. Mor. Ch. A council or organized body of the priesthood; as, an Elders' quorum; the quorum of the First Presidency. 4. Necessary constituents. (L., of whom, gen. pl. of "qui" (who,) from the Latin words 'quorum unum—A. B. esse velu-nus' (of whem we desire A. B. to be one) forming part of ancient commis-sions, as of justices.

This rare dictionary is offered at $12 per copy. A limited number can be had for Church pay, and our schools and colleges are asked to correspond with us at once should they desire a copy, THE DESERET NEWS.

MARSHALL IS IDENTIFIED.

He is Undoubtedly the Slayer of Mrs. Joseph Creech.

Husband of the Dead Woman Sees Marshall and Says He is the Murderer-Accused Denies It.

No surprise whatever is expressed by the police authorities now that the identification of Edgar Marshall alias Ed. Allison, as the murderer of Mrs. Joseph Creech is made complete. The officers feel highly elated that Marshall was captured here before he was able to do much crooked work. Despite his vehement assertions that he has lived in Denver for twelve years he has lived in Denver for twelve years and was never in Butte in his life, such a chain of evidence has been linked against Marshall that he will undoubtedly be convicted. First he was identified positively by Joe. Creech, husband of the dead woman; he was also identified by Joe Kinsley, who is well acquainted with him, and who was an eye witness to the murder. He is also identified by a score of persons as the man who was confined in jail for robbing a saloon and who afterwards made his saloon and who afterwards made his escape. It is thought that Marshail is a dope fiend, and some of the Butte officials believe he was full of it when The tale Mar shot Mrs. Creech. shall tells about his long residence in Denver and never being in Butte will, officers here think, ruin his chances of defense.

BUTTE TO SALT LAKE.

There will be quite a pilgrimage of Butte Masons to Salt Lake this week, where the warmest thing in the shape of a Mystic Shrine meeting is to be held. The city authorities had persuaded the Masons not to hold this meeting until a new fire house had been completed that is now in running order and the authorities feel competent to cope with any ordinary con-flagration that the presence of so many warm people at one time might occa-sion. Two years ago when the Monana Shriners held a session in Butte a number of visiting brothers came up n Salt Lake to take part and as ist in conveying the novices across the vide expanse of descret sand. There is large class of some 48 or 50 to be ini-lated at the Salt Lake meeting on duesday and the court promises one of the greatest of the kind ever id in the west. Special rates have en obtained by the Shriners of Butte or the occasion. There will be a meet-ng in the Masonic hall in this city at o'clock this a noon to perfect arrangements for the advance upon Salt Lake.-Butte Miner

EX-MAYOR CLARK PORTRAIT Remarkable Lifedike Piece of Work by Will Clawson.

If the work done by Utah artists continue in line with the high examples of art furnished by some of them, the State will soon become famous for eminent names from the list of its native sons who are devoting themselves to high expression in art. The latest notable example is furnished in a portrait of Mayor Clark, which has just been painted by Will Clawson.

Some time ago the City Council made an appropriation of $250 for a portrait of the then acting Mayor to be added to the gallery of pertraits of city digtaries which adorns the council cham-In the city and county building. The er was placed with Will Clawson, the on-in-law of Mayor Clark, one of Itah's most talented artists, and the portrait has recently arrived and is on exhibition in the Midgely's art estab-ishment on First South street.

Mr. Clawson has won many laurels halfs chosen work, but if nothing else ad ever been done by his hand, the trait just finished would establish als place as an artist amongst the first

Nothing more absolutely lifelike could be achieved in the line of portrait painting than the picture of ex-Mayor Clark, The flesh tint, individuality of expression and features are most remarkably wrought—not a detail of resemblance being missed or marred.

The picture is life size and those who know the original will be almost startled at the striking likeness. The pic-ture alone must stand as a monumen to Mr. Clawson's talent, furnishes suf-licient suggestion in itself that Utah people need not turn to outside artists for work in that line, when home ge-nius is able to furnish such notable ex-amples of excellence as are expressed in Mr. Clawson's recent work,

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE

Elder McKenzie Speaks on the Power of Testimony.

WAS A LOGICAL DISCOURSE.

The Resurrection is a Realty-Christ Appeared to His Apostles, Whose Testimony Cannot be Gainsaid.

The services in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were presided over by President Angus M. Cannon. They were opened by the choir sing ing the hymn commencing, "Zior stands with hills surrounded."

Elder William McLaughlin offered the opening prayer. Continued by the choir singing the hymn commencing with the words, 'Author of faith's eternal word." Elder Joseph A. Williams, recently returned from a mission to the South ern States, was the first speaker. He said he enjoyed himself well while la-boring in the south. He had the privilege of baptizing fifty souls and assisting in the erection of severa churches. We should seek for the faith this is enjoyed by the Elders abroad and seek earnestly for the faith that was once delivered to the Saints, and we will enjoy the same blessings that were bestowed upon the ancient Saints. God is a God of truth, and can therefore be relied upon. The speaker quoted a num-ber of passages from the Bible showing that God is a being of truth.

When the Savior sent His Apostles out to preach He said He had not brought peace into the world, but a sword and members of the same household would be opposed to one an-other. The speaker had found that statement verified in his labors in the Southern States. He had seen men and women forsaken by their relatives, those who had loved them, because they had yielded to their honest convictions. The same results follow the preaching of the Gospel today as followed its preaching anciently; the same preaching of the Gospel today as followed its preaching anciently; the same blessings and powers of the Gospel are with those who keep the commandments of God. Elder Williams closed by testifying that he knew that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God, and those who yield obedience to the principles that God revealed through him, shall mark a confession.

that God revealed through him, shall merit an exaltation.

John Robinson sang the excellent solo, "Grant us Thy Peace." He was in splendid voice, and was listened to with the closest attention.

Elder David McKenzie was the succeeding speaker. He said that if those who objected to their relatives associating with the Latter-day Saints.

clating with the Latter-day Saints knew this people as well as he they would rejoice to have their sons and daughters connect themselves with the Latter-day Saints. He had associated with this people for over forty years and he knew their sterling worth and integrity, and many had laid down their lives in attestation of their love of truth. The very simplest of all principles are those of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, so that the commonest understanding can ppreciate them. They can all conform the laws of God and save themselves rom destruction. Salvation depends history of Noah and of Joseph who was sold into Egypt. Everything must was sold into Egypt. Everything and have a foundation, a commencement of What, then, was the commencement of Christianity? Why, that Jesus arose from the dead, Not is crucifixion, for that was the death of Christianity. What was the circumstance then that put new faith and life into those who had believed in the Savior? It was the had believed in the Savior? It was the knowledge that He had risen from the dead. They began to understand then what their mission was, they then realized that He was the Great Divine, they had not realized it before. Not they had not realized it before. Not only was this testimony to the Twelve, but we have the testimony of Paul that Jesus had revealed Himself to 500 people. The people had begun to doubt the reality of the resurrection, thinking that it was but a renewal of spiritual life. Paul had boldly affirmed that there were over 200 people living in his day, who had seen the risen Lord. The Twelve Apostles had all seen Him, and had heard His voice. Some of the Apostles objected to Paul being one of them because he had not associated with the Savior, but Paul vanguished them by saying, "Have not I clated with the Savior, but Paul van-quished them by saving, "Have not I seen the risen Redeemer?"

"And as He arose from the dead, so we also should walk in newness of life?" We should be born again, con-tinued the speaker, of the water and the spirit and with the blessings of the Gospel we will inherit the haired of Gospel we will inherit the hatred of mankind. What was there in the assertion of the innocent boy Josep Smith, that there were at least tw personages in the Godhead, to turn the anger of the whole world against him? Men said that he was either an im poster or he was the victim of an hal lucination. The hallucination ide will not hear examination for a mo ment. Joseph Smith subsequently saw an angel, and received records from the angel, there was no hallucination about hat. And if he knew he was an im-bester what did he gain by his testi-cony? The ancient Apostles, if they knew they were imposters what did they gain by their testimonies? The speaker stated that there were three essentials in a testimony, first number second competency and thirdly credi-bility. There must be two or more to testify to the same thing, but none of these elements were considered in de-crying the testimony of the Apostles of old. And in this day, there are over eight witnesses to the Book of Mormon, and many other testimonies in regard to other things, so that they are beyond the possibility of a hallucina-tion. Their testimonies are either true If false what had those men gain by bearing faise testimonies' ne speaker closed by bearing a most mpressive testimony to the truth of the Gospel. The choir sang the anthem "Unfold

HE STOLE FLORIDA WATER. Bald-Headed Burglar's Daring Act-Robbed a Drug Store.

Last Saturday night Woodbine's drugstore on the corner of Third East and Second South streets was visited by burglars. The intruders' entrance was made by smashing a pane of glass.

It may not be wise to publish the fact but the officers of the law have a clue which may eventually lead to the ap-prehension of the culprii. The thief did a foolish thing, as shown by the articles stolen, and he also advertised the fact that he is not a very desperate man. He purisined about one dozen bottles of hair restorer and Florida water. He is hald headed and has a girl who loves Florida water.
