THE BATHING RESORTS.

Garfield Beach Popular Pastime Opens.

Success attended the opening of Garfield Beach yesterday and the number of excursionists, although there were no special attractions, was large. The resort is still a great favorite of family parties, as only to seen by real estate of attendance every season. The preparations for today's crowd were complete and the thousands who have been going all day have been accommodated.

Gleen's orchestra, which has for years performed the same service, is furnishing excellent music at the resort, while the bathing is splendid.

PLEASURE LOVES.

The gallant man-o'-war Pinafore was given at Saltair last night. The steamboat broke the record for number not meetings and at one hour the decided over, the guests performed a highland fling also dropping over only to take it. The highland gave a lively illustration of the old English sailor song:

[illegible]

The opera performance was given on the pavilion; otherwise some of the shorter girls might have found it necessary to hang out the sign: "Wet paint."

The Sprinkling Sinecure.

Some of the city councilmen—probably a majority of them—have their fighting clothes on. The game they are after is Street Superviser Malloy and Street Sprinkler Griffin. Both are well paid and the work of neither is satisfactory. It is alleged

OPINIONS OF OUR LEADING MEN.

President Angus M. Cannon says of the Keeley treatment.

"I thought it impossible for one man to do what Dr. Keeley has done scientifically to counteracting the terrible evils of intemperance. His treatment strengthens men physically, mentally and morally. Under these circumstances they are given an opportunity to become men amongst men. Is there a man who loves his fellow beings that can fail to say, I vote Dr. Keeley as engaged in a most praiseworthy work? I trust his good work may continue."

FROM CACHE COUNTY.

Conditions of the Crops Found Almost Everywhere.

A gentleman of this city, who has lately traveled through portions of Cache county, reaches home in the evening, and reports that crop prospects in that section are very good indeed. Two or three hailstorms have occurred recently in the south end of the valley, which did damage to grain fields in spots. These storms were very victimized. One field of grain would be seriously damaged, while adjoining one escaped with little or no injury.

Many instances among the many of the people, and the prevailing prosperity is said to be due to [illegible] the year of the farmers. Even with the existing low prices of farm products, general prosperity prevails. A few days more our informant says, with the most favorable prospect for a fine crop of corn north of Paradise when with West. "You see that what is all needed now," said the driver, "the gentlemen addressed as road supervisor and said that the wheat heads were ready to cut in the field, and apparently asserting the fact. This was about 3:30 p. m. "When I passed this field at 8 o'clock the next morning," said the driver, "the wheat heads were in the bins, and the machine was ready to start."

The latter's prophecies as to crops and weather in cache and Box Elder may be taken as proof of the wonderful fertility with which these portions of the favored land of Cache county.

Eastern Rates Demoralized.

A big demoralization of railroad rates in the east is the result of a misunderstanding between the Union Pacific and Rio Grande Western people. A ticket may be bought between Denver, Cheyenne, Pueblo or Colorado Springs for $10, and no amount of the persuasive representations of those from Denver could, Omaha, Council Bluffs, Kansas City or St. Joseph or Sioux City for $22 and St. Louis for $25.50.

Slandering Utah People.

[illegible] CITY, Story Co., Iowa, June 22, 1896.

To the Editor:

I [illegible] a few lines from me would not be amiss at this time, for the last three months I have been [illegible] in Boone county, Iowa, among a class of hard working people. We commenced our labors among them by distributing tracts and having meetings.

We held six meetings in the neighborhood among non-members of the Church, before regular Sunday meetings with a small branch of the Church at Dallas in the surrounding. The Elders have labored here some time and it seemed to us that they had gathered out about all of the good seed from among the tares. About the time we came to this conclusion we were invited out to meeting by one of our Josephite brethren to hear one of their preachers. We accepted the invitation, knowing all the time that he had been sent for to counteract our meetings, as we had held several meetings in their district and enlightened and had conversed with them whenever we had an opportunity. The man they sent for was one of their brightest lights—"still" to some—he has been to the field as a secret preacher sixteen years, as I was credibly informed. He held a couple of meetings and spoke on the eight [illegible] and gave the people finally, as I may to allowed the use of his expression—all designed to get them to a good dance. He then gave out [illegible]
