can do so by addressing a letter to this gity. And what of Martin Harris? He has been dead but a short time, and there are thousands of living wit-nesses in Utah to day, of which your, correspondent is one, who have heard him bear record of the diving authenticity of the Book of Mormon, and that the testimony that he bore that he had seen the plates from which the Book was transisted was true, as also his de-claration, that an angel of God laid them before his eyes, and that be had been commended of God to bear secord of the fact. But it may be argued that Martin Harris was again received into the Church in nople the more gently roars the British lion. To-day nobody is for war, except Distant and the Daily Telegroph. Up to midnight, despite all the reports, there is no intelligence whatever as to the cha-ractor of the Russian demands or uate forces for its defence. The again received into the Church in his declining years, and this last testimony was given after he was so adplited. If that argument has any force, we will take his testimo-ny given a quarter of a century ago, when he was an oulcast to the "Mormos" Church, and when it
