

DORANDO BEATS HAYES WITH EASE

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Crowd of $10,000 Persons Witnesses Another Marathon Race.

HE WINS BY HALF A MILE.

Indian Leads From the Start and is Never In Danger—Finishes Half Mile in Lead.

New York, March 15.—Before 16,000 spectators, a large majority of whom were from his countrymen, Dorando Pietri tonight defeated John Hayes in the rubber match for Marathon supremacy. The race was at the regulation distance, 26 miles, 27 yards, and was run over a 16-lap circuit in Madison Square Garden. Pietri won by half a mile in 2:06:58.

From the starter's gun to the end of the race the Indian lead the American, spurred on by the cheers and plaudits of his emotional countrymen.

In the seventeenth mile Dorando started a heart-breaking sprint which Hayes was unable to follow, and when half a mile had been run the foreigner had gained a lap.

Again in the eighteenth mile, after he had taken a breathing spell, the Italian again cut out a pace Hayes was unable to follow, and again gained a lap.

Then, forward to the finish, Dorando simply lunged behind Hayes, winning the race by two laps in 2:06:58.

Hayes won the pace but two minutes after Pietri had sent them away at 2:00 o'clock, Dorando went to the fore and was leading by a couple of feet at the end of the first mile. Official time—2:06.

The runners passed the second mile mark in 30:41, which is six seconds better than the time made by them on Thanksgiving evening. The time at the end of the third mile was 1:00, and at the finish of the fourth mile 22 minutes flat.

Both Dorando and Hayes were running easy at the fifth mile, and what betting there was was on the side of Hayes, trained to the finish at the fifteen-mile mark in 2:06:57.

DORANDO LEADS.

Dorando led at the end of the sixth mile, and in the final mile the seventh Pietri sprinted and took the lead.

There was a terrific burst of cheering when Dorando led Hayes by a couple of yards past the 10-mile mark in 56:46.

Then, in the fourteenth mile, a mile and a half forward to the finish, Hayes made a sprint which appeared to be a tryout of the Italian's reserve power.

Several times the runners changed position, and Dorando held the lead at the finish of the fifteenth mile, his time being 1:27:05.

Dorando, after finishing the sixteenth mile in 1:29:20, sprinted away and amid terrific cheering lapped Hayes inside of a full mile.

Dorando's time for 17 miles, 1:30:22:5, was the fastest for the distance ever run in America.

During the running of the eighteenth mile Dorando gained another lap and then settled in behind Hayes, whom he followed step by step with dogged persistence.

The nineteenth mile was passed in 1:30:57. The former record for this distrance, made in the Shrub-Longboat race, was 1:31:20.

On this stage there was little doubt as to the result, as Dorando simply jogged on behind Hayes and lapped away from the London Marathon winner, defeating him by half a mile in 2:06:58.

KNOCKOUT PUNCHES THAT ARE REAL.

(By) John L. Sullivan.

I know a lot about "knockout punches."

I once one, delivered a few, and have been punched out myself many a time.

So when anybody talks about knockout punches I take an interest in the conversation. When they begin to talk about knockout punches I join in.

We hear a lot now-a-days about the man with the punch—the fellow that puts it over everybody else—the business man with the punch—the man who can put you up in the air and knock you down.

But the most important knockout punches I take an interest in the conversation.

When the Italian Pietri won the race, he had a knockout punch which was very annoying and distressing.

A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I received a bottle from the F. J. Hill Drug Co. They set up to their representations in my case and in a short time I was rid of every symptom of the trouble. Whenever I feel any symptom of a return I appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give me relief.
