REBELLIUS INDIANS ARRESTED.

No Water and Hollow Wood Assured the Conspiracy.

RAPID CITY, S. D., March 30.—No Water, the leader of the refractory band at Pine Ridge, and Hollow Wood, one of his chiefs, were brought here from the agency this morning. No Water was found at Chief's camp, and was taken to the agency on a charge of conspiracy growing out of the shooting of two Sioux men and refusing to answer them to the authorities. Hollow Wood is the only one of the band on the policeman from No Water's camp. As the latter is the head and front of the band, his arrest is of great importance. Strong efforts will be made to hold him on the charge preferred. No Water was not arrested, and is still in a very critical condition from wounds and cannot be moved in the present condition.

OMINOUS AT TINTIC.

A Quintette of Assassins Beat Two Miners.

MOIST DEMONSTRATION BY WOMEN.

Deep Creek Miners and the Railway.—One and Bullion.

U. S. Marshal Henderson has been withdrawing his deputies one by one from Tintic, under the impression that everything would proceed quietly, and that if there were any indications of a disturbance that he would be able to handle the emergency.

It was believed that the members of the Miners' Union were sincere in their declared intention not to commit any act that would cause disorder. With a reduction in the force of deputy marshals at Tintic, however, some reports which indicate that trouble may yet arise unless the officers exercise extreme vigilance.
