

WALKER'S KILLING AROUSES SUSPICION

Mass of Documentary Evidence That He Always Carried With Him Is Missing.

SIX SHOTS ENTERED HIS BODY

Vanderwiele, Who Shot Him, and Mason, Superintendent of the Hesperus, Charged With Murder.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Joseph Vanderwiele, who shot and killed United States Secret Service Agent Joseph A. Walker at Durango, Colo., yesterday, and William Mason, superintendent of the Hesperus coal mine where the shooting occurred, were charged with murder jointly at Durango today on information sworn to by E. J. Brennan, also a federal agent.

A post mortem examination of Walker's body conducted by Coroner L. L. Lafferty today disclosed that six shots had entered the body, one penetrating the left wrist, two entering the neck, one of them severing the jugular vein, and three others entering the left side of Walker's chest. The body of Walker, the brother of the officers that it was impossible for him to have been firing at Mason and Vanderwiele when the latter shot him, as is maintained, for in order to do so he must have been facing the two men and would have received the discharge from Vanderwiele's gun in the face.

A post mortem examination of the case today by the discovery that a number of maps, plates and diagrams of the Durango coal field, as well as statements of persons and Walker's own memoranda concerning the results of his 10 months' work gathering evidence in that country to be used in the land fraud case, were missing. Walker is known to have carried this mass of documentary matter on his person at all times, it is said, and with his death it has entirely disappeared. It is admitted that the government was considerably handicapped and perhaps utterly defeated by this loss and the hint is thrown out that this may have been the real reason for the constant shadowing of Walker for several weeks past. Government agents were aware that Walker had been under almost constant surveillance since the report of the grand jury made several weeks ago indicating nearly two dozen men prominent in business circles of southwestern Colorado.

ATTY.-GEN. YOUNG FILES HIS ANSWER.

St. Paul, Nov. 4.—Atty.-Gen. Young today filed his answer in the suit brought in the United States circuit court to test the validity of the merchandise rates established by the railroad and warehouse commission and the 2-cent passenger rate and the commodity rate laws passed by the legislature last winter. The question of the jurisdiction of the court in these cases is involved in the habeas corpus proceedings now pending in the United States supreme court as a result of Mr. Young's violation of the injunction issued in these cases.

The answer admits that a large part of the company's business, in each case, is the transportation of interstate commerce, but denies that there is any necessary confusion or intermingling of the state and interstate business transacted by the company. It alleges that the amount and the cost and the character of such are comparable to those ascertained for many years past as a matter of common practice among railroads.

The answer then denies the jurisdiction of the court in the case and alleges that the complainant "seeks to restrain and enjoin the performance by a defendant, as attorney-general of the state of Minnesota, of his discretionary official duties and powers, and that the above entitled cause is in truth and in fact a suit against the state of Minnesota, and is contrary to the provision of the Constitution of the United States of America."

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY.
Los Angeles, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Cecile Fleming, young daughter of a prominent local business man, who a few weeks ago married George Best, an actor, after eloping with him to San Francisco, where he was subsequently arrested on a bigamy charge, today sued for an annulment of the marriage. Best is accused of having two other wives, Mrs. Anna Best, whom he is said to have married in Salt Lake Dec. 21, 1905, and another whom he married in Elgin, May 25, 1906. Best is under bonds to answer to the superior court.

MANHATTAN OPERA HOUSE OPENS NOTABLE SEASON.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Manhattan Opera House began its second season tonight and incidentally inaugurated one of the most of the musical seasons in the annals of New York. "La Gioconda" was the opera in which Mr. Hammerstein had chosen to reintroduce Mme. Nordica, who had not sung in New York except on the concert stage in two years, and to enable the Italian tenor Giovanni Zenatello to make his first bow to an American audience. These two principals, surrounded by librettos scarcely less notable, with Camponi to guide the great orchestra and a chorus of unusual excellence, gave a fitting setting to the performance.

Aside from the distinctly social character of the first night of the operatic season, with all its spectacular features such as only a New York "first night" can furnish, the performance was notable for the instantaneous success of two artists new to American audiences, Zenatello, the tenor, and Mme. Gertrude, the soprano. The new tenor, of whom so much has been said in praise abroad, quite came up to the high expectations of the audience. From the moment he made his entrance—a particularly striking one—he had the sympathy of the audience, and he kept it and later secured the ovation given him for his brilliant singing of the second act.

Of course there were flowers for all, and for Mme. Nordica in particular there were scores of these reminders from friends.

Conductor Campanini's triumph was marked as that of the singers. Time and again he was brought upon the stage to acknowledge the persistent applause. Enthusiasm, in fact, was the dominant feature of the performance. For Manhattan audiences are largely of the music lover and enthusiast, and they are not easily disappointed. Zenatello, though slightly nervous during the first act, rose to his work in the second and displayed a voice of marvelous strength and purity. His favor with the audience grew as the performance progressed and at the close of the last act he was repeatedly called out to acknowledge the applause.

HELEN MALONEY AND FATHER RECONCILED.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The North American tomorrow morning will say: Helen Maloney, daughter of Martin Maloney, the wealthy financier of this city, and wife of Herbert Osborne, who eloped with Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman, on Oct. 4, has had a reconciliation with her father and is either in America or on her way here.

Mr. Maloney is said to still be in Europe, although he may return to his home here at any time. Mrs. Maloney is in a sanitarium in this city and the condition of her health is such that she has been denied to her closest friends. These facts were learned from an in-imate friend of the young woman, who further declared that Herbert Osborne renounced his religion and became a Roman Catholic when he married Helen Maloney, and this marriage has been recognized by the Maloney family, although it took place two years ago and they knew nothing of it until after the Clarkson affair. The reconciliation of Mrs. Osborne and her father took place some time before Samuel Clarkson returned to London and took bachelor apartments in that city.

PURITY CONGRESS.

Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 4.—That girls are being stolen from American homes and sent to Panama for immoral purposes was the statement made at the national purity congress here today by Rose Johnson, a missionary who has spent several years in Colon, where she established a boarding house for American boys. Miss Johnson told of a 12-year-old girl she had attempted to rescue in Colon, who told her she had been enslaved from one hundred and twenty-fifth street, New York, by a strange woman. Miss Johnson said she was attacked in her efforts to get the girl out of a den, and later received word that the girl had been beaten to death. Miss Johnson has also done rescue work in Alexandria, and she stated that she rescued one girl who had been shipped as a white slave from Toronto to Chicago, then to New York,

HELENA BREWERY BURNED.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 4.—A fire late tonight, which for a time threatened the destruction of the Capital brewery, one of the largest establishments of its kind in the northwest, and other substantial buildings, destroyed the coal warehouse and ice house of the brewery. The loss, which is small, is fully covered by insurance. The buildings were situated at the foot of Mount Helena, at the head of Main street, and the flames swept over the mountain side, burning the dry bushes and grass, and made one of the most picturesque fires that has ever been witnessed in Helena. The report that the brewery and other buildings were burning caused great excitement. At 11:30 o'clock the fire was under control.

HENRY HUNTINGTON ESCAPES.

Versailles, Nov. 4.—Henry Huntington escaped today from the asylum where he was confined, by climbing over a wall, but after a fierce struggle with the keepers, who caught him before he got away, he was returned to confinement. Huntington is the young American who last July shot and wounded his two brothers and two sisters at the bedside of his dying father in this city. A week ago he was pronounced by medical experts to be totally irresponsible. It now develops that he has acute mania. It took four men today to hold him down and put him in a straight-jacket.

JOHN M. STEPHENS FINED

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—Two fines of $250 each were imposed today in the federal court on John M. Stephens, recently elected prosecuting attorney of Dent county, Mo., and prominent politician, there, for taking fraudulent affidavits regarding government homestead lands in Reynolds county, Mo.

The affidavits were made before Stephens by the prosecuting attorneys and were made before him as a notary public. In a statement to the United States District Judge Dyer he said that he had not charged the profits from the fraud and had no knowledge that the statements were untrue, and that he had been through lack of caution. He was once sergeant-at-arms of the state senate.

YOUNG MAN HAS NEW THEORY

Human Life Seems Centered in Stomach. All Else is Secondary.

The immense success which has followed L. T. Cooper during the past year with his new preparation has exceeded anything of the kind ever before witnessed in most of the leading cities where the young man has introduced the medicine. Cooper has a novel theory. He believes that the human stomach is directly responsible for most disease. To quote his own words from an interview upon his arrival in an eastern city: "The average man or woman cannot be sick if the stomach is working properly. To be sure, there are diseases of a virulent nature, such as cancer, tuberculosis, diabetes, etc., which are organic, and are not traceable to the stomach, but even fevers can, in nine cases out of ten, be traced to something taken into the stomach. All of this half-sick, nervous exhaustion that is now so common, is caused by the stomachic conditions, and it is because my remedy will and does regulate the stomach that I am meeting with such success."

"To sum the matter up—a sound digestive apparatus that is doing its full duty, getting every particle of vitality out of all food by transferring it to the bowels in a perfectly digested state—this alone all else brings health." Mr. A. C. Brock, chef of the Brock Restaurant, Market District, Boston, Mass., who is a staunch believer in Mr. Cooper's theory and medicine, has this to say: "I had chronic indigestion for over three years. I suffered terribly, and lost about thirty pounds. I was a physical wreck when I started this Cooper medicine, a month or so ago. Today I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am no longer nervous, my food does not distress me in the least, and I have a splendid appetite. I am gaining flesh very rapidly—in fact, at the rate of a pound a day. I would not believe any medicine on earth could have done for me what this has done. It is a remarkable preparation, and Mr. Cooper deserves all his success."

We recommend the Cooper preparation, getting ready to order from F. J. Hill Drug Co., 80 West Second St., St.

The Careful Physician

A doctor recently said—

"I know that if I could keep Coffee from most of my patients the remedies would be more effective."

That's because Coffee contains a drug—Caffeine—which interferes with the success of other drugs the doctor may be giving the patient. Many persons do not realize they are taking a drug into their systems when they drink Coffee or Tea, but such is the fact.

Some of the effects of the Coffee drug are: Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Insomnia, Sour Stomach, Loss of Natural Appetite, Cold Hands and Feet, Indigestion, Bowel Troubles, etc., etc.

Common sense would suggest the disuse of Coffee when such symptoms show themselves, before the disease becomes permanent. It is well to heed the doctor's advice when he says—

"Cut Out Coffee if it disagrees"

It's an easy and pleasant task when the further suggestion is observed—

"And Use Postum"

Good Money to Be Picked Up At Gooding

OME place in southern Idaho there will be built a great city. The location of this city will be determined by the opportunities offered. Gooding has the opportunities in greater abundance than any other locality and if there is anything in signs, and there is, GOODING will be that town. GOODING is located in Lincoln county, Idaho, 16 miles west of Shoshone, the county seat. Big and Little Wood rivers both flow by the town. It has an altitude of 3,600 feet. Besides its natural advantages it is backed by a company of the strongest and most substantial men in Idaho, among them being Governor F. R. Gooding, D. C. McWatters, general manager of the North side Twin Falls company, and Fentress Hill, personal representative of the Kuhn Brothers, the financial backers of the North Side Twin Falls company and also the Great Shoshone Falls Power company.

Irrigation is building up a new empire in the Snake river valley. It is the greatest body of irrigated land in the United States. GOODING is the only town in this empire which is located on the main line of the Oregon Short Line railway. South of the townsites lies the lands of the North Side Twin Falls project with its 130,000 acres, the South Side Twin Falls project with its 240,000 acres of irrigated lands and to the south of this lies the Salmon River and Cedar Creek projects with a combined acreage of another 260,000. GOODING is in the center of the 70,000 acres to be reclaimed by the Big Wood River Irrigation company and north of GOODING lies the great Camas Prairie with its more than 150,000 acres of agricultural lands, surrounded by one of the best grazing countries in the west.

Through the center of these projects flows the mighty Snake river which furnishes more water for irrigation, at its minimum flow, than any other stream in the whole of the arid portions of the United States. Along that portion of the Snake river lying within these irrigation projects there are more natural water falls than in any other river in the United States. Dry Creek falls are a short distance below the great Milner dam and are 70 feet high. A few miles lower down are the Twin Falls, 175 feet high, three miles below these are the famous Shoshone Falls, 210 feet perpendicular fall, five or six miles further down the river are the Auger falls, 184 feet high, and still within the limits of these irrigated lands are the upper and lower Salmon falls each some 90 feet. In the vicinity of the Salmon falls are found the Black Canyon, the Thousand Springs and the Malad river. At each of these points there is a possible electrical power of from 20,000 to 50,000 horse power and the volume of water in the river is doubled by these tributaries within a space of 15 miles. At the Thousand Springs and also at the Malad power plants are now in the course of construction. The Great Shoshone Falls Power company has its plant at Shoshone falls installed and in operation and it at work on its Salmon falls plant.

GOODING is located within from fifteen to thirty miles of these great power plants. An electric railway is now being built from Milner to connect with the main line of the Short Line at GOODING. This electric railway is the first unit of a system which will thread this new empire with a net work of trunk lines and will have a trunk line south to connect with the Southern Pacific and the Western Pacific systems in the Nevada mining regions and will bring southern Idaho 400 miles nearer to San Francisco than it is at present. GOODING, remember, is the junction of this electrical system with the main line of the Oregon Short Line Railway and will be the outlet of southern Idaho for its surplus.

As a fruit producing section Lincoln county tops the market with all kinds of temperate zone fruits such as peaches, pears, plums, prunes and apples. Lincoln county apples brought as high as $4 a box this fall in Chicago markets and produced as much as 1,500 boxes the acre of land.—Can you beat it?

Do You Want a Chance to Make Money?

We are going to give the other man a chance—This means YOU. Every man who invests a dollar in GOODING will have a chance to make money. The price of lots has been placed so low that there is a good investment for every man who buys one. The terms are: One-fourth down and the balance may be paid in installments of one-fourth each year for the next three years.

A domestic water supply is of prime importance in all new sections. At GOODING wells of never failing mountain water may readily be obtained at a reasonable depth and the sources that follow the use of impure water will pass GOODING by.

The fertility of the lands has already been proven beyond a doubt as the old ranches surrounding the town testify. Alfalfa, fruit, vegetables and all farm products grow in this greatest profusion.
