

ACCUSED COUNCIL OF LACK OF CANDOR

Mr. Hall Takes Majority Members
To Task Regarding the Apportionment Report.

HE ASKS LEADING QUESTIONS

Points Out Figures of Budget Places
Expenditures in Excess of Revenue—Martin Arraigned.

The estimate and apportionment report of the city council was attacked by Councilman Hall last night, and in no uncertain tones the councilman from the Fourth accused the majority members of a lack of candor in the preparation of the document. The matter came before the council in the shape of a revision of the annual budget submitted some time ago.

Mr. Hall pointed out that the figures of the budget placed the expenditures for the year in excess of the revenue at $13,800.33, and the amended budget showed the deficiency to upwards of $13,000. Mr. Hall wanted to know where the money was coming from. If, as the majority claimed, the figures would exceed what was first expected, that fact should be made known to the public. He said that to apportion to a certain department an amount far in excess of what it was believed that department would legitimately spend was an inducement to extravagance, and the council should not be responsible for such action. However, he was glad to see that the majority was stepping upon the ground taken by the minority as to the actual income and expenditures of the city.

BLACK TO THE RESCUE.

Mr. Black defended the majority by saying that although the apportionment was in excess of what the expenditures would be, no money could be spent or misapplied without the consent of the council. The report was adopted, with Hall and Murdoch voting against it.

LOUVRE CAPE INCIDENT.

By a vote of 9 to 2 the council decided that the Louvre cafe, E. J. Wille, proprietor, should have a liquor license, but the majority decided that he would move to reconsider delayed the permit for at least a week.

The Louvre discussion was somewhat extended and at times exceedingly lively. Mr. Wille was given the privilege of the floor and in all but the exact language called Martin a liar. He said positively that he had never defied the council in the presence of Martin, and had never used the swear words attributed to him.

Martin was on his feet in an instant and reiterated his statements of a week ago, and added that all the while that Wille's license was in abeyance the latter had broken the law every hour. The Louvre made a pretense of sending to a nearby liquor house for wet goods, but Mr. Martin stood in the supply house indicated for "two hours and a quarter," and no order had come in.

MARTIN FEELS HURT.

"This man comes into this body and calls me a liar, and yet you vote to give him just what he asks for. Well, you may do as you like, but I give notice that I will have this man arraigned in breaking the law as he has done."

The following appointments were made by Chief Clerk of the fire department: J. L. Wadsworth, Thomas W. Turner, Thomas Bowlin and Fred Garlick.

PROTEST AGAINST SALOON.

Henry M. Dinwoodey and a majority of business men on First Street between Main and West Temple petitioned the council not to grant a license for the opening of a saloon at No. 25, formerly occupied by the premises formerly occupied by the Hamlin paint shop.

The municipal laws committee reported that the board of park commissioners had acted wholly within its powers in the matter of the discharge of park keeper Byhower, and there was not a voice raised in Byhower's behalf.

HINTS TO INVESTORS.

A resolution was presented by Mr. Martin looking to enlightening home purchasers in the matter of streets and alleys. Citizens are constantly asking for the placing of lights on and the sprinkling of streets over which the city has no jurisdiction. Complaint is made that real estate dealers mislead would-be purchasers by holding out that certain streets have been or will be dedicated to the city, while as a matter of fact many streets never can be made public thoroughfares by reason of the fact that the men laying them out were too covetous to make the street the required width. No street less than 66 feet wide can or will be accepted by the city, and the Municipal Ordinance provides for the placing of a card at the intersection of such streets to place the facts before the public.

NEW STATE GUN CLUB DAM.

The sum of $600 was appropriated, and the action of Mr. Forrester, to help the New State Gun club to rebuild a dam across the Jordan, necessarily torn out by the city some time ago.

Friday the council will go to Ogden.

Z. C. M. I. DAY.

Big Event is Scheduled for Wandamere Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

Tomorrow will be Z. C. M. I. day at Wandamere. The big store will close its doors at 12 o'clock noon to enable all its employees to attend the sports during the afternoon. Ten thousand tickets have been distributed by the management of the store among its employees and friends, and an unprecedented attendance is anticipated.

A number of sporting and athletic events will be pulled off in the afternoon, the program beginning at 2:15. The feature of the day will be the 100-yard dash, free to all employees, for the silver trophy cup offered by Supt. T. G. Weber.

Other events on the program include a 75-yard invitation race; swimming races, also free to all employees; half-mile relay race between married and single employees, eight on a side; tub race and a boat race. There will be a baseball game, played between Z. C. M. I. team and the Wandamere team, at 3:30 o'clock. This is looked forward to with considerable interest, as both teams are good before the home crowd.

Besides the sporting events, there will be boating, bowling and banqueting, concluding with a dance in the evening.

The trophy cup offered by Col. Weber for the 100-yard dash, was won last year and the year before by J. Elgin Blomquist, a stenographer in the general office of the store. Should he win it again this year the cup will be his property. Mr. Blomquist is training assiduously with the idea of hauling down the prize, but it is understood there are others who are also in training with the intention of making it as difficult as possible for him to take it the third time.

The 75-yard invitation race will be participated in exclusively by members of bishoprics employed in Z. C. M. I. Following is a list of the contestants in this race: Asahel Woodruff, bishop of the Second ward; P. S. Tingey, bishop of Seventeenth ward; Heber C. Iverson, bishop of the Second ward; Hyrum J. Smith, bishop of Liberty ward; A. C. Thorne, counselor in Seventh ward; Nechi Y. Schofield, counselor in Twentieth ward; John R. Reid, counselor in Sixteenth ward; Hyrum Olson, counselor in Liberty ward; Al. Winn, counselor in Sixteenth ward; Bishop Woodruff, bishop of the Second ward.

It is the favorite up to date, but Bishop Hyrum J. Smith says he is going to be there to give him a run for his money.

TEN YEARS IN BED.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of the kidneys," writes R. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and I had been a God-send to me." For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Nerve Substitutes."

BADLY BATTERED UP.

William Hanshaw Takes in the Town
And Entertains Three Dutchmen.

Last evening a man giving the name of William Hanshaw was taken to police headquarters to have his countenance repaired by Dr. G. S. Paul. He said he had been beaten up by three "Dutchmen," but just where and when he was unable to say. He produced papers to prove that he had been working on the Western Pacific.

Hanshaw arrived here Sunday with two months' pay, an awful thirst and an unholly desire to paint the town red. He started out to fulfill his intentions, when he ran across the "Dutchmen," who were there and he was badly used up. His nose was broken and he received numerous other injuries which were attended to at the emergency hospital last evening. The man was booked as a lodger and as soon as possible will probably leave the city and return to his work on the railroad.

WHERE TO REGISTER THIS EVENING

Today is registration day. It is the second of the open season, and the registry agents are ready for business in every district. The registration books will be kept open until 9 p. m. so that all who may care to will have a chance to fix up their names on the books preceding the November election. Other registration days for this year are Aug. 29, Oct. 6, Oct. 7, Oct. 20, Oct. 27, and Oct. 28. The object of the legislature in naming so many dates was to allow any person out of town on a summer vacation or on business, to find a chance to register after returning. Republican State Chairman Wesley K. Walton, who was a member of the last legislature, introduced the registry law now in force, doing away with the necessity to reregister each presidential year, and increasing the number of registry dates. The list of places where registry agents are located, follows:

YELLOW RIBBON MARKS NEW CLASS

Badges of Honor Worn by Old
Folks Yesterday Reinforced
By One More.

VETERANS INVADE SALT AIR

Banquet Prepared by the Women of
The Relief Societies of Each Stake Represented.

Salt Lake's old folks, to the number of 300, were the guests of the Saltair management at that beautiful resort yesterday. The outing was conspicuous for the fact that a new ribbon was in evidence, denoting the age of the veteran guests. Heretofore the red, white and blue ribbons have been all that have been used and the age of 70 years has been the beginning point for those eligible for the outings. This year, however, the age was placed at 60 years and the yellow ribbon made its appearance. Most of those who wore the lake were this ribbon, but there was a large percentage of the red, denoting age between 70 and 80; the blue, for those over 80, and the white rosette for those over 90.

No special program at the lake was carried out but all the old folks were made welcome at each of the attractions, and in the evening a special bicycle meet was tendered them.

BANQUET A FEATURE.

The feature of the outing, however, was a banquet, prepared by the women of the Relief Societies of each stake for all the old folks. Those of different stakes were seated in convenient corners of the luncheon floor and a bounteous repast was served, after which most of those present began to look towards home.

PROUD DISTINCTION.

The oldest person present was James Leach of 476 east Seventh South street. His years were 93, and he appeared to be perfectly well and hearty. Isaac Manning, the veteran colored man, also 93 years of age, was present. Among those of ages approaching the veteran file leaders were:

Mrs. Fleck C. Hobby, 288 Wall street, 80; Henry Rudy, south Fourth West, 82; Francis Edmonds, 506 east First South, 80; Mrs. Francis Edmonds, same address, 81; Edward Covington, 16 Willard court, 81; William Spicer, 606 Second North, 81; William Edgington, Sixth avenue, 87; T. J. Stuyver, 38 Arapahoe avenue, 80; Frank Holiday, Sixth avenue, 80; George Tall, 71 north Sixth West, 82; Sidney Hudson, 66 Vine street, 88; Mrs. Sarah Williams, Emerson ward, 85; John M. Redmond, 249 Sixth West, 85; John James, 32 Central street, 82; Alfred White, Murray, 87; Mrs. Emma Cooper, 44 west First North street, 77; Mrs. Elizabeth Avery, 457 west Eighth South, 88; James Larson, 129 north Second West, 89; David M. Evans, 243 west Third South, 88; Mrs. Prudence Solomon, 750 east Fifth South, 83; Leopold Werthimer, 624 South Main, 85, and Ole Amundsen, 834 Green street, 87.

FOREST DALE ALSO.

The Forest Dale contingent consisted of 40 old folks, and their table at Saltair was conspicuous for an abundance of flowers, donated by George S. Spencer and J. M. Wheeler.

The old folks' committee, which was in general charge of the outing, consisted of: Bishop C. W. Nibley, C. R. Savage, William Edgington, William Naylor, John Kirkman, Andrew Jensen, William B. Barton, Hyrum Groesbeck, George B. Margolis, E. F. Grant, Bishop H. C. Iverson, George T. Bourne and Joshua B. Bean.

MANY THANKS.

As a committee over ready to contribute their time and efforts to gladden the hearts of the aged, we sincerely thank the Saltair Beach management and the owners of the steamers whose kindness made the 17th of August a day long to be remembered by the 1,500 participants. Grateful recollections fill the hearts of all who participated, especially.

THE OLD FOLKS' COMMITTEE.
