NOTICE. Oh, all ye good people, who value your health, And think of your comfort as well as your wealth. Remember that now, just now is the time To sweeten your couses with whitening or lime; The cobwebs are hanging to ceiling and wall, And rooms look quite dismal as winter or fall, Unless they are wash'd and made clean and light With Cooper's best mixture, or some other white. The crevices, too, which open so wide, And make a fit place for vermin to bide, Cin all be well stopp'd and made good and sound, So that such a nuisar ce can scarcely be found, Then, talk no more of your rooms looking bad When such a good chance is now to be had, Or having your hou e brought out to view,

Then, give me a call, before it's too late, Near the Corner of West and South Temple Street. Rooms repaired and Whitewashed by CHARLES COMPER, Second door east of Staines' Nursery, 16th 8-3m Ward.
