DIRE DISASTER IN MEXICO—ABOUT 200 LIVES LOST.

THE PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS IN TENNESSEE.

TERRIBLE CYCLONE IN WISCONSIN—IMMENSE DAMAGE BY WIND AND HAIL.

THE RELIANCE OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

Wired From Washington.

WASHINGTON, 9.—In the Charities and Corrections Conference to-day, Miss Phœbe Couzins read a paper on Kindergarten, prepared for the Conference by Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper of California. She held that the power of early training and habit was not easily overestimated. The change of habits were generally too small to be felt until they were too strong to be broken. Kindergarten as a system of training was designed to inculcate honest principles and build up genuine characters. Character-building in the Kindergarten went forward by means of personal activity in an atmosphere of happiness and contentment. The epochs of educational growth followed the divinely-ordained epochs of vegetable growth; the human plant had its root life, its stem life and its blossom life. The Kindergarten was the best nourishment for the root life of the human plant. As early as 1848 France had 6,000 little children in infant schools, As the result, the French are the most artistic race in the world, and the world pays them an enormous tribute each year by purshasing their handiwork. The paper concludes with a description of the Kindergarten schools of San Francisco.

The afternoon session was devoted to further consideration of the subject of the morning, and several interesting papers were read. Among them was one on "Dependent Young Children in Families and in Situations," prepared by Mrs. Clara T. Leonard, of Massachusetts. The author, who is a member of the Massachusetts Board of Health, Lunacy and Charity, found that the safeguard thrown by society around the virtue of women would be weakened by any provisions which would relieve unmarried mothers from the penalties of their action and care of their offspring. She contended that the policy of separating unmarried mothers from their children was injurious both to the mothers and the children. Mrs. Spencer, who read this paper, said she was so wrought upon by what it did not say that she could not keep silent. She would have supposed the distinguished author had been reared in France, where the chivalric law was that the father of an illegitimate child could not be discovered. She noticed from the beginning to the end of the paper how very carefully discovery of the father was guarded against by this excellent woman of Massachusetts. She believed that the sentiment of the women of the District of Columbia was largely in favor of holding the father responsible for the care of the child.

Patents were issued to-day for a new system for the production of spherical and conical projectiles, the old tedious method of turning in a lathe to reduce to the proper shape is avoided, the product coming perfectly formed direct from the bar. The Secretary of War and of the Navy thought so highly of its value that they asked to have the patent put through as quickly as possible. The inventor is G. F. Simonds, of Fitchburg, Massachusetts.

Inspectors of the Postoffice Department are exerting themselves to effect the capture of Hibbs, the defaulting postmaster of Lewiston, Idaho, and it is believed he may have remained in this country, although he is reported to have fled into British Columbia. It is not believed the government will lose anything through Hibbs' operations, as many of his money orders have been stopped in this country and others been returned from Victoria, thus reducing his defalcation to about $4,000, for which amount his bondsmen will be liable.

The following dispatch has been received at the War Department from Major-General Schofield, dated Chicago, June 6th: "General Augur reports Colonel Bradley's dispatch dated Fort Bayard to-day, stating that reports indicate that the main body of Apaches are south of the Southern Pacific Railway, pushing for Mexico."

Another dispatch dated Whipple Barracks, Arizona, June 6th, from Colonel Barber, is as follows: "Yesterday's dispatches from San Carlos say appearances indicate that there was no cause for the excitement of the day before at Globe. Lieut. Davis, commanding the sixty scouts that went out from Apache, and who, under Chatto, have been in the immediate vicinity of the hostiles much of the time in the Magollon and Black Ranges in New Mexico, telegraphed yesterday from Duncan, Arizona, on the Arizona and New Mexico line, that Indians passed that place the night before, going south.

They were well mounted, and as his scouts were on foot, he thought it improbable that he could overtake them this side of the Mexican border. No further details, but from this and the disappearance of horses for the past three or four days from the eastern slope of the Black Range, it would seem they have doubled back and are pushing as rapidly as possible for Mexico, with Davis and his scouts at their heels."

The agent of the San Carlos Indian reservation has telegraphed the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that he has thoroughly investigated the reported theft of horses by Indians of that agency near Globe on the 4th inst. and finds it to be incorrect.

A Mighty Flood in Mexico.

GALVESTON, 9.—A special to the News from El Paso says: Yesterday a waterspout burst in the mountains about eight leagues east of Lagos, Mexico, near the dividing line betwen the States of Guanajuato and Jalisco. The effects were most deplorable. Immense quantities of water swept down the mountains with irresistible force towards the well populated plains and valleys and left desolation and ruin in their wake. There [illegible]e already 100 lives reported lost, and it is feared the list may be swelled still larger, when all the details are known. A great many houses were swept away. Steps have been taken in Lagos among the wealthy manufacturing classes to alleviate the pressing wants of many who escaped from the valleys, but lost everything.

El Paso, Texas, 9. — Particulars of the fearful waterspout which burst near Lagos, Mexico, on the 6th inst., were received here to-night. The loss of life proves greater than first reported. At Pueblo Curantas the rushing waters in a few minutes rose to the hight of twenty-five feet. This great flood swept everything before it, and at that place alone nearly 100 lives were lost.

Great distress prevails along the entire valley and immediate relief is greatly needed. Particulars from other points are not yet received. The large city of Guanajuato was flooded by a tremendous waterspout, which did fearful damage. The waterspout burst at a point a mile above the city and in a few moments a roaring torrent six feet high covered the very centre of the city. A complimentary amateur performance in honor of the Governor and ex-President Manuel Gonzales was in progress at the theatre at the time the waterspout burst. The building was crowded with the elite of the city.

When the alarm was sounded at about half past 10 o'clock a wild panic ensued in the theatre. Ladies fainted and all seemed frenzied with fear. Every one rushed for the door, trampling the weak under foot. The scene was indescribable. Many persons were fatally injured. The force of the flood down the street broke open many doors. The office of the Singer Machine company had six feet of water in it, and many other buildings suffered likewise. The damage is estimated at over $100,000. The principal sufferers are Obregon & Co., Lorenzo Marquez and the Singer Sewing Machine Company. It is not yet known how many lives were lost.

Relying on Guatemala.

LA LIBERTAD, via Galveston, 9.—The rebel Menendez occupies Santa Ana, Chachuapa and Atiquesaya with a strong force. General Rivas has twice been driven out of Conjutepeque, which place is now occupied by the National troops. Rivas, however, remains in close proximity threatening an attack. The Nationals have a large force under arms. A battalion of Nicaraguans crossed the river Lempa yesterday and another battalion is marching on Cojutepeque. Everything hinges on the attitude of Guatemala, which country, Menendez asserts, will assist him, in which case the whole of Central America will become involved. If Guatemala remains neutral, the San Salvadorian Government will probably overpower the revolutionists within a fortnight.

A Visitation of Locusts.

CHATANOOGA, Tenn., 9. — Locusts have appeared on the ridges north of the city. The numbers are increasing, and all the shrubbery and trees and every green object is covered with them. In some localities all other sounds are drowned by their noise. To-day they began moving into the valley, and are spreading through the lowland farms. They appeared in this country seventeen years ago and destroyed nearly all vegetation.

Crops Damaged and Villages Demolished.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., 9.—The damage from Monday's wind and hail storm, which swept across the entire State from west to east, was very serious and has resulted in great loss to farmers by damage to crops and fruit. In Vernon County the storm appears to have assumed the nature of a cyclone. All the buildings in the little village of Victory were demolished, including two small warehouses, a church, hotel and school house. Across the Mississippi River in Minnesota, the village of New Albion was almost totally wiped out of existence, occasioning a loss of $50,000. From various points in Wisconsin, within the path of the storm, come reports of buildings being unroofed, trees uprooted by the wind, and much damage done by hail.

RUSSIAN TRAIN ROBBERS KILL AND WOUND SEVENTY PASSENGERS.

RAVAGES OF CHOLERA IN SPAIN.

Russian Robbers.

ST. PETERSBURG, 9.—A terrible accident occurred on the railway from Kosloff to Rostoff, on the river Don. A bar of iron was placed across the track by robbers, and a train which came along was thrown from the rails and demolished. Seventy persons were killed and wounded. The robbers, who were awaiting the smash-up, plundered the train. The wounded and other survivors were completely terrorized and could make no resistance.

The Cholera Spreading in Spain.

MADRID, 9.—Despite repeated denials of the authorities, it is now known that there have been eleven cases of Asiatic cholera in this city and two deaths from that disease. Cholera has also broken out in Castellon de Laplana. Special wards in the hospitals have been assigned for suspected cases of cholera. The authorities are visiting the poorer quarters of the city and attending to the disinfection of houses. Vessels from Valencia are subjected to three days' quarantine at other Spanish ports. France, Italy and Germany quarantine vessels from Valencia.

In the Cortes, Romero y Robledo, Minister of the Interior, made a statement which confirmed the truth of the report of the outbreak of cholera in Valencia. He denied, however, that authenticated cases of cholera had appeared in Madrid. The Government, said the Minister, would readopt the extraordinary precautionary measures taken during the outbreak of the disease in 1884, when it erected lazarettos and established cordons of troops for the purpose of isolating the districts infected.

The Guardia Civile have evacuated their barracks owing to the breaking out of cholera. Of four cases in the barracks three proved fatal. The men are now encamped on the outskirts of the city. Measures are being taken to thoroughly fumigate and disinfect the barracks; also, all private houses in which the cholera has made its appearance.

There were seven fresh cases in Valencia yesterday. All persons arriving in Valencia by sea are subjected to three days' observation, and all wishing to leave the city must show properly attested certificates of good health. Those arriving from towns where there are cholera cases are promptly sent to the lazarettos.

General Gordon.

LONDON, 9.—A dispatch from Cairo says: Some excitement has been created here among English officials and residents by the arrival of a Coptic merchant from Khartoum. He states that he witnessed the capture of Khartoum, and that immediately after the massacre of the garrison the Mahdi demanded the head of Gen. Gordon for a trophy, but his warriors produced the head of the Austrian consul, Mr. Hansal. When the mistake was discovered a second search was made for Gen. Gordon, but the Mahdi's followers were unable to find any trace of the hero of Khartoum. They found several other Europeans, but no documents were found on their clothes to show that either of them was Gen. Gordon. The merchant says it is possible that Gen. Gordon, knowing that all was lost, made his escape.

The Coleridge Case.

It is announced to-day that the terms of settlement of the slander case of Charles Warren Adams against Lord Coleridge have been arranged as follows: The Lord Chief Justice will settle an income of £600 yearly on his daughter, Miss Mildred, on the occasion of her marriage to Mr. Adams, and the legal disputes are to be referred to arbitration.

The Vote on the Budget.

A correspondent gives the following graphic recital of the scene in the House last night. The Gladstone ministry was wrecked by a union of class interests, party hatred and the liquor influence. For eight hours, debate on the Hicks-Beach amendment to the Budget dragged along; brewer after brewer defending beer, and Scotchman after Scotchman praying for relief for whisky. Meantime the Conservatives and Irishmen were strongly mustering for the vote, in which they were sure to beat the government; so certain, in fact, that they were then organizing a private celebration. As the hour for division approached the excitement increased, until when Gladstone rose to close the debate at ten o'clock, the House was so crowded that many members were unable to find seats. Not for a long time has Gladstone spoken with so much vigor, so much of his old fire. There was not the slightest interruption, in spite of his bitter thrusts at the Opposition. The latter seemed completely cowed. No doubt Gladstone knew perfectly what the vote was going to be. This added a sharpness to his attack. His defense of the budget was masterly. The climax came when, after dwelling in an almost solemn manner on the greatness of the national need for £11,600,000 for defense of the Empire, he paused, waved his hand almost in the faces of the leaders on the opposition benches, and added, with crescendo scorn: "And the regular opposition is loyal, the regular Opposition is national, the regular Opposition is patriotic, the regular Opposition thinks it is constitutional to refuse this money." Prolonged cheering and roars of laughter followed. The scene, when the result was announced, beggars description. The whole House was in a quiver of excitement when the teller approached the Speaker. Lord Randolph Churchill was the first to catch sight of the paper in the hands of the Conservative whip. He sprang to his feet with a shout and instantly deafening cheers, shouts and yells broke out, which lasted five minutes. Every time there was a lull the cries of members could be heard shouting, "Spencer and Coercion," "Remember Miles Joyce." Churchill and the Irishmen were on the benches waiving their hats; The Liberals smiling, silent and gloomy; Gladstone quietly writing on his knee his regular daily report to the Queen.

It is understood that the Conservatives will form a new Cabinet and undertake the administration of the Government if requested to do so by the Queen. In the absence of such request they will leave the present Ministers to untangle their own difficulties.

The Proposed Ne[illegible]abinet.

LONDON, 9.—It is reported that the Conservative leaders, at a conference this evening, decided to accept office. Following is a forecast of a portion of the new Cabinet:

Marquis of Salisbury, Prime Minister and Secretary of State for the Foreign Department; Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer and leader in the House of Commons; Sir Stafford Northcote, who will go to the House of Lords, Lord President of the Council; Lord Randolph Churchill, Secretary of State for India; Colonel Frederick A. Stanley, Secretary of State for War.

The Ministers will attempt no measures calculated to give the Liberals a chance to gain a victory. They will recast the budget in accord with the vote of the House, and when the estimates are passed will dissolve Parliament.

The Parnellites count upon the lapsing of the coercion measure.

The ministerial circle take their defeat with equanimity. It is stated that the Cabinet, in view of the tendency to disruption and internal discord, were willing to take advantage of the chance to resign. The crisis postpones indefinitely a settlement with Russia. The Conservatives will adopt Earl Granville's frontier convention, but will insist upon stringent guarantees against a further Russian advance.

Nothing Mean About Him.

"Robert," remarked the wife of a penurious man, "I am on my deathbed. I have tried to be a good and faithful wife, and have but one favor to ask of you before I die."

"What is that, Margaret?"

"You know I was born and raised in Cleveland: it was there I first met you, and there the happiest hours of our wedded life were spent. You remember this, Robert?"

"Yes," uneasily.

"My relatives are all buried there, and when I am gone I wish to rest beside them. Will you grant me this one favor?"

"There will be considerable expense attached to it," musingly.

"Oh, Robert! I will never rest easy in my grave anywhere else."

"Well, Maggie, I'll tell you what I'll do. I don't want to be mean about the thing. I'll bury you here first, and then if I notice any sign of restlessness on your part I'll take you to Cleveland afterwards!"

Torture in Russian Prisons.

A Nihilist imprisoned in the Troubletskoi Bastion has managed to communicate with the outside world. He says the prisoners are almost starved on mouldy food. Disagreeable diseases prevail. The use of combs and soap is forbidden. Jailors are cruel. Vermin are abundant. Rats often eat dying prisoners. This is almost as bad as dyspepsia. But the torments of dyspepsia need not always be endured, for Brown's Iron Bitters will conquer the disease. Mrs. Williams, of Starkville, Miss., was tormented with dyspepsia, and her daughter with debility. Brown's Iron Bitters relieved both.
