Barton, 617 south West Temple: the 7-year-old daughter of Martin Christiasin, 1167 Washhington avenue; Mp.garet Coch-rane, aged 30, Newheuse, Utah; Emil Strasser, aged 32, Stockton, Utah.

The last issue of the Gunnison Gazette speaks at considerable length editorially on the local typhoid fever sitsind that the time has come for active efforts to change the unfortunate conditions that have brought about this sad state of affairs. The Gazette calls attention to the fact that local wells are in the sceepage of outhouses and cesspools, and advocates an immediate abandonment of the old style of out-houses, and the substitution of the earth closet system. It wants the old vaults loaded with lime and filled up with clean soil, and more care taken in the matter of disposal of kitchen refuse water. The same issue of the paper chronicles the sad death of three promising young girls, of typhold fever.

Man Takes Money Away from Mrs. Savage on the Street.

"Madam, give me that purse, and give it to me quickly!" This startling demand was made upon Mrs. Mary Savage, who lives at 150 south Second West, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on Seventh South and Third West street, by tall, dark complexioned man. voice was gruff and his manner highly hreatening. Mrs. Savage handed the fellow purse, containing $8.50. The robber opened the pocketbook, emptied the contents in his hand and started to walk away. "Won't you please leave me five cents for street car fare?" asked the lady. "I am sorry, madam," replied the fellow, "but I really have not time to make the change." He then walked quickly away and made good his estreet.

cape. Mrs. Savage went to a nearby store and reported the matter. A few minutes later Officer J. D. Brown was informed of the robbery and got a good description of the man, but no trace of him has been found up to date.

Remedy.

From Napier, New Zesland, Herald:
Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Couch Remedy, made by the Chamberlain's
Couch Remedy, made by the Chamberlain's Couch Remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers
for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by all

Sunday School Union Meeting Held Last Night in Twenty-First Ward.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ensign Stake Sunday School union was held in the Twenty-first ward meetinghouse at 7:30 p. m., Supt. George H. Wallace presiding. Asst. Supt. Joseph V. Smith conducted the exercises. The meeting commenced with the usual opening exercises. Asst. Supt. Jos. V. Smith made a few remarks of welcome to the teachers, and was pleased to see to the teachers, and was pleased to see such a good attendance, and announced that the vacancy on the stake board had been filled, and presented the name of Elder John H. Coombs as a member of the stake board, assigned as principal of the Second Intermediate department. The action was unanimously installed. mously sustained.

At 7:50 the teachers retired to their department rooms and took up their

In the superintendents' department, the nickel fund reports and monthly comparative reports were read. Attention was called to the publication of the Dec. 4 and 11 kindergarten lessons, as outlined in Nov. 15 issue of the Ju-venile. Fitting observance of Thanksgiving day was recommended for Sun day next, after which the Church His-tory course for the Second Intermedifor 1905 was briefly considered, as also was the matter of "grading."

In the secretaries' department the matter of filing the monthly statistical report was considered, and the plan to have a form printed and bound met with the approval of all present. The regular work of the secretary vas considered.

Librarians' department: Supt. Geo. H. Wallace talked on the duties of a Sunday school librarian. In the choristers' and organists' de-partment, Miss Olea Shipp gave an exceedingly interesting talk upon "The Duties of the Sunday School Organist."

At the next meeting Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas of the Thirteenth ward will speak upon "Heart Singing." In the theological department, Prof. Wm. M. Stewart lectured on the "Art of and Reason for Questioning." J. H. Paul supplemented his remarks with some excellent ideas. Prof. Stewart illustrated his talk with many examples of the mistakes in teaching the children of our Sunday schools and gave many practical hints of how teachers could improve their instruc-
