

MEAT ORDINANCE COMES UP MONDAY

Special Council Meeting Confirms Appointment of Ten New Police Officers.

GOLDING NOW A DETECTIVE.

His Promotion from Mounted Patrolman is Sanctioned—New Men For Fire Department.

The city council held a special meeting last night and confirmed the appointment of ten additional policemen, made by Chief of Police Barlow. The men appointed were as follows: J. E. Tyler, William Wickle, C. G. Carlberg, Henry Calton, J. P. Morris, A. F. Miller, P. L. Boynton, Charles Davender, D. H. Crowther, and Harold E. Sleater. The council also approved the promotion of R. J. Golding from a mounted patrolman to a detective. A. A. Boken and George Harris were promoted from patrolmen to mounted officers.

The council confirmed the appointments of William C. Clure, John O'Connell, Roy W. Yager, and R. P. Montgomery as members of the fire department. The fire committee also recommended the purchase of a lot at Post and Eighth South streets for a site for a fire station.

All the important matters scheduled to come before the council committee last night were postponed one week. The new meat ordinance went over again, but it will be taken up at 10 o'clock Monday morning, at a caucus of the "American" party members of the council.

HORSE GETS QUEER NOTION.

A horse attached to a Rowe-Kelly company delivery wagon became frightened early last evening while standing in front of the Zang saloon in Second South street. It broke away from the hitching post, reared and made a plunge for the big lobby window of the Cullen hotel across the street. The horse probably knew the window was closed, so it would make much difference anyway, beyond a slight inconvenience to Host Heywood. The crowd of pedestrians in the immediate vicinity chased themselves out of harm's way as quickly as possible. Policemen Gillespie and William Rowe managed to grab the frantic steed, and "saved the hour" and Ben Heywood's window. The wagon was "smashed to splinters," the harness was reduced to shreds, while the horse sprained his back. No further harm was done.

CHOLERA MORBUS CURED.

This is one of the most severe and dan-

W. E. Smith of La Marque, Texas, writes: "My little girl was taken with cholera morbus. The attack was so severe that I feared she would die. A druggist advised me to give her Cham-

May Babcock, Miss De Lancy, Miss

Two large parties occupied stalls at the Salt Lake Theater last night, those on the east side being occupied by a

Howard.

the hotel, in honor of Miss Davis, who has been visiting the Misses Williams.

Mrs. F. J. Lyon entertained a party of six at the Orpheum Wednesday af-informal card party last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomas, who leave shortly for a European trip. The rooms were decorated in iris and ferns and three tables were placed.

Mrs. J. W. Smith gave a Kensington yesterday for her sister, Mrs. Dayton of Iowa.

One of the most elaborate out-of-town affairs of the season was the reception given by Mrs. John W. Thornley on Wednesday at the Kayville Opera House in honor of her husband's fiftieth birthday. The color scheme was carried out in pink and white, while apple blossoms were used profusely on the tables. Covers were laid for 150, and toasts were responded to by the friends of Mr. Thornley on his past, present and future. Henry H. Blood being toastmaster. During the luncheon, Miss Vera Bonnemort sang "Life's Mirror," and Miss Mattie Thornley, as Rosie Abbott and Grace Henderson as Mrs. Winters are all worthy of liberal praise, for, in fact, one felt, throughout, that Mr. Drew was surrounded by compeers. Helen Free-mans as Ethel, the heiress, was in person pretty and sweet, and admirably adapted for the part she carried with more than satisfying success.

Not quite so enthralling as the wonderful histrionic art of Nazimova, but still among the very best that we have seen this year, the presentation of John Drew and associate players in "Jack Straw" deserves an evening from all who love depth, pleasantry,

CITIZENS' TICKET IS INDORSED AT MEETING

Voters of Second Municipal Ward Select Committee to Perfect Movement.

A number of voters of the Second municipal ward met last night in the Sixth ward amusement hall for the purpose of discussing, in an informal way, the advisability of putting an independent citizens' ticket in the field next fall. Two members of the citizens' committee of the First ward met with them and explained what was done in that ward last week. The unanimous opinion was that the interests of the city would be best preserved by the election next fall, of a business administration, honest and competent, and free from all ante-election debts, to be paid off at the expense of the city. It was suggested that a campaign of education be commenced as soon as practicable with lectures in all the municipal wards on the city finances, resources, on the cost of city government, and similar topics, in order that the voters may vote intelligently. The speakers all agreed that such a campaign would be infinitely better and more creditable than the usual campaigns of personalities and vilification.

A committee on invitation was elected to arrange for a meeting of voters of the ward at an early date, to further discuss the question of a permanent organization. The following were elected: George Smith, Dr. F. Alexander, J.
N. Lambert, C. H. Carlquist and Peter
S. Condie.
