SOCIAL CHAT

The past week has been one of the busiest of the season, every day being filled with social functions. Wednesday was the day of weddings, over a dozen taking place, while others transpired on the days preceding and following. A large social affair of the week was the reception given by Mrs. Susan Y. Gates in honor of Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot, and others have helped to make it important. The event of the following one will be the joint celebration of four patriotic societies at Wandanere on Monday, when the Daughters of the Pioneers, Battalion, Revolution, and the society of the Nauvoo legion will have an all day outing. Next week will see another large list of weddings, and each week following has many scheduled to take place.
