the institution yesterday, the State lost one of its most able instructors and in a few weeks Ogden City will lose one of her most highly respected and progressive citizens. Prof. Metcalf has been engaged in the special line of work of instructing the deaf and blind for the past seventeen years, in California, Kansas and Utah. In 1889 he was chosen to take charge of the school for the deaf, dumb and blind in this State, and during the past twelve years he has filled the position of superinten-dent of the school with great credit to himself and the State.

Prof. Metcall's resignation is to take effect June 30, 1901, and immediately afterwards he will move with his family to Arcadia, Oregon, where he has accepted a position as manager of the K, S. D. Fruit and Land company, in which company he bought a large in-terest. Senator F. J. Kiesel is associated with Mr. Metcalf in the company. Frof. Frank W. Driggs has been appointed superintendent of the State School for the Deaf to succeed Frank W. Metcalf, resigned. The change will ake effect on June 30. Mr. Driggs was born at Pleasant Grove, Utah, about thirty years ago and his early training was in the commercial field, engaging with his father in the mercantile and commission business in his home town. During vaca-tion he has also been in the employ of the Co-op Wagon and Machine company. He is also a good printer. He received his education in the public schools of Utah county, Brigham Young academy and the Utah University. He began his work with the deaf mutes in began his work with the boys' super-visor of the Utah school at Salt Luke, under Prof. Frank W. Metcalf. He has been with this State school ever since, excepting one year spent at Gallaudet excepting one year spent at Ganatulet college. Washington, D. C., and one year as teacher of the high class of the Illinois school at Jacksonville. He was married in 1898 to Miss Maud

Short, of Salt Lake, and he has one child. He will visit the Pan-American exposition this summer to study the child. educational exhibits.

PROVO. Mining Suit Being Heard by Judge McCarty-Pyne-Billings Wedding.

Special Correspondence. Provo, Utah Co., April 13 .- The suit of the Lily Mining company vs Ralph M. Kellogg came up for hearing, yesterday, before Judge McCarty in the Fourth district court. The suit is to deermine the ownership of a piece of land four hundred feet long by nine feet at one end and fifty-four feet at the other end in width, situated on the west of the Ralph claim in the Tintic district, according to defendant's survey for a nineral patent.

Plaintiff claims this portion of ground is a part of the Lily of the West, owned by plaintiff, and defendant claims it is a part of the Ralph claim, as located by him in May, 1899, and that after he had made his location of the Ralph the plaintiff changed the boundary lines of the Lily of the West, taking in the ground in dispute. He also asks in a cross complaint for $15,000 damages for ores alleged to have been taken out of the ground in dispate, the East after shipping a train of cat-tle and reports the market firm and in by the Lily Mining company.

stay Cured. At least one fourth of all mankind are afflicted to a greater or less degree with pilos. Very often the disease is of irregular recurrence. Maybe the trouble comes only once or twice a year. Even so, it unlits a man for business while it lasts. Seems like a little thing, but it produces more bad feelings than even seri-ous stekness would. In severe cases In severe cases there is no comfort attainable. Various salves and ointments afford temporar relief, but in a few minutes the pair returns. Each attack is a little bit worse than the last one. Itching is followed by bleeding and protrusion tula follows-surgical treatment-death possibly. And all this can be avoided. The discovery of Pyramid Pile Curhas made suffering unnecessary, even foolish. By its use relief is instantane-ous. It soothes the inflamed parts, heals the broken membranes, reduces the swelling and brings comfort at onces

The cure is permanent and the trouble will not return unless new conditions arise which produce an entirely new case. This, of course, cannot be helped, but if you will use Pyramid Pile Cure immediately on the appearance of the first symptom, the trouble will vanish, Druggists sell and recommend Pyramid Pile Cure. There may be some who do not have it, in which case you can

Next Wednesday evening at 7:15 the Opal club special train will leave the Short Line station for Provo, where a grand ball will be given in honor of the club by the Terpsichore club. The scene of the gathering will be the new Mozart hall, which is said to be the most up-to-date dancing establishment in the State, outside of Salt Lake. The club has tickets to dispose of for only fifty couples and in view of this limitation it is important that those who inthe it is important that there where we have mediate application for transportation. Only those holding Opal club tickets of admission to the ball will be admitted.

The planoforte recital given by Miss Lelu Cochler, the pupil of Miss May Olive Gray, last night at the Congregational church was a most successful af fair, the young lady reflecting credit both upon herself and her teacher. The affair was directed by Miss Gray, who took part in the program, and was as-sisted by Mrs. Gerrans, whose vocal selections delighted her audience. Miss Gray has made rapid strides in her profession since coming to Salt Lake and last night's recital fully established her claims to popularity.
