WESTON RESTS ON SUNDAY IN OGDEN

FRANK A. MANGUM INJURED

In Spirited Runaway—Ray Brown Has Thrilling Fall Over Canyon Cliff—Bishop Whitney in Collision.

OGDEN, June 21.—Accompanied by several pedestrians of Ogden and vicinity, Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian of America, left Ogden a few minutes after 12 o'clock this morning on the last lap of his continental walk. Following the great walker and party at a short distance was a railroad gas motor car furnished by the railroad company for the carrying of ice and refreshments of various kinds for his use on the desert. The motor car, which was furnished at the direction of General Manager Bancroft of the Harriman lines in the intermountain region, will accompany Weston as far as Sparks, at which point another motor car will be furnished to accompany him to San Francisco. Weston arrived in Ogden Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He immediately went to the hotel where he spent a quiet Sunday in resting after a hard trip through Wyoming, which was filled with more experiences than the rest of his trip from New York. While having his hair trimmed up and being "tided up for Sunday" at a local barber shop, Saturday afternoon, and between the tides of a pineapple and a banana, Weston told of his trip through Wyoming. He said that he had traversed the entire state without seeing a cow, and he was unable to secure milk and eggs upon which he depended principally for his nourishment. He spoke very highly of the courtesies which had been extended to him by the railroad men who were on the lookout for him. He said that coming through Weber canyon Saturday morning a lone engine went by him, the engineer looked from his cab window and seeing the aged pedestrian, stopped the engine and said: "Come on, old pal, we'll give you a lift and we'll see anything about it." Mr. Weston said that he declined the assistance, telling the "boys" that it would mean the loss of much money to him if he rode. All along the line of the Union Pacific, he stated, the railroad boys had offered him a lift. Several different times the trainmen had given him ice and bottles of cold milk and had showed him every attention possible, and he said that he appreciated it more than he could find words to tell. Mr. Weston stated he expects to keep up his average of 44 miles a day and expects to reach San Francisco by July 9. On account of the number of delays he met with going through Colorado and Wyoming, Mr. Weston said that he was compelled to go right through directly to San Francisco and was sorry that he could not go by the way of Salt Lake as he had first intended.

FRANK MANGUM INJURED.

OGDEN, June 21.—While trying to prevent a runaway horse, which he was driving from dashing into a loaded street car, Sunday morning, Frank A. Mangum, manager of the Oaks resort in Ogden canyon, was thrown from the vehicle and received fractured skull and fractured shoulder blade, and is now at the Broom hotel in a critical condition.

Mangum had driven to the city from the Oaks in a light spring wagon to get some ice for the Oaks cafe, early Sunday morning, so as to return to the resort before the sun became too warm. Several times on the trip the horse had acted badly and Mr. Mangum was watching him closely. He had arrived at the Potter cafe to see Mr. Potter who owns the Oaks resort, and before he had time to leave he was wrenched from the seat and started to run down the street. There were two or three loaded street cars in the path of the horse, but Mr. Mangum succeeded in guiding the horse out of their way. No sooner had he done this than the horse struck a telephone pole which was in the way of the horse and he was thrown. He was immediately picked up and taken to the Broom hotel and Dr. J. C. Rich summoned. A late report was to the effect that Mangum was resting very well and if no unforeseen complications set in the chances for his recovery were good.

THRILLING FALL OVER CLIFF.

OGDEN, June 21.—While attempting to take some kodak pictures from a ledge in Ogden canyon, Sunday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, Ray Brown, living at 2540 Orchard avenue in this city, fell over a cliff and received injuries which almost proved fatal. The fact that the young man was not instantly killed by being dashed to pieces on the rocks below was due to the fact that the fall was broken by some bushes in which he alighted.

Young Brown in company with David Williamson and Bonney Bailey, two employees in the Federal building, had gone to the north side of the canyon about three miles from the mouth of the canyon, and were near a cliff about 300 feet in height. Brown was desirous of getting a good picture of the canyon and went too close to the edge of the cliff and started to slide. Both of his companions tried to reach him before he fell but could not do so and the boy went to the bottom of the cliff. In trying to save his friend young Williamson had the fourth finger of his right hand badly lacerated laying the finger open to the bone.

As soon as possible Williamson and Bailey rushed to the aid of their friend and succeeded in getting him to the wagon road. They repeatedly asked a number of Ogden people in automobiles to take the injured young man to the city where he could receive medical relief, but their appeals were of no avail. A heavily loaded machine owned by a Salt Lake man was passing and the owner stopped while members of the party got out and made room for the three young men and they were brought to the city. Brown was taken to Bader's drug store and was attended by Dr. Brown and Dr. Dorn. It was found that his right arm was badly bruised and the base of his skull received an ugly gash about three inches long which required a number of stitches to close. Later Brown was removed to his home and was reported to be resting easier last evening.

BISHOP WHITNEY IN COLLISION.

OGDEN, June 21.—While enroute to Ogden Valley Sunday morning with Percy F. Wright of Ogden in the latter's automobile, Elder O. F. Whitney of Salt Lake, had a narrow escape from injury in collision, but fortunately, no one was injured. At a point on a curve east of the Hermitage, Mr. Wright's machine collided with Idlewild excursion machine and one of the front wheels of Mr. Wright's car was smashed. Fortunately the machines were not going fast and the occupants of both cars escaped injury. Both cars were slightly damaged.

Elder Whitney and party were taken to Huntsville by Ralph E. Hoag, who passed in his automobile.

UNITED MOVE AGAINST THE SALOON EVIL

Cache County and City Authorities Working for Practical Prohibition.

(Special Correspondence.)

LOGAN, June 20.—Yesterday afternoon the meeting held at the courthouse of Cache valley citizens, called by the county commissioners for the purpose of securing some uniform action looking to the elimination of the saloon evil, was very poorly attended, about 25 persons only being present. The slim attendance was due to a misunderstanding, due to the failure of the county clerk to issue the necessary invitations to the council and town boards of the various cities and towns in the county. The meeting organized with Bishop E. R. Owen of Wellsfield as chairman and Mayor J. W. Funk of Richmond, secretary. Alma Merrill of Richmond, A. M. Isachsen of Hyrum and N. W. Crookston of Logan were named as a committee to secure legislation as to the extent to which the county commissioners can go in suppressing the liquor traffic. The plan is the secure united action throughout the county, in the matter of preventing the sale of liquor after the first of next year. Several of the cities have already refused to issue any more licenses to saloon keepers, and the idea is to have them all do so and then get the commissioners to either prohibit the sale of liquor in the precincts or place the license so high that the saloon men will be forced to quit.

An adjournment was taken till Friday, June 25 at 10 a. m. and during the meantime invitations will be sent all mayors, city councilmen, presidents of stakes, bishops with counselors, and ministers of the gospel to be present. Those interested in the elimination of the saloon are desirous of having a better attendance than that of yesterday.

ELDERLY WOMAN HANGS HERSELF AT RICHFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

RICHFIELD, June 20.—Mrs. Elizabeth Jensen, an elderly lady of 60, and a highly esteemed member of the community, committed suicide yesterday, while mentally irresponsible. She was taken down with typhoid fever some months ago, which left her in a weak state of mind. Since her illness her daughters, who live here, had been taking turns in caring for her, until recently, when she was deemed sufficiently recovered to be left alone. Yesterday Mr. Jensen left his wife busily engaged in her household duties and she was apparently feeling fine. When he returned in the evening he found the house looking alive and tidy but could not find his wife. He searched the home, then called in at the neighbors, but she was nowhere to be found. They all commenced to get alarmed and set out in search of her and the last place they thought of searching was an old cellar, which was not being used, and to their surprise found her lifeless body hanging to a rafter. The rope was apparently feeling fine. When he was found she was hanging by her neck and four married children, one daughter in Mexico, her son, Nils Jensen, Mrs. Carrie Baker and Mrs. Lena Erickson all residents of Richfield.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING AT EVANSTON

(Special Correspondence.)

EVANSTON, Wyoming, June 17.—James C. Ayres, a drayman, and old time resident of this place drove his team in Bear river to allow them to drink today, and in turning them around, the current being very strong carried them down stream. He entered the stream about 100 yards above the city bridge and was carried down stream a distance of about 500 yards. The water carried his outfit under the bridge, but did not damage anything. About 40 yards below the bridge they struck a bunch of old trees, willows, etc., that had been lodged in the center of the stream, one horse lost its footing and was drowned. The driver was washed down stream about 200 yards further on to a cluster of willows. After many attempts he was rescued by William Blanchard, Louis Demson and Alvin Swartz.

The stream is very strong and high this time of the year, and the people living in the vicinity of the Almy Road have been in danger of Bear river cutting a new channel.
