

CONGRESS DEBATE.

Skirmish in the House on the Hawaiian Question.

CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE READ.

The President's Message, called upon by Speaker Underhill—The Message in the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The House today resumed the debate on the Hawaiian question, which was delayed in consequence of the presidential message, which was read in the morning.

The first Hawaiian question occurred after the reading of the message to Minister Wilby, which was introduced upon by Hamilton. The House agreed to this. After the conclusion of the reading Hamilton moved the adjournment of the House until the morning of the 11th, which was agreed to by a vote of 191 to 187.

Great excitement followed, and in the confusion Hamilton failed to follow up his parliamentary advantage, and was not able to offer.

A resolution of Cushman for the appointment of a committee of seven to investigate the alleged invasion of the Hawaiian Islands by the United States, was introduced by the Hawaiian committee, and was referred to the committee on Hawaiian affairs.

The resolution was so great that the speaker called upon it to be read. A resolution was introduced by the Hawaiian committee, and was referred to the committee on Hawaiian affairs.
