

PREST. ROOSEVELT HIGHLY INDIGNANT

At Those Americans Guilty of Infamous Falsehoods About Acquisition of Canal.

HE WOULD HAVE THEM SUED.

For Criminal Label, and if They Can Be Reached He Will Try to Reach Them.

Washington, Dec. 10.—"If they can be reached for criminal label, I shall try to have them reached," said President Roosevelt, in speaking this afternoon about those Americans who have been guilty of infamous falsehood concerning the acquisition of the property and the construction of the Panama canal itself.

It was to the committee of 100 of the Lakes to the Gulf deep waterways association, headed by Gov. Deneen of Illinois, received by the president in the east room of the White House, that he made this declaration. Gov. Deneen had presented a copy of resolutions adopted by the association, and made a few remarks, to which the president replied as follows:

"I have felt, as the governor has so well put it, that no more important service could be rendered in this country than the building of the Panama canal between the Atlantic and the Pacific, and one thing I am proud of in connection with the building of that canal, is that there has not been legitimate cause for the breath of scandal connected with any feature of the proceedings.

"We have cause to be ashamed of only one set of Americans in connection with the building of the canal, and that is of those Americans who have been guilty of infamous falsehood concerning the acquisition of the property and the construction of the canal itself. If they can be reached for criminal label I shall try to have them reached. If not, at any rate all the facts we know or ever have known are at the disposal of each and every one of you here, and any one in Congress or out of Congress, if they wish to see them.

"Next, only in importance, from the physical standpoint, to building the Panama canal, comes the developing of our own waterways. That must be done by the policy of irrigation at the headwaters up in the arid regions; and where you come from, gentlemen, it is to be done by making our seasons take a big loop in from the Gulf of Mexico to the Great Lakes; and we will see that that work is done just as honestly, just as efficiently, as the Panama canal work has been done; and no work could have been done from beginning to end, more honestly or more efficiently."

HOLY ROLLER SHARP ARRESTED IN KANSAS TOWN

Kansas City, Dec. 10.—James Sharp, self-styled "Adam God," and the man who led the fanatics in their fight with the officers, was arrested to-night at Monticello, Johnson county, Kansas. He gave himself up without showing any resistance. "Adam God" was wounded in both hands, a shot had pierced his coat sleeve, while another bullet had passed through his cap. When found he was asleep beneath a

Rheumatism

Do you want to get rid of it? If so, take Dr. Miles' Nervine modified as directed in pamphlet around bottle. In addition to the direct curative properties it has a soothing effect upon the nervous system by which the rheumatic pains are controlled, and rest and sleep assured. It has made many cures of this painful disease, some of them after years of suffering. If it will cure others why not you. If your case is complicated, write us for advice, it costs you nothing and may save you prolonged suffering.

"I was so crippled that I could scarcely walk. After having my shoes on for an hour or two I could manage to walk by suffering the pain. Then I began to have pains all through my system. My doctor told me I had an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I read about Dr. Miles' Nervine, bought a bottle and I commenced to get better from the start and for the past six months have scarcely any pain, and am able to walk as well as ever."

huge haystack. He told the officers that he was willing to be taken, now that he had "finished the work that God sent me to do."

Two more names were added to the list of dead as a result of Tuesday's battle between religious fanatics and the police here, the total number of dead now being four.

At noon today Louis Pratt, 45 years old, the foremost disciple of James Sharp, died at the general hospital, and an hour later Michael Mullane, a policeman, succumbed to his wounds at St. Joseph's hospital. Policeman Albert O. Dabow and Louis Pratt died immediately after being shot Tuesday.

IT IS A WONDER.
Chamberlain's Lintment is one of the most remarkable preparations yet produced for the relief of rheumatic pains, and for lame backs, sprains and bruises. The quick relief from pain which it affords in case of rheumatism is alone worth many times its cost. Price, 25 cents; large size 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

A FAMILY QUARREL.

Tom Keating, Aged 14, Shoots His Father in Defense of Mother.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 10.—Tom Keating, the 14-year-old son of John Keating, shot his father during the night with a 22-caliber Winchester in defense of his mother. The wound is not considered dangerous. The boy was not taken into custody.

Keating had been drinking and coming home got into an altercation with his wife. He flung her heavily to the floor and was beating her. The boy saw the altercation and warned his father twice that if he continued to abuse his mother he would shoot him. Keating paid no attention to the threats. The boy then fired, the ball entering Keating's right side, emerging at the back just below the shoulder blade.

The elder Keating was taken to jail and his son promised to surrender later.

JURY CONVICTS RUEF OF BRIBERY

Verdict Result of Twenty-four Hours of Discussion and Deliberation.

TO BE SENTENCED SATURDAY.

No Demonstration Was Permitted—
Trial Lasted One Hundred And Six Days.

San Francisco, Dec. 10.—Abraham Ruef, former political boss of San Francisco, was convicted today of bribery. The verdict was returned exactly upon the stroke of 4 o'clock, when the deliberations of the jury had been prolonged throughout a period of 24 hours. The warnings of Judge William P. Lawrence and the vigilance of the police checked all attempted demonstration, although the excitement in the courtroom was so intense that men were thrust down into their seats or seized in the grasp of detectives as they rose to obtain a better view of the proceedings.

The trial, which has been in progress for 106 days, ended with surprising abruptness. The day had almost passed without sign or intimation from the court that the trial was to be continued. The jury, who had been in the upper floor of the hall, the hopes of Ruef and his attorneys had risen with every hour of delay and the adherents of the prosecution were proportionately discouraged.

With numbers and interest undiminished, the hundreds of spectators who have clung about the courtroom during the closing days of the trial remained in their seats in the chamber or stood patiently in a long line opposite the entrance, while a strong detail of police watched vigilantly for the first sign of disorder inside and patrolled every approach to the hall.

The jurors had scarcely taken their seats in the box before the brief proceedings were at an end. "The judge glanced at the verdict and handed it to Clerk Welch, who read it aloud."

Ruef sat between his father and Thomas B. Dozier of the defense when the verdict was returned. He had spent the greater part of the day in conversation with his aged parent, and though his face paled and his eyes remained fixed for a long time upon the men who had pronounced his fate, almost his first thought was for the elder Mr. Ruef. He whispered a few words of encouragement to the old man and sent him out of the room, with directions to break the news to the defendant's mother and sisters.

By previous agreement of counsel that the bill of exceptions should be settled later, the court set next Saturday, Dec. 12, as the day for pronouncing judgment. Ruef's conviction renders him liable to a maximum penalty of 14 years in the penitentiary.

The courtroom was cleared of spectators immediately upon adjournment. The jury left the box and through Judge Lawrence's instructions declined to make any statement relating to the number of ballots taken or the features of their deliberations.

Ten minutes before the verdict was returned, Francis J. Heney, the assistant district attorney, who had charge of the trial until he was shot down by Morris Haas on Nov. 13, had been driven from Carpenters' hall in an automobile.

Notwithstanding the presence of a score of officers, who did all they could to restrain the demonstration as Mr. Heney entered the courtroom, men and women rose to their feet and cheered, waving hats or handkerchiefs, until the bailiffs and detectives interfered.

GERMAN RADICAL PRAISES AMBASSADOR D. J. HILL

Berlin, Dec. 10.—Speaking today in the reichstag, Herr Haussman, Radical, made reference to the incidents that preceded the coming to Berlin of David Jayne Hill, the present American ambassador. He said:

"We rejoice that Mr. Hill has been appointed ambassador by the United States and that he has remained here. We have cherished the hope that the reception which he, as an eminent and intellectual personality, deserves, and found in Berlin, will serve to prove to him and the United States that the incidents prior to his coming were based on a misunderstanding in which the German people did not share, but which caused the impression that only millionaires are acceptable at Berlin as representatives of a great state."

SOLDIER COMMITS SUICIDE.

San Francisco, Dec. 11.—Within sight of home and native land, Carl Herber, a private in the hospital corps, ended his life yesterday on the deck of the transport Thomas, by slashing his throat with a razor as the Thomas neared the Golden Gate. Herber had been standing on the deck watching the land come into view, suddenly he went to his berth, turned with a razor and immediately cut his throat.
