He says that his son, Bill Langley, who was publicly hanged 12 years ago in Gid-dings, Lee County, by Sherliff Jim Brown, in the presence of several thousand people, was not hurt at all, but was allowed to escape. The father says when the Supreme Court and the concerner refused in intervene in Bill's the father of the could was; I was in this city all last winter; I am a stock-raiser; I also teach pupils on the piano; I was with Miss Cleamer until she died; except the night before; when the two strange women came in governor refused to intervene in Bill's behalf a rich uncle in California came to the rescue with $4,000, with which he worked upon the sheriff charged with the execution of the sentence so that the friends of Bill were permitteo to arrange things so that when the drop fell the weight of the bosy came up or an iron hoop supported by an appropriate body harness in such a manner that he escaped physically unhurt. When he had drawn hilegs up and down two or three times the attending physicians pro-nounced him dead and he was turned over to his friends for interment. The coffin which was actually buried con-tained nothing but stone. While the last sad rites were being propounded Bill Langley was well on his way out of the country. He has been living, since his supposed execution, in Nica-ragua, where he has become a leading citiz in and one of the largest land and cattle herders in Central America. Those who know Campbell Langley do not hes tate to believe his story, which he now makes public only because Sher!ff Brown, who officiated at the supposed execution, died in Lee County last week.
