

ODD ASSORTMENT IN POLICE COURT

Drunks, Vagrants, Thieves and Other Offenders On Mourn-res' Bench.

THIRTY DAYS FOR BEGGING

James Tenny Draws Stiff Sentence for Living Without Working—A Budget of Minor Courts.

Drunks, vags, a petit larceny thief, a man accused of contempt of court, two battery cases, a case of indecent conduct and a violator of the bicycle ordinance were the main attractions in Judge Diehl's morning performance in the criminal division of the city court today.

James Brennan, a man apparently about 60 years of age, was charged with being "unlawfully drunk." Brennan smiled when the complaint was read to him and, turning to the court, said:

"Yes; I was drunk of course; I am always drunk. I am a hard drinker. Why I was here only five days ago and you turned me loose." Judge Diehl sentenced the man to a term of five days on the rock pile and Brennan sat down on the mourners' bench with an expression of satisfaction.

Fred Davis, charged with petit larceny, pleaded not guilty and the case was set for Monday morning for trial. He was arrested yesterday morning for stealing lead from a building on east First South street. He claims that he found the lead and on Monday will have a chance to explain the matter.

STRUCK A WOMAN.

A. H. Edmonston, arrested early yesterday morning on the charge of battery upon a Commercial street woman named Charlotte Davis, pleaded not guilty. It is alleged that the man struck the Davis woman with a blunt instrument, presumably a bottle, inflicting a severe cut in the face. He was released on a bond of $25 but upon the request of Asst. City Atty. E. A. Rogers, the bail was increased to $50. Mr. Rogers stated to the court that the assault was a vicious one and thought that the bail should be increased, as $25 was not sufficient. The case was set for Monday morning for trial.

James Tenny pleaded guilty to vagrancy. It was shown that he had begged on the streets and at the Cullen hotel. James will not have to beg for the next 30 days, but will have a chance to perform labor for the city for that period of time unless he "comes through" with $30.

Ernest Helmer rode a bicycle on the sidewalk and it cost him $3. He said he knew he had no right to ride on the sidewalk but that there were too many rocks in the street and therefore he decided to violate the law.

Millie Miller and Bessie Rivers are two more colored women pickpockets and women of the town who were run out of the city. They were arrested for an offense against the city and pleaded guilty with the understanding that they be given a chance to leave town. They left yesterday and this morning Judge Diehl imposed a sentence of five months each against them. If they return it means a long term in the city jail.

NEGRESS SENTENCED.

Lucile Johnson, a colored Commercial street woman, arrested several days ago on the charge of stabbing a man named John Kibers in the back with a penknife, was sentenced for battery. Atty. Rogers for the city recommended that a severe sentence be imposed, but Atty. Newton for the defense asked that the lightest sentence possible be pronounced. He said:

"The evidence showed that the man 'batted in' and had no right to be at the woman's house. I think that the court should merely admonish the woman, in fact I think she should be admonished to use an axe instead of a pen knife or a hat pin."

Judge Diehl did not take the same view of the matter at all. He sentenced the woman to pay a fine of $30. Notice was given of appeal and the bail was fixed in the sum of $20.

Gus Papas, a foreigner, who swore to a complaint a few days ago charging one Charles Kibers with stealing a $2 chain from him, who failed to appear in court Thursday morning when the case was called for trial, was found guilty by Judge Diehl of contempt of court. Papas had no excuse to offer for his failure to obey the orders of the court and was fined $5 for contempt. The case against Kibers was dismissed on motion of the prosecution.

Robert Mitchell, who committed depredations in the office of Atty. Ray Van Cott on the 22nd of this month, pleaded guilty to the charge of indecent conduct and was assessed a fine of $15.

Look out for a second bond issue next year. The American crew figures that the income and expenses of the city for 1908 show an estimated shortage of over $400,000. What is the end to be?

CATCHES BURGLAR AT WORK.

Special Officer White Nabs Charlie Smith While He Was Busy.

Special officer A. H. White made an important capture at 3:50 this morning when he caught a robber red-handed at the New Resort saloon, 211 South State street. The man now in jail charged with burglary in the second degree, was the watchman of the saloon and the police believe him to be an all around crook.

The saloon is known as Springman's and New Resort, and Smith gained entrance by tearing off a screen from a rear window and raising the window. He was at work on the cash register when Mr. White happened to pass the saloon. The watchman looked through a front window and a mirror behind the bar reflected the person of Smith. Mr. White quietly slipped around to the back door but the robber evidently saw him and hid behind the bar. Mr. White waited patiently for about ten minutes when Smith emerged from the back door and was nabbed. He had stolen $14 from the register.

Mr. White is not the regular night watchman on the beat and last night took the place of his brother G. E. White who was indisposed. He had made the rounds several times before he discovered the presence of Smith in the saloon. After going to the back door the officer concealed himself and waited for fully ten minutes before the robber came out. The latter saw the officer when he passed the window but concluded that he had gone. When asked as he came out of the saloon, he calmly turned to Mr. White and said:

"Why the h— I didn't you come through the window where I go in? If you had done that as I thought you would, I would have skidded." The money Smith stole from the cash register was taken from him and he was locked up on the charge of burglary in the second degree.

INSULTED YOUNG GIRL.

This morning Officer Dan Grundvig arrested a man giving the name of A. Seabridge, on Second West between Third and Fourth South, on the charge of vagrancy. The man has been sleeping in Pioneer park for several nights and has been begging about the neighborhood. It is charged against him that this morning he insulted a young girl because she would not give him money. He will be tried before Judge Diehl Monday morning.

A vote for bonds is an "American" campaign contribution.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Gus E. Holm Succumbs to Effects of An Accident Suffered Some Time Ago.

Gus E. Holm was found dead in bed in his room in a house at 61 Apple street this morning. The police were notified and Officers Moore and Betz went to go over the case. It was found to be a case of natural death, so the body was taken to O'Donnell's undertaking establishment. Holm was a Swede and has been kept by the county.

He left a note to Pauper Clark Lundberg, but up to a late hour today this had not been delivered. Holm was married to the O. S. L. and while engaged in that work was hurt in an accident. Cancer and alcohol set in and this is held responsible for his rather sudden demise. He was 40 years of age, and has been suffering as explained for a year and a half.

If the people vote for the bonds, and the cash is realized, will it not go to pay the city's existing debt? What, then, becomes of the promised improvements?

James Tenny pleaded guilty to vagrancy. It was shown that he had begged on the streets and at the Cullen hotel. James will not have to beg for the next 30 days, but will have a chance to perform labor for the city for that period of time unless he "comes through" with $30.

THE LID WILL BE ON.

The "lid" will again be on tight in Salt Lake and the various resorts tomorrow. Chief Pitt says he does not propose to modify his orders one iota and that all the saloons must close this midnight and stay closed until the morning. Officers in plain clothes will be on duty tomorrow and the places where intoxicants are sold will be carefully watched for 24 hours.

STEALS A TELEPHONE.

Early this morning a thief broke into the store conducted by a man named Jacobson, at 305 State street, and stole a Bell registered phone. The instrument was cut from the wires and broken open. It is not known just how much money the instrument held. The case was reported to the police and they are trying to locate the thief and the telephone.

GEORGE BIND CARED FOR.

George Bind a Chinaman who wandered into the home of Spencer Clawson several days ago and frightened the ladies of the house, will not be prosecuted, and in all probability will be deported. He was held in jail on the belief that he was insane but this morning, Ah Woo, a wealthy Mongolian of Plum alley, called at police headquarters and agreed to take care of Bind. The man was released and accompanied Woo back to the latter's home. He will be cared for and furnished with employment. Woo stated that Bind was not insane but was a stranger here and did not know where to go.

Should men who brazenly repudiate their own promises be entrusted with $600,000 of the people's money?

HOME MADE SHOE DISPLAY.

Varied Styles and Qualities an Eye-opener to Many Salt Lake Residents.

The display of Z. C. M. I. factory shoes, now being exhibited in the show window of the large department store, is a surprise to even long time residents of Salt Lake.

"Why," said one gentleman, "I had no idea that such up-to-date styles and qualities were made right here within the borders of our city."

The display comprises the latest shoe styles for best wear in box calf, velour calf and also kid in black and colors, and a wide variety of booties for miners, emmenlmen, etc., and a line of shoes specially adapted for laborers, farmers and working men generally.

For some time Z. C. M. I. factory has had the reputation of turning out the best wearing shoes for boys and girls on the market, but that they also produced shoes for everybody of a similar quality has been a surprise to most people who have noticed the display.

It is claimed that these shoes are absolutely free from composition inner soles, and that every pair is made of solid leather throughout.

It surely pays to support home industry, when qualities like these can be obtained.

CYCLONE IN MINIATURE.

What would have developed into a cyclone in Iowa, ended harmlessly on the North Bench sand pits early this afternoon. A peculiar combination of air currents produced a miniature whirlwind that raised a heavy pillar of dust several hundred feet straight up in the air. After this had continued for a few moments, the top of the column branched out horizontally, and from this a long spiral streamer shot up several hundred feet further into the air. This latter waved to and fro, the base of the column was broken, and then the entire feature "went up in smoke," so to speak.

ATTRACTIONS FOR THE FAIR.

Secy. Ensign of the State Fair association has just concluded arrangements with the Park Booking Circuit for two high wire artists and a wire performing elephant, accompanied by a fireworks display; also, with the Western Vaudeville management for acrobats who dive into a tank of fire at night. WANT MINERAL EXHIBIT.

G. G. Watt, clerk of the City of Ocean Park, Cal., and the Venice Chamber of Commerce have written letters to Governor John C. Culler, relative to the establishment in "The Venice of America," of a permanent southwestern exposition. It is pointed out in the communications that the opportunity to display its mineral and agricultural products in a community of 300,000 inhabitants, such as Los Angeles, is would be of vast advantage to Utah, and the interest of this is elicited in the movement.

In addition to the divorce, a reasonable sum as alimony and attorney's fees is asked for by plaintiff.

PRESIDENT SENDS WEDDING GIFT TO MISS KOHLSAAT

Chicago, July 25.—President Roosevelt has penned an affectionate little note to his old friend, Herman H. Kohlsaat, announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Kohlsaat's daughter, to whom he referred as dear little Pauline.

The president enclosed an autograph message for Miss Kohlsaat herself. The note conveyed Mr. Roosevelt's heartiest congratulations, his best wishes for her future happiness and tucked in neatly at the end an expression of his love. The president assured Miss Kohlsaat that "there are no lovers like wedded lovers."

This was President Roosevelt's wedding gift to Miss Kohlsaat on the eve of her wedding to Herbert Palmer, Jr., which takes place next Monday.

In his letter to Mr. Kohlsaat, the president begs him to hand the inclosure to "Dear little Pauline, of whom I have heard so much."

The president then goes on to assure his friend that there can be no one outside of her own family who wishes her all possible happiness more sincerely than he.
